PLATTSMOUTH VERY FORTUNATE IN REGARD TO STORMS

That this city is very fortunate in respect to bad storms was shown yesterday when the heavy hailstorm that caused so much destruction in other sections of the state, passed us by with only a heavy rain and very little hail. Omaha and the territory between that city and the Platte river, seem to have fared the worst from the storm, as the hail was terrific in that section, and the loss will total thousands of dollars. West of Louisville and clear to Ashland, there has been a great deal of damage done to crops of all kinds, and the farmers will suffer very heavily. In the vicinity of Gretna the storm laid waste many fields of growing corn and passengers on the trains through there at the time of the storm report the downpour of the hail as something terrific and laying to the depth of several inches over the ground. South of the Platte the storm seems to have lost its force, as there is little loss reported from hail, although a heavy rainstorm visited that section. In this city there were quite a number of trees broken by the wind that accompanied the rainstorm, and on North Ninth street, near the residence of C. G. Fricke, a limb from a tree was broken off and blocked the street for some time before it could be removed. A great many of the residents of the city who were attending church were caught in the storm, which broke shortly after the noon hour.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION AT WEEPING WATER LAST FRIDAY

Our neighboring city of Weeping Water experienced the excitement of a special school election on Friday last, in which the sum of $9,000 in warrants was voted to be applied in the construction of a new High school building, which is needed there to care for the fastly increasing number of students in attendance at the school. The majority in favor of the issuing of the warrants was 63 out of a total vote of 271, which is quite a large vote at a school election and an unusually large number of the women availed themselves of the opportunity of voting on this question, which is of such vital importance to the community from an educational standpoint. The Weeping Water High school has a reputation for excellence among the smaller schools of the state and with a new building to accommodate the work, the scholars should be able to find a greater opportunity to expand and develop and give the people of that community a school in which they can well take pride.

GREAT DAMAGE TO THE WHEAT CROP IN CASS COUNTY

Throughout the county comes reports of the damage that the wet weather has inflicted on the wheat crop, and the loss to the farmers will be very heavy from this cause, if the statements from the different sections may be believed. In a great many cases the wheat has started to sprout in the fields, and the green shoots have started from the heads of the ripened wheat, which is caused from the extreme damp weather starting the wheat to grow again, and as a result of this there is a great deal that will be a heavy loss to the farmers. There is also a good deal of the wheat cut that it has been impossible to handle, as it stands in the shock, and some has rotted and been spoiled by the effect of the rain preventing the threshing and handling of the new wheat.

BRUNDAGE COMPANY DEPARTED YESTERDAY FOR OMAHA

The close of the carnival here Saturday brought in a large number from the country in the afternoon and evening, which assisted in swelling the crowd that thronged the base ball park where the S. W. Brundage company were presenting their excellent shows, and in the evening over 2,500 persons were present to enjoy the closing hours of the big show. Throughout the engagement of the Brundage company there was most perfect order on the part of everyone connected with the carnival company, and those who visited the grounds were very much impressed with the fact that this company has certainly set a high standard for the other companies to follow, both in their shows and in the clean and orderly manner in which everything was managed. All the different attractions done a fine business all day Saturday and everyone attending felt that it had been a great pleasure to have the Brundage company here with us for the week. At the close of the shows Saturday evening the work of tearing down was commenced and by morning all the different shows were loaded on wagons and were transferred to the Missouri Pacific yards, where they were placed on the special train belonging to the carnival company for shipment to Omaha, where they will show this week at the circus grounds at Twentieth and Paul streets. The Brundage company was well pleased with the result of their stay here, despite the bad weather, and felt very grateful to the citizens for their patronage and good will shown them during their stay.

APPLICATION FOR A PARDON DENIED SITZMAN BY THE BOARD

The state board of pardons, which has had under consideration the application of Isadore Sitzman for a pardon from the penitentiary, where he is serving a life sentence for murder, has decided to refuse the application. Sitzman was sent up from Cass county in December, 1910, for the murder of Mike Gano, near Cedar Creek, together with Louis Keizer. A petition was circulated for his pardon, which was presented to the board, together with several protests from different sections of the county against releasing the man. County Attorney Cole was present at the hearing last Tuesday at Lincoln and represented the county in protesting the pardon.

THE T. J. SOKOL DANCE A VERY SUCCESSFUL ONE

The dance Saturday evening at the T. J. Sokol hall was one of the most pleasant events of its kind that has been held in the city for some time and was very largely attended by a jolly-crowd of dancers, who passed the time most pleasantly in tripping to the strains of the music furnished by the Holly orchestra, and it was a late hour when the dancers wended their way homeward.

Things to Consider in Buying a Car!

SERVICE—Every Overland Car sold in this vicinity since 1908 is still in service.

PRICE—No car today gives as much real value for the money as the Overland. You can satisfy yourself on this subject by comparing specifications with competitive cars.

UP-KEEP—No car was ever built that did not at some time or other need some repair. Repairs for the Overland can be obtained the same day as ordered, and at prices far below what other manufacturers charge. This fact does not occur to the average buyer until he needs some parts and finds it takes from one to three weeks to get parts and in many cases at prices two and three times what the Overland asks. Automobile factories have declined in numbers from 270 in 1911 to 119 in 1915. In other words 151 factories out of 270 have quit making cars in the last four years, and well informed men in the automobile business predict that the change in the next two years will be still more startling, which means that it will be still more difficult and still more delay on parts for cars that are not being manufactured at that time.

There is only one manufacturing plant in the world that produces more cars than the Overland Company, which has increased its production from 403 cars in 1908 to over 100,000 cars per year now. If the Overland car had not given far better average satisfaction to the buyer in the past it would not have outstripped all its competitors, many of which were in the automobile field twice as long.
