IN PLATTSMOUTH
FORTY YEARS AGO.
*****

M. L. White goes to the Black Hills this week to get Drew ready to smash things.

Mr. Barr of Greenwood presented us with some sample heads of wheat which measured 7 inches by actual measurement.

A sight for the gods of mischief to grow fat on—Bob Doon, George Mayfield and George Fairfield sitting on a dry goods box on the sunny side of Herold's store Monday.

They are making endeavors to open up the pottery interest at Louisville; we hope they may succeed.
There are valuable clays there which ought to be utilized.

Mrs. LaMar, a cousin of Mrs.
Hinkle, who has been visiting her relatives here for some time, returned home last week, and this week Miss Emma Hinkle goes to Miss LaMar's home in Marysville, Mo., to spend some time with her.

We are sorry to chronicle the death of a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Carl Seeley at West Point, where they are now residing. Mr. Mitchell, Mrs. Seeley's father, visited them last week, called there by the child's sickness and also by Mrs. Seeley's.

Sheriff Hyers don't always sleep when his eyes are shut, as Pottenger says—when taking in consideration the fact that Charley Viall had been in town only about ten minutes before Reuben tapped him on the shoulder and said, "come with me." Failing to get bail, Viall reposed in the ground-floor parlor of our county house.

They—that is the fellows that do such things—stole a fat hog from Mr.
Fitzgerald's forty on Thursday last, cooly slaughtered it, loaded it into a wagon and got away. Go slow, fellows, we're getting to hang men for stealing hogs.

A man by the name of Farmer, living in the southwest part of town, has been sick for weeks, is clearly insane and unsafe to be left alone or only with women to take charge of him, the neighbors are worn out and it is a clean case where county help and aid and authority should be extended and at once. Later—His case has been taken in hand by the commissioners of insanity, and he has been placed under the care of the sheriff until arrangements can be made to remove him to the asylum if found necessary.

The action of the primary conventions in the respective wards of this city on Saturday evening last resulted in the election of the following named delegates: First ward, Black, Plummer, MacMurphy, Wheeler; Second ward, Dovey, Jos. Johnson, Fairfield; Third ward, Chapman, Wells, Donnelly and Murphy, (under a misapprehension of facts, this ward elected four delegates, their apportionment being three); Fourth ward, Dorrington, Cutler and L. F. Johnson; Plattsmouth precinct, Thos. Wiles, Isaac Wiles, A. B. Todd, W. B. Porter.

Will S. Wise entertained several couples of Plattsmouth young people Tuesday night, in the best possible manner. A pleasant social time was enjoyed by all and everyone appreciated the splendid supper prepared by Mrs. Wise. The demand for strawberries and raspberries was immense, but the supply was unlimited and even Morrison and Drummond expressed themselves as satisfied, a fact which rather surprised the rest of the company. Mr. and Mrs. Wise done all possible to make things pleasant, which we are sure was appreciated.

As our last week's issue was published early to allow the boys to celebrate the Fourth, we were too early to give notice of the death of Rev.
Thomas Betts, which occurred on Tuesday, the 2d inst., at Rulo. Rev.
Mr. Betts is the father of Mrs. Walter White of this city. His death occurred quite suddenly, his wife being here in Plattsmouth visiting her daughter when the telegraphic summons came which called them to the deathbed of the dying husband and father. Mr. and Mrs. White went down with Mrs. Betts on Wednesday, returning on Tuesday last. Mr.
Betts spent some time with his family in this place several years ago, residing with his son, Rev. George C. Betts, who was at that time rector of St. Luke's church; he has since taken charge of various parishes in Nebraska, and though advancing years might have lawfully excused him from further active duty, died in the harness, faithful to the last.
