Cedar Creek

PICNIC TO BE GIVEN AT CEDAR CREEK.

The United Presbyterian Zion's church of Cedar Creek, Neb., has decided to give its annual picnic in one of the groves near Cedar Creek on Saturday, September 11th. The following committees have been appointed: General Committee—Philip Schafer, Jacob J. Schneider, John Meisinger, sr., Adam Kaffenberger, John Lohnes, G. P. Meisinger, Adam Fornoff. Committee on Grounds—William L. Terryberry, John Lohnes, jr., John Gauer, Adam B. Fornoff, Adam Meisinger, J. J. Meisinger. Committee on Refreshments—John H. Busche, George Lohnes, G. L. Meisinger, Henry Sanders, Henry Albert, Mrs. George Lohnes, Mrs. G. P. Meisinger, Mrs. John Busche, Mrs. Walter Schneider. Committee on Amusements—Walter Schneider, chairman; swings, William Lohnes, G. P. Meisinger, jr., Frank Solberg; games, Mrs. Ashley Ault, Miss Minnie Metzger, Mrs. William Schneider, Mrs. J. F. Wolf; races, Clarence Busche, Otto Sprick, Philip Albert; base ball, John F. Wolf, Fred J. Fornoff, Henry A. Larson. The day will be spent in playing games, races, contests, game of base ball and general outdoor sports. Inasmuch as the general public is invited a large crowd is expected and much interest is already being manifested in the coming event. Everybody is expected to come with filled baskets. Various kinds of refreshments will be on sale on the grounds, and the profits, if there be any, will be used for the benefit of the above named church. It was first decided to hold this picnic on Thursday, August 26th, but on account of the continuous rains the farmers have been thrown behind with their harvest and threshing, and for that reason the time was changed to the later date—September 11th—when everybody will be welcome. Surprise on Mrs. William Dasher. Thursday, August 5, was Mrs. William Dasher's thirty-first birthday, and quite a number of friends gathered and journeyed to the Dasher home with well filled baskets, where they gave Mrs. Dasher a surprise and reminded her that another year had flew by. Mrs. Dasher received quite a number of valuable presents. At an appropriate time a fine dinner was served by the ladies from the well filled baskets, and all ate to their heart's content, with everything in plenty except the pie, and somebody was left without a piece, because one of the party said the pie was fine, but it took two pieces to prove it. After dinner they all departed for their homes, wishing Mrs. Dasher many returns of the day. Those in attendance were: Jake Schneider and wife, William Schneider and wife, A. O. Ault and wife, C. Lyle and wife, J. W. Wolf and wife, Robert Stivers and wife, Walter Schneider and wife, Anna Rys of Plattsmouth, Grandma Wolf, Mrs. Henry Dasher and daughter, Clara. For peaches see Reames at Cedar Creek. Clarence Busche spent Sunday at Cullom. Joe Brandback went to Plattsmouth Monday. James Hensenflow visited in Plattsmouth Monday. Rev. Swartz came out Saturday and preached two fine sermons Sunday. G. P. Meisinger and family were in Elmwood visiting relatives Sunday. C. A. Gauer and family visited Elmer Meisinger and wife Sunday. Miss Eva Dasher spent the fore part of the week visiting in the country. Gertrude Meisinger and Helen Schneider went to Plattsmouth Wednesday. G. B. Wurl and Harry Newman of Plattsmouth were in Cedar Creek Thursday. Will Meisinger and family, from Springfield, spent Wednesday at G. P. Meisinger's. Harry Baughman and wife came in Saturday to visit a few days with home folks. Miss Edith Dasher, who has been visiting at Chalco, Neb., for the last few weeks, returned home Saturday. Miss Anna Rys of Plattsmouth, who has been visiting friends in Cedar Creek for the last week, returned home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson, from Clearwater, Neb., who were called here on account of the illness of William Nesson, came in Monday evening. The shoot Sunday morning was more of a success than two weeks ago, but as usual, John Wolf carried off the high number of 24 out of 25. Hugh Alexander and Jess Terryberry tied on 23. The picnic that was to have been held on August 26, has been postponed until September 11th. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy an old-time picnic and see your friends and renew acquaintances. A good time is assured. Quite a number from here attended the ball game at Plattsmouth Sunday, as follows: William Schneider, Lloyd Schneider, James Hensenflow, Robert Stivers, William Dasher, A. O. Ault, C. Lyle, Walt Schneider and family, J. W. Wolf and family. Quite a few from Cedar Creek went to Plattsmouth Monday to see the show. Those going from here were: Mrs. William Schneider and daughters, Helen and Verla; Mrs. Lyle and son, Everett; Mrs. J. W. Wolf, Jake Schneider and wife and J. W. Wolf, Irven Meisinger, Gertrude Meisinger and Harry Meisinger and wife. Thursday was Mable Dasher's ninth birthday and quite a number of her playmates gathered and helped her celebrate the occasion. Those present were: Bernice Ault, Merna Wolf, Jerald Ault, Grace Duff, Loreau Ault, Everett Lyle, Linville Lyle, Oliver Schneider, George Dasher, Nemo's Dasher. All enjoyed a jolly good time. Quite a few young people from here attended the dance at Treitch's Saturday night, as follows: Clarence Busche, Forest Baughman, Ralph Rudolph, Arthur Meisinger, Irven Meisinger, Gerty Meisinger, Verla, Helen and Lloyd Schneider, Nora Baughman, Mert Baughman, Glen and Lawrence Meisinger. All report a good time. William Nesson died at his home at the Cedar Creek quarry at 5:30 p. m., Monday, August 9, 1915. Mr. Nesson came to American in March, 1894, and was married to Miss Tena Hanson January 30, 1905. To this union one child was born, whom, with his mother, is left to mourn the loss. The funeral was held Thursday at the Methodist church, leaving the house at 2 o'clock. Mr. Nesson was well known in this vicinity and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to those left behind in their bereavement. ALVO NEWS ITEMS Noel Foreman went to Lincoln Sunday.
