CONFER OVER WAREHOUSE BILL

State Railway Commission and Elevator Men Talk Matters Over.

EVERYTHING IS INFORMAL.

President of Farmers' Union Takes Active Part in Proceedings—Five School Districts in Boone County May Vote to Consolidate.

Lincoln, July 1.—Elevator men, on invitation of the railway commission held a conference over the new public warehouse bill. Nels Urdike of Omaha, of the Urdike company was present, as were also several others, about a dozen being in attendance. The proposition was talked over in a sort of informal way, President Gustafson of the Farmers' Union taking an active part in the proceedings.

The meeting was called for the purpose of giving the state railway commission an idea of the sort of opposition it would have to take in carrying out the law, and in pointing out its use.

Mrs. Maxfield Buried at Lincoln.

The body of Mrs. Gertrude Maxfield, who died recently in Los Angeles, was brought to Lincoln for burial. A short service was held at the cemetery. Mrs. Maxfield was the widow of the late Rev. J. B. Maxfield, who for thirty years was a Methodist minister in Nebraska, serving as pastor in Aurora, Beatrice, Blue Springs, Red Cloud, Friend, Weeping Water, Humboldt and Bellwood.

May Vote to Consolidate.

State Superintendent Thomas returned from a trip to Primrose, in the western part of Boone county, where a meeting was held by the residents of five school districts for the purpose of taking up the matter of consolidation of the five districts. The people are very enthusiastic over the idea and will probably vote to consolidate.

Governor Morehead to Geneva.

Governor Morehead went to Geneva to be present at the opening of the new building at the girls' industrial school. The building is modern in every way and is a valuable addition to the school. Elaborate exercises marked the dedication of the building, the governor delivering the principal address.

Dr. Case Arrives.

Dr. J. D. Case of Dorchester, an-pointed to the position of health inspector, so long held by Dr. Wilson, arrived in the city and began his duties. Dr. Wilson will resume practice in Lincoln.

STORM DOES HEAVY DAMAGE

Crops Hard Hit in Hamilton and York Counties.

York, Neb., July 1.—The rain and hail storm that passed through York county covered about sixty square miles. Damage to the wheat and oats crops is estimated from one-third to two-thirds total loss in the path of the storm. The storm started two miles north of Hampton, in Hamilton county, and traveled in a diagonal course northeast across the county in the direction of Bluevale. On the farm of William Overstreet, near Arroyo, the damage was the greatest, where all crops were destroyed. The buildings on the farm were blown down and two inches of rain fell in twenty minutes.

Two Fatal Accidents Near Holbrook.

Holbrook, Neb., July 1.—Mrs. C. J. Van Cleave was injured in an automobile accident south of Holbrook and died at her home here.

Lewis Debban was killed at his home eight miles southwest of Elwood when he was trying to catch a cow with a rope. The rope got entangled around his arm and he was dragged a considerable distance, receiving a crushed skull and internal injuries. He lived but a short time after the accident.

Jitney Drivers Go Into Court.

Omaha, July 1.—A petition for a restraining order to prevent the city commissioners from putting into effect the recently enacted jitney ordinance was filed in the federal court by Attorneys Thurston, Crow and Morrison. Judge T. C. Munger will come from Lincoln tomorrow to hear the arguments. The petition attacks the ordinance on the ground that it is unconstitutional in being confiscatory of the property and businesses of the complainants and owners and operators of jitney buses.

Heavy Flood Damage in Nuckolls.

Superior, Neb., July 1.—A banquet was held by the Superior Commercial club. The subject of good roads took up most of the time. A resolution was adopted, asking the county commissioners to call a special election to vote bonds so as adequately to repair the bridges and culverts of the county. It is estimated that they were damaged about $100,000 during the floods this spring.

Central City May Join State League.

Central City, Neb., July 1.—A meeting was called to take up the matter of Central City taking Grand Island's place in the Nebraska State league. Central City has won fourteen straight games.

GIVEN LDM. SOME JUDGMENT

Judge Stewart Hands Down Ruling on Compensation Law.

Lincoln, July 1.—When an employee dies by reason of injuries received while at work the employer may be compelled to pay the dependents of the deceased in a lump sum the present worth of the sums which accrue to the dependents upon such death.

Such is the opinion handed down by Judge Stewart of the Lancaster county district court in a suit by Rachel M. Bailey against the Fidelity and Guaranty company and W. A. Apperson, owner of a building in which the husband of Mrs. Bailey was killed last spring.

The deceased would have been entitled to $19 a week for 350 weeks and $100 for burial expenses under the terms of the workmen's compensation act. The order of the court was for the payment of $2,685.82, in addition to the $100 burial liability. The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

DUNDEE LOSES FIGHT TO STOP MERGER

Supreme Court Will Not Grant Appeal and Cities Join.

Lincoln, July 1.—The supreme court refused a supersedeas bond to the clerk and treasurer of Dundee during the hearing of the appeal to the high court from the writ of mandamus granted by the Douglas county district court to compel them to turn over their books and records for the consolidation of Omaha, South Omaha and Dundee to Greater Omaha.

DEATH CLAIMS J. H. RIGGS

Editor of Waterloo Gazette Dies Suddenly at His Home.

Waterloo, Neb., July 1.—James H. Riggs, editor and publisher of the Waterloo Gazette, died suddenly at his home here. Mr. Riggs was also publisher of the Elkhorn Exchange and Millard Courier.

James H. Riggs was born near Eddyville, Ia., Nov. 25, 1859. In 1882 he located at O'Neill, Neb., where he published the O'Neill Frontier, with which he was connected until 1895. The following year he edited the Randolph Times, after which he moved to Fremont and for three years was connected with the Fremont Tribune. In 1898 he bought the Waterloo Gazette, which he has continued to publish since that time.

Puts Ban on Cotton Fabrics.

Berlin, July 1.—The military command of the province of Brandenburg, in which Berlin is situated, has issued an order, effective Aug. 1, prohibiting the manufacture of fabrics wholly or chiefly cotton for nearly all ordinary purposes, such as articles of clothing, bed sheets and table cloths. The presumption from this order is that Germany needs all the cotton available for use in the manufacture of explosives.

Amateur Wrestler Has Neck Broken.

Pittsburgh, July 1.—Emil Kofitz, amateur wrestler, met his friend, Will Jan Berger, on a north side street and challenged him to wrestle. The challenge was accepted and the men struggled for ten minutes on the sidewalk before Kofitz was thrown. He did not get up and his friends hurried him to a hospital, where he died. His neck had been broken. Berger and half a dozen spectators were arrested.

Huse Co. Gets Workman Contract.

Grand Island, Neb., July 1.—The contract for publishing the Nebraska Workman, the official organ of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska, for the next five years was let to the Huse Publishing company of Norfolk, who have printed this paper for the last sixteen years. The contract was awarded on competitive bids.

Hold Mrs. Fox a Suicide.

New York, July 1.—Police Inspector Faurot, Assistant District Attorney Deacon Murphy and Dr. Otto H. Schultze, medical examiner for the district attorney, all said that the death of Mrs. Grace Fox was a suicide, and not a murder. Mrs. Fox was found dead in her apartment, with thirty-six stab wounds on her body.

Unveil Monument For Boone.

Cumberland Gap, Ky., July 1.—Citizens of North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky gathered here to participate in the unveiling of a monument commemorating the entry of Daniel Boone and the first party of pioneers into Kentucky 165 years ago.

Mrs. Ochsner Music Head.

Los Angeles, July 1.—Mrs. A. J. Ochsner of Chicago was named president of the National Federation of Musical clubs by the nominating committee.

RUSS CONTINUE TO RETREAT

Teutons Report Slavs Falling Back In Galicia and Poland.

WARSAW IS GOAL AIMED AT.

Austro-Germans Plan to Roll Back Ends of Semi-Circle and Leave City Open—British Forge Ahead on Gallipoli Peninsula—Quiet in West.

WAR SUMMARY

The Galician forces of Grand Duke Nicholas are still falling back before the Austro-German assaults. Artillery bombardments are reported from different points on the western front. The French war office states that in the Argonne region the Germans, after a three days' bombardment attacked the allied positions on the road between Binarville and Le FourdeParis but after a violent engagement were repulsed every where except near Bagatelle, where they gained a foothold in some parts of the allied lines.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, Etc.
