COUNCILMAN BOB HARRIS HAS PAINFUL ACCIDENT From Wednesday's Daily. This morning Councilman Robert Harris met with a most painful accident while at his work in the Burlington shops. As he was engaged in his duties he passed by a steel car that was undergoing repairs, and just as he passed a corner iron fell from the car and nailed Bob on the head, cutting quite a gash that necessitated the use of several stitches to close, and Mr. Harris will be forced to take a lay-off until the injury heals, which will be several days at least. NO FREE ENTERTAINMENT BY THE CITY NEXT SATURDAY From Wednesday's Daily. Owing to the fact that the S. W. Brundage shows, with their fine attractions, will be with us all this week, it has been decided that there will be no special features put on Saturday afternoon for the entertainment of the public, as the management of the shows here have such an excellent list of shows that can satisfy the most exacting lover of high-class amusements. The Commercial club have arranged with the Journal that their announcements of the features for Saturdays can be found in the upper right-hand corner of the weekly last page, and through this means the visitors from the country can keep posted as to the attractions that will be furnished by the club here to amuse the public during the summer months. There will be something doing each week and the residents of the city and county should keep themselves posted as to what will be offered for their pleasure by the people of Plattsmouth. The unusual opportunity of having the splendid carnival company here this week will be a treat that will be appreciated by the residents of the county in general.

Glenn, and accordingly last Saturday afternoon the ladies of the Corps to the number of fifty, and some twenty of the G. A. R. members assembled there to join in the happy occasion.
