Mrs. Chas. Carroll was a Plattsmouth visitor last Saturday.

Elmer Hallstrom spent the Fourth with home folks in Plattsmouth.

A. L. Baker attended the auto races and wrestling match in Omaha on the Fourth.

Frank Slichtemeier shipped a car load of cattle to South Omaha Tuesday evening.

George Gibson and Frank Valley were Council Bluffs visitors Monday of this week.

Minford & Creamer shipped a car load of hogs to the South Omaha market Monday evening.

John Jacob, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stones, has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Oliver Lloyd has been numbered with the sick for the past week, but is improving at the present time.

Mrs. Ray Campbell, who has been numbered with the sick for the past few days, is reported some better at this time.

W. H. Puls was looking after some business matters and celebrating the Fourth for a few hours with county seat friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Trimpney came down from Omaha last Sunday evening and remained until Tuesday morning visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berger and Mr. and James Brown south of Murray. They returned home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hill are rejoicing this week over the arrival of twin babies at their home on the second of July. One boy and one girl, weighing six and twelve pounds. The mother and little ones are doing nicely.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore and son Walker drove to Plattsmouth Wednesday in time to catch the afternoon Burlington train for Omaha. Walker went on to the Black Hills, where he will make a visit with his uncle, John E. Gilmore, for several weeks.

The conditions of the big wheat crop in this locality are beginning to look rather serious. The many rains of the past few weeks have set it back a great deal, and now that some fields are ripening the rains keep it in such a condition that it is impossible to harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Pitman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schafer, Misses Pauline Oldham, Gertrude Long, Messrs Albert Young and George Nickels celebrated the Fourth at Cedar Creek, fishing. We have heard none of the big fish stories as yet, we haven't seen Albert Young.

Look over the new advertisement in this issue of the Journal for the Murray Hardware and Implement Company. Here you will in the future find a little hardware talk that may not only be of interest to you, but will save you some money at all times, when you are looking for hardware.

Adam Schafer, who has been suffering with a seige of the smallpox for the past two weeks, is getting along nicely at this time, but he has sure been a very sick man. There was not the slightest question as to him having the smallpox, and he will show proof of same for some time to come. We are pleased to note that he is getting along so nicely and will soon be entirely recovered.

Will Remove Stock.

Within the next few days the line of hardware now carried in the Puls & Gansemer store will be invoiced and sold to the Murray Hardware and Implement Co., and will be moved into that store. This will give the new firm an excellent line of hardware, one of the best and most complete to be found in a store in a town the size of Murray in the state. It is the intention of the new company to carry a complete line of hardware in all departments, as well as implements, and they also intend to treat the people right in the way of prices. The line will be more varied in the future, and all they ask is a chance to supply you what you need in their line, and it is up to them to make good.

Mrs. C. M. Barrows, of Cedar County, Nebraska, and daughter, Mrs. Sherwood, of Lyman County, South Dakota, are in Murray this week visiting at the home of their son and brother, Ted Barrows and family.

Glen Boedeker, Walt Sans and Ted Barrows took in the auto races in Omaha Monday. They were about like all the other people in attendance, very much disappointed with the outcome of the same in the way of entries.

Uncle Sam Latta and family returned home Tuesday evening from their extended auto trip in the west. Even though he met with many rain-falls and muddy roads, he reports a very pleasant trip.

Murray was pretty well represented at the auto races in Omaha Monday, and most of them were pretty much disappointed over the affair, too. They spent most of the entire day on the speedway and failed to see any of the great racers, as were scheduled on the bills.

Miss Selma Ettrup arrived in Murray this week from her home in Copenhagen, Denmark, and will make this country her future home. At the present time she is helping Mrs. Berger at the hotel, but from all indications we are led to believe that the young lady has an acquaintance in this country of many years standing, and that this was the particular cause for her leaving her native land.

C. E. Schwab shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha market last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rice and daughter, Ester, were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday.

C. E. Schwab has disposed of his fine fat cattle, selling two cars to Rich Smith, from near Union. They were fine ones, too, and brought a good price.

Frank Valley has his entire line of threshing outfits ready for the big rush. He has four complete outfits that will be placed in the field as soon as needed.

D. L. Amick has returned from his trip down in Arkansas, and has sold his farm possessions in that locality. Dave says there is no place in the world as good as Cass county.

The Murray Hardware company have been doing a land office business for the past few days in the binder business. They have sold out almost their entire stock, and they had a good line, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Trimpney came down from Omaha last Sunday evening and remained until Tuesday morning visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berger and Mr. and James Brown south of Murray. They returned home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hill are rejoicing this week over the arrival of twin babies at their home on the second of July. One boy and one girl, weighing six and twelve pounds. The mother and little ones are doing nicely.

JOHN E. MOORE PASSES AWAY AT THE LINCOLN HOSPITAL

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday morning at the state hospital at Lincoln, John E. Moore passed away after long years of affliction, and the body was brought here this morning on No. 4 for burial. The funeral was held this afternoon from the undertaking rooms of M. Hild, and the body laid to rest in the Eikenbary cemetery, south of this city. Mr. Moore was born in the state of Iowa on October 27, 1854, and was brought to this county when a child of 5 years of age. He was from infancy afflicted with a mental lacking that made it necessary for him to be cared for by his relatives, and it was with loving care that they watched over him during the many years of his life. Since the death of the father of the unfortunate man, some thirty years ago he has been cared for by his brother, W. F. Moore, and wife at their home near Murray, and everything possible for the care and comfort of the stricken one was given him by the brother and his wife until his increasing feebleness made it necessary to have him taken to the hospital last October, where he has been since that time and until death came to relieve him. Although a man of 60 years of age, his mind was that of a child and the care given to him by his relatives was all that could possibly have been asked for.

Obituary.

The following is a short biographical sketch of the late John Edgar Moore, who died at Lincoln July 6, 1915, aged 60 years, 8 months and 10 days, after years of suffering from mental trouble. He was born at Danville, Iowa, October 22, 1854, and came to Cass county, Nebraska, when 5 years of age, with his parents, J. B. and Mary E. Moore, and made his home here since that time until taken to the hospital in Lincoln last October. He leaves two brothers, Charles R. Moore, of Fruita, Colorado, and W. F. Moore, of Murray, and one sister, Mrs. W. S. Gray, of Stevenson, Washington; one brother, S. S. Moore, died several years ago. The funeral was held here yesterday and the burial held in the Eikenbary cemetery south of this city.

United Presbyterian Church News.

The primary class had a visitor last Sabbath in the person of Jean Ellington of Omaha. Jean is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Royal, and expects to stay several weeks.

George Thomas of Plattsmouth attended the Boys' Junior class while visiting his cousin, Orville Todd. We wished that George could stay longer.

The Happy Home Circle was entertained recently at the home of one of the members, Violet Keil. The girls and Mrs. Kennedy enjoyed the day and thank Violet and her parents for their kindness.

Last Sabbath evening Mrs. Todd read Miss Latta's report of the state Sunday school convention at Broken Bow. This report, together with Mrs. Todd's remarks, was full of interest.

(Too Late for Last Week)

Alf, Nichols of Murray visited in Plattsmouth last Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Moore visited her daughter, Margaret Moore, at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott left for Richland, Kansas, Sunday night for a short visit with Mr. Scott's parents.

Mrs. William Folk and children will leave Friday for Kansas to visit her parents until after the Fourth of July.

A. R. Young arrived Monday morning from Wyoming, where she had been the last week to look after some business.

Mrs. Joseph Cook was called to Omaha last Thursday to meet Mrs. A. R. Young and children from Valin, South Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Young and family departed Wednesday morning for their home in Valin, S. D., after a short visit with their mother, Mrs. Eliza Young, and sister, Mrs. Joseph Cook and family.

Time to Pay Up.

Owing to the fact that we have dissolved partnership, all our business matters must be settled up as soon as possible, and in order to complete matters we must have our book accounts settled up just as soon as possible. If you are indebted to the firm please call and settle same now.

Baker & Nickels.

F. J. Fitch of Elmwood, who is engaged in the well digging business, came in this morning to be present in the district court, where he is interested in some litigation.

Murray Hardware and Implement Company

We have now taken charge of the Baker & Nickels hardware stock, that was purchased by us a few days ago, and we are ready to meet all the old and new friends of the store in this section of Cass county. We have also bought the Puls & Gansemer line of hardware, and that will be moved to our store in the near future. We want you to call and see us, we want your hardware business, and we are going to make a desperate effort to get it, and if good goods at the right price is what you are looking for we will take our chances upon securing your future patronage in our line. This combined with the very best treatment that we know how to deal out to you, will always be our motto.

John Deere Gang Plows

Will be the next thing on the list for you Mr. Farmer. Let us talk to you when you are ready. We also carry the John Deere Wagon, the article that is needed on the farm the year round. Come in and let us talk to you.

Fourth With Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beil.

The Fourth of July was well spent by a few of the neighbors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beil. Music and games served as a pastime until the noon hour, when a delicious dinner was served fit for a king. After dinner the merry crowd gathered on the banks of the river, where a few pleasant hours were spent. Then all returned to the house, where ice cream and cake were served. Supper was served at 6 o'clock. After supper firecrackers were shot off until dark, and then a fine display of fireworks, after which all departed for their homes, saying that they had had a royal good time for the day. Those present were: Grandpa and Grandma Beil, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grauf, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McNate, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beil, Misses Delia Grauf, Vergia Campbell, Geneva and Emma McNatt, Hazel, Freda, Miriam and Goldie Sitzman, Goldie Beil, Manda Wiley, Messrs. Raymond Leo and August Graup and Ew Koprivil.

Threshing Outfit for Sale.

This outfit is worth the money asked for it. I have four outfits and cannot look after them all, so will sell one of them cheap.

The Place to Buy Lumber.

There never was a season so favorable for building and making improvements around your farm home as this one has been, and the activity around the Murray lumber yard is an evidence of this fact. More of all grades of lumber is being sold this spring than for many seasons. The demand for good goods and the fact that it can always be found at this lumber yard at the right prices are the causes for the increased business. Mr. Kikendall is after the lumber business of this locality, not only from the fact that it is due him, but because he is ready and willing to meet all competition on the numerous grades of lumber.

Puls & Gansemer

are still endeavoring to carry everything that you need today or will need tomorrow in the line of Dry Goods and Groceries. We want you business and realizing that by keeping the lines of goods that you will need today or in the future, is one chance in our favor of securing your business. We are buying goods to suit you, not ourselves, and if you will only let us know what you want we will be in a better position to please you, should we not have the article in stock.

Let us know your wants and we believe that we will be able to prove to you that we are a money saving station in Murray for you. When those wants are in our line we want to talk to you.
