BAND CONCERT AND TWO BALLOON ASCENSIONS SATURDAY

The free public entertainment to be given for the residents of Plattsmouth and vicinity on next Saturday will consist of two balloon ascensions, one at 11 a. m. and one at 5 p. m., on the lot on Washington avenue where it was expected to hold the ascension last Saturday had not the stormy weather interfered with the program. The concert by the Burlington band will be given on Main street at 2 o'clock and will be one of the pleasing features of the afternoon's program of entertainment. For those who enjoy a good ball game the base ball association has provided a contest with the Cedar Creek team at the base ball park east of the Burlington station, and this will be given for a small admission fee. The ladies' rest room in the Hotel Riley block will be open for the visitors from the country and the ladies, when seeking a place to rest, can find a most comfortable room here awaiting their pleasure. All residents of the county are invited to come in and spend the day in this city and get acquainted with our people.

"CINDERELLA IN FLOWER LAND" AT NEHAWKA SOON

Mrs. Mae Morgan is in Nehawka at present arranging for the presentation in that beautiful little city in the next two weeks of "Cinderella in Flowerland," a very pretty musical operetta for the young folks. This operetta was given in this city two years ago under the direction of Mrs. Morgan and was a most delightful and pleasing entertainment and was attended by an audience that filled the Parmelee theater to its utmost capacity and was greatly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present. Mrs. Morgan has great talent in the training of the young people in musical work and there is no doubt that in the Nehawka production of the operetta the same success will result as characterized the performance in this city. The cast will be selected from the young people of Nehawka and they are now working on the musical number, as well as the drills and dances which will be used in the operetta.

ONE OF THE FINEST AND CLEANEST COMPANIES ENROUTE

In order for a carnival company to meet with success these days it is necessary that all offensive and repulsive features which at one time were a part of each company, be eliminated. The great success in this line of the amusement business of S. W. Bundage, whose shows are to exhibit here for one week beginning next Monday, is that Mr. Brundage has always endeavored to give the public clean and moral entertainment and has always waged war against the features which are offensive. Mr. Brundage's principal slogan, "our shows have passed the pure show laws," has established for his institution a splendid reputation wherever the shows have exhibited. But few carnival attractions have as splendid a line-up of attractions as the Brundage shows. Mr. Brundage has made an effort to provide the public with a different line of amusement and has surrounded himself this season with an assemblage of attractions which heretofore have never been seen with an organization of this kind. Leon W. Marshall's famous "Happy Days in Dixieland" is the big feature carried by Mr. Brundage. This attraction is one of the best minstrel performances on the road and will please all here.

Weak People.

Mr. Jos. Chyma, of Tama, Iowa, wishes to give a good advice to everybody. He says the following: "I received the goods ordered and used up two bottles. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is helping me very much and I can recommend it conscientiously to weak people troubled with their stomach. In such cases your Elixir is an excellent help. Please send me again as much as the last time. Jos. Chyma, Tama, Iowa." Mr. Chyma well understands the effects of this remedy—to relieve stomach ills, to clean out the intestines and to strengthen the body. It should also be used in diseases complicated with constipation. Price $1.00. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago.

Triner's Liniment penetrates the skin quickly and goes to the very seat of pain. Give it a good trial. Price 25c or 50c, by mail 55c or 60c.

FOR SALE.

One section, 640 acres, wheat land in Franklin County, Washington.

This land is rolling, but not rough. Located 100 miles southwest of Spokane, 2 1/2 miles north of Kahlotus, on two railroads. Soil volcanic ash, 2 feet to 6 feet in depth. It was broken in 1906, and a crop of wheat grown in 1907 netted the owner $2,900.00 after all expenses were deducted. It was plowed in 1912, and has lain fallow since. There is 215 acres in wheat this year, of which owner is to receive one-fourth free in warehouse at Kahlotus. The land is fence with a post and wire fence. There is a first mortgage of $5,000.00 due in November, 1916, at 7 per cent per annum.

Will sell for $22.50 per acre on liberal terms, purchaser to assume mortgage.

For further information write owner.

COMES DOWN FROM OMAHA IN SEARCH OF A ROBBER

Yesterday F. M. Pros, a retail grocer of Omaha, came down from his home to look after the whereabouts of C. W. Barns, a painter, who had been making his home in Omaha for some time. It seems that Barns had got acquainted with Pros at his store, and on frequent occasions he had cashed checks for the painter and they had always proven good, and when on Tuesday Barns presented a check for $97 at the store, it was cashed by Mrs. Pros, but later it was found that the check had been stolen from another man who had received it for some work for the Conservative Building & Loan association. By this time Barns had disappeared from view and nothing could be discovered of his whereabouts, although Mr. Pros made a thorough search in the metropolis for the man in the hopes of recovering his money. The only clue that he had was that Barns had married a lady from Plattsmouth several months ago and he at once came here, hoping to locate the gentleman who had shovled the check, but was unable to get any trace of him, and not knowing the name of the relatives of Mrs. Barns, was unable to get in touch with them. The check which was given Pros was perfectly good and the man from whom it is claimed Barns secured it will not suffer any loss, but Mr. Pros looks good to be out the $97 unless he can locate the missing painter and recover the amount. There is no one by the name of C. W. Barns known here as far as can be learned.

Mont Robb and wife and daughter, Miss Gassie, departed this morning for Union, where they expect to spend a few months on the farm near that place until Mr. Robb decides on a future location.

SAM G. SMITH, Plattsmouth, Neb.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

Mrs. Jennings is slowly improving.

Mart Cutler went up to Lincoln last week and forgot to bring his wife.

Bob Maxwell and Dan Johnson of Weeping Water were in town last week.

Hon. Sam M. Chapman returned from Washington on Thursday morning last.

The remains of Mr. Lambert, a B. & M. painter, were taken to Bridgeport, Conn., Wednesday. He had been sick for some time, and his sister arrived about a week prior to his death.

The sheriff and Squire Jones, the livery man, with Charley Holmes as referee, have some new horse joke every day. Each one tells the best he knows and then proves it by the other two.

Among those who took part in Miss Rogers operetta, "Princess Snowdrop," played at Lincoln last Monday evening, we noticed Miss Maggie Dawson, who personated the Queen of England, and Frank Stadter, Lord Mayor of London. The operetta was said to be very fine.

The Herald had the pleasure of meeting lately our new city councilman from the Fourth ward, Mr. McCallum; being absent during election we had not the chance to become acquainted before.

Mrs. E. E. Cunningham and children returned from Jacksonville, Florida, on Friday last. Mrs. C. is improved in health and was warmly welcomed by her many friends here. She also spent a few weeks in Savannah, Georgia, which place she liked even better than Jacksonville. She brought the Herald pleasant greetings from Florida friends.

A lively little runaway occurred Saturday afternoon. A team came down from Washington avenue, on Vine to Fifth, then down to and up Main to the top of the hill by Mr. Pronger's house, and just as they were about to jump off the bank somebody caught them. No damage was done, apparently, as they were at once driven up the avenue at full speed.

On Friday evening last the far-famed and plucky little Frenchman, Albert Christol, held a wrestling match with a champion of Nebraska, called Clarence Whistler. It seems the men tried a bout in Omaha, and Whistler threw the Frenchman, but it was claimed there was some unfairness about it, and Christol challenged Whistler to try it again at Plattsmouth, where Whistler would not be surrounded by his friends. The hall was moderately full, some of our best citizens attending, no ladies and no children admitted. Messrs. Sage and Bestor were chosen referees, and Capt. Soliday, umpire. Phil Young read the rules of the match. The men were stripped to the waist and were not allowed to catch any hold below the belt, no tripping, no touching of the knee, but fair Graco-Roman, main strength wrestling. Whistler is much the larger man and threw Christol the first fall. Christol gained the second fall and strained Whistler's elbow so that he could not use it in the third round, though Christol was not allowed to catch on that side. Christol won the last fall and, of course, the match. Prof. McCune gave some exercises with war clubs, and Christol and W. L. Wells tried the gloves a little. All was orderly and quiet and the audience expressed themselves pleased.

CELEBRATED THE FOURTH IN FONTENELLE PARK

Misses Belle and Dorothy Speck returned home from Omaha Tuesday evening, where they had been visiting with their brother, John and wife, for the past four days. While in the metropolis they celebrated on the fifth of July at Fontenelle park. This was the largest celebration of its kind, and the young ladies enjoyed all kinds of amusements, principal among which were the races, ball game, drills and fireworks. The races were very interesting and were so alluring that our friends participated in a race for young ladies, and Belle contested for a prize in a relay race and carried off second prize, which was a handsome shirt waist set. In the evening they witnessed the fireworks at the park, which were certainly grand and worth seeing. The improvement clubs, which had charge of the celebration, bought the fireworks, which amounted to several hundred dollars.

Union Meeting on Parsonage Lawn.

There will be a union meeting of the United Brethren of Liberty and the Methodists of Mynard on the lawn of the U. B. parsonage next Sunday, July 11. Special music will be furnished and Rev. G. A. Rabdall will preach. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The usual afternoon service will be held at the Eight Mile Grove church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. We urge all that possibly can to be present.
The Pastor.
