SUIT FILED AGAINST G. R. I. AND P. IN DISTRICT COURT

From Wednesday's Daily.
A suit has been filed in the district court entitled Felipe Mezano vs. the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad company. In his petition the plaintiff states that he was in the employ of the defendant company at Fairbury, Nebraska, on May 1, 1915, as a section man, and while engaged in his work was sent by the foreman to assist in moving the doors on a carload of gravel, and being unused to such work received permanent injuries and for which he asks the sum of $2,995, as damages. The plaintiff is now a resident of Louisville and is represented in his case by the firm of Palmer, Taylor & Palmer of Omaha.
