To the Country!

This is the time when everybody longs for the country. He is anxious to breathe again fresh air, to enjoy the quietude, to eat plain, good food for nature. We would advise him to take with him Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine in order to clean out the body and keep it clean. The change of the climate and of the food is often the cause of different derangements of the digestive system and constipation is usually the most pronounced trouble. This remedy improves the appetite, aids digestion and increases strength. It relieves constipation and pain due to gases. Price $1.00. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, Manufacturer, 1333-1339 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago.

Sudden weakness will often quickly disappear after a good rub-down with Triner's Liniment. This is also true of nervous headache and sore throat. Price 25c and 50c; by mail 35c or 60c.

Has Finger Infected.

Adolph Wesch, the shoemaker, is suffering from an infected finger on his left hand as a result of the bite of a bug or insect which he sustained a few days ago and which is now causing him much annoyance, as the injury has become infected and required the attention of a physician to look after it. It is necessary to keep the member bandaged up, which makes it quite annoying to Mr. Wesch in looking after his work.
