

SUCCESSFUL FORMER CASS COUNTY CITIZEN IN OKLAHOMA

From Saturday's Daily. C. S. Wortman of Claremore, Oklahoma, who has been visiting in the vicinity of South Bend, in this county, for a few weeks, during his stay in this city yesterday took advantage of the occasion to call on a number of his friends whom he had known while he made his home in this city during his term as county superintendent of Oklahoma. Since removing to Oklahoma Mr. Wortman has given up school work to take up the practice of law, and in the new commonwealth has made quite a success of his profession and has handled a great deal of litigation in the courts of Rogers county and the Oklahoma supreme court. In speaking of his county, Mr. Wortman stated that a greater part of the land there had been divided among the members of the Cherokee tribe of Indians and their former slaves by the federal government, but the Indians have sold a great deal of their land to settlers from other states at prices from $10 to $50 per acre, and the changes in ownership have furnished a great deal of business for the attorneys. Each Indian and ex-slave received an eighty-acre tract of land as their share when the tribal apportionment was made by Uncle Sam. Mr. Wortman still takes an active interest in political affairs and has become quite prominent in democratic politics in the south and was a representative in the Oklahoma legislature from his county and was one of the leading figures in that body. His success will be most pleasing to his old friends in this county.

From Friday's Daily. As one of the features of the harvest sale which is being held at the Wescott store this week, a special offer to the farmers of Cass or Sarpy counties, or Mills county, Iowa, who will bring the best sample of wheat of the 1915 crop from his farm to the Wescott store on or before noon July 31st. This wheat will be graded by a committee of competent judges and the sample grading the highest will be awarded a fine suit of clothes which will be selected to fit the winner and from his choice. HERE IS AN OPPORTUNITY OF MORE THAN A LIFETIME

There will be a splendid opportunity for some man, woman, boy or girl to attend the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco this year offered by the Mid-West Amusement company of this city, who are ready now to make the official announcement of the offer to the public. There will be the fullest opportunity afforded the public to get in the contest and capture one of the fine prizes offered to the ones securing the largest number of votes.

The proposition is that candidates for the prizes, the first of which is two round-trip tickets to the exposition at San Francisco, as well as the one at San Diego, and a trip to Universal City, including berths and meals on the trains enroute, shall dispose of the largest number of coupon books of tickets good for admission to either the Air Dome, Gem or Grand theaters; each book will contain eleven tickets and will be sold for $1. The candidates will be credited with 1,000 votes on each book sold, and in order to give everyone an equal chance in the game the contest will not be opened until Wednesday night. Coupon books can be obtained by the candidates Wednesday afternoon after 5 o'clock and the battle will then be on.

The second prize in the contest will be a handsome diamond ring and the third prize a handsome LaValliere. The contest is open to all and the particulars of this rare offer can be learned by looking over the ad in another part of this paper. In this issue will be found a coupon which will be counted as 100 votes for your favorite candidate, and they should be cut out of the Journal and presented for voting not later than August 1st. The coupons will appear for three days in the Evening Journal. Remember to cut them out and assist your friends.

OPEN AIR UNION MEETING QUITE WELL ATTENDED

The open air union meeting at the park last evening was attended by quite a large number, despite the threatening and uncertainty of the weather, and those in attendance felt well repaid for their presence in the excellent sermon delivered by Rev. F. M. Druliner, pastor of the Methodist church, which was one of exceptional force and strength and made a very deep impression upon his hearers. The music for the service was furnished by a choir from the different churches and added much to the excellence of the services. With each succeeding meeting the interest of the public continues to grow and a feeling of better understanding reached between the members of the different churches of the city.

Traveling Man's Experience.

"In the summer of 1888 I had a very severe attack of cholera morbus. Two physicians worked over me from 4 a. m. to 6 p. m. without giving me any relief and then told me they did not expect me to live; that I had best telegraph for my family. Instead of doing so, I gave the hotel porter fifty cents and told him to buy me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and take no substitute. I took a double dose according to the directions and went to sleep after the second dose. At 5 o'clock the next morning I was called by my order and took a train for my next stopping point, a well man but feeling rather shaky from the severity of the attack," writes H. W. Ireland, Louisville, Ky. Obtainable everywhere.
