BIG DANCE AT THE GERMAN HOME NEXT SATURDAY NIGHT

One of the pleasant features of the dancing season will be the dance to be given at the German Home on Saturday evening, when the lovers of good dancing will be given the fullest opportunity of enjoying themselves in a nice, clean social dance.

Could Not Eat.

Sometimes an unexpected collapse overtakes us, making us unable to work and to eat. Our strength soon disappears. Mr. Bol. Steltonis wrote us about it as follows: "Best thanks for your remedy, which restored my health. I could neither eat nor work, but as soon as I started using Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine my appetite returned and with it my strength.

William Wetenkamp of near Mynard came in this morning and spent a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

Sam Pitman of Murray motored up yesterday afternoon from his home and spent a few hours looking after some matters of business.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC SOMEWHAT ON THE SLUMPING ORDER

While a small amount of new wheat is moving and the prospect for a fair movement a little later on is fairly good, the main business of Nebraska roads is in getting Pacific coast travelers through to their destinations and returning them safely.

For a few days freight traffic slumped and many thought an unusually dull season was at hand. The change came, however, and a fair traffic is being handled, although the business is not what operating officials call heavy.

W. B. Porter of Mynard was in the city today for a few hours en route to Omaha. Mr. Porter has just returned home from Missouri Valley and Logan, Iowa, where he had been looking after some matters of business.

Frank Blotzer, jr., from near Culom, was in the city today for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants. Frank is getting along in fine shape with his broken arm and hopes to be able to use it in a short time.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them.

Some 10,500 hogs showed up yesterday. There was a rather weaker feeling in all branches of the trade yesterday, and while some shippers were quoted as nearly steady, they looked to be fully off in most cases. Tops reached $7.30, this figure being paid several times by both packers and shippers for good lights. Narrow bulk of the packers' purchases landed at $6.25@6.40.

Sheep and lamb receipts totaled 8,400 head. The lamb market was fairly active and about 10c lower. It was an $8.80 market for desirable stuff. One car of lambs sold for shipping purposes at $8.85, the day's top. Old sheep were fully steady, some ewes bringing $6.50. Feeder lambs showed about a dime decline, some going at $8.10.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $8.60@8.85; lambs, fair to good, $8.40@8.60; lambs feeders, $7.40@8.10; yearlings, fair to choice, $6.00@7.00; wethers, fair to choice, $5.75@6.50; ewes, fair to choice, $6.00@6.50; ewes, fair to good, $5.00@6.00.

which he is president. He afterwards goes to Wisconsin to visit his old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton, formerly of Plattsburgh, met with a sad affliction recently in the death of their baby, a little girl 6 months old. They left Omaha yesterday on their way to Topeka, their future place of residence.

C. P. Moore, nephew of our C. P., from Canada, arrived in this city on Tuesday last for the purpose of visiting his relatives, and also to see the far west. Cal gave a small illumination across the way in honor of his arrival—so they say.

L. D. Lamon of Butler county, a former resident of Cass, and a thrifty farmer out there, called on the Herald last week. He came after young cottonwoods, but Mike McGuire and the boys were out of cottonwood and he had to return minus his load.

Parmele and Holmes have traded horses so that Parmele owns the fine sorrel team, one of which took a premium at the state fair last year, and Holmes owns the neat little black mare, also a good traveler, and for which he has lately purchased a mate, as perfect a little animal as is often seen.

Ezra Plummer brought in a sample of plums grown by Nelson Jean; cannot give the variety, but can vouch for their great size and beauty. They will be preserved for the state and county fairs and others will then have an opportunity of seeing what can be done in the way of growing that kind of fruit in Nebraska.

Young Mr. Blackburn, the librarian of the reading room now, is very faithful in attendance and keeps everything neat about the place. During the hot weather no one could be asked to stay there hardly, but as the cooler weather approaches we sincerely hope our better class of citizens will make it a point to patronize the room, and endeavor to make it a pleasant and permanent institution.

Last week Tuesday as Geo. Leving was carrying an armful of weeds out to the garden a snake of some kind bit him on the lip. It swelled and swelled. George got scared, the doctor came, whisky was administered and other remedies and at night George was as crazy as a combined set of "pizens" could make a man. After a night of torture we are happy to say he is getting better and will suffer no permanent injury.

Operation Most Successful. This evening Miss Alice Weyrich will return home after several days spent in Omaha, where she has been at the Clarkson hospital in that city recovering from an operation for an affliction of her throat. The operation has proven most successful and the young lady returns home feeling greatly improved.
