MRS. PHILIP RHIN SUFFERING FROM THE EFFECTS OF A FALL

Mrs. Philip F. Rhin is confined to her home suffering from a rather painful experience which befell her Tuesday afternoon at her home in the north part of the city. Mrs. Rhin, after the dinner hour, decided to look over the attic of the house with a view of having it fixed up into a living room, and as the only means of reaching the attic was through a small hole in the ceiling of the kitchen, she was compelled to use this, and found it quite dark and hard to get around in the small room which constitutes the attic. The last she distinctly remembers of the accident was striking her head on a timber in the roof of the house, which dazed her somewhat and caused her to fall, and in doing so she broke through the lath and plastering and fell to the floor of the kitchen, where she lay for some time in an unconscious condition before she could arouse sufficiently to call assistance, and was then placed in bed, where she has been compelled to remain since that time. Apparently no bones were broken, but she has suffered very severe bruises about the head and shoulders and it will probably be several days before she is able to be up and around.

GEORGE W. SHRADER AND FAMILY DEPART FOR VIRGINIA

Last evening George W. Shrader, one of the leading citizens of the eastern section of this county, in company with his daughters, Mrs. Frank L. Rhoden and Mrs. Charles Wolf, as well as his nephew, Sidney Wimmer, of Oregon, departed on No. 2 for a trip that will occupy several weeks, back to the old home of Mr. Shrader at Bluefield, Tazewell county, Virginia. This is the first time in many years that our old friend has visited his boyhood home in the Old Dominion and the visit has been one he has been looking forward to for some time with much pleasure, and the daughters are anticipating a most pleasant time in taking in the sights en route and in visiting their father's old home in the Virginia hills.

M. S. BRIGGS FALLS AND IS QUITE SERIOUSLY BRUISED

Yesterday afternoon about 4:30 while M. S. Briggs was engaged in some work at his new residence property on Granite street he was so unfortunate as to fall and injure himself in quite a serious manner. Mr. Briggs was engaged in fixing an electric light wire on the outside of the house and was working from a scaffold which had been extended from the window in the second story, and in some manner the board became loosened and allowed Mr. Briggs to fall to the ground, a distance of some fourteen feet, and had it not been for the fact that it was quite muddy and the ground soft he probably would have been even more seriously injured than he was. The board on which he had been standing fell in such a manner that the end struck him in the small of the back and inflicted a very painful bruise and he was badly "banged up" as a result of the fall and experienced great difficulty in getting around this morning, being quite sore and stiff, but as far as can be discovered there were no bones broken. The accident was very unfortunate, but it is lucky that Mr. Briggs was not more seriously injured.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC!

(Paid Advertisement.) In justice to Messrs. Shlaes and Peterson of the Mid-West Amusement Co., I have a few words to say. During all the time of the contest I found Messrs. Shlaes and Peterson most fair at all times, showing no preference or partiality, and as far as I could see, treated all contestants alike. I fully appreciate the fact that the Mid-West Amusement Co. were requested by me and other contestants to hold back some votes, which was just as fair to one as to another, therefore the difference in the announcement on the slide. I now stand to date, 11,000 votes in the lead, but owing to the fact that my nearest competitor has withdrawn, leaving me the only active contestant in the field. I am compelled to withdraw also, as it wouldn't be fair to myself or the Mid-West Amusement Co. to remain the only active contestant, as there is no contest with only one active contestant. I have all the faith and confidence in Messrs. Shlaes and Peterson and regret very much that such had to be done, but under the circumstances there is no alternative, in order to be fair and just.

I also want to thank my many friends for their kind assistance in this contest and fully appreciate the interest they have shown and taken in this contest for me. I assure you your kindness will never be forgotten. Again thanking you for your many favors, I remain, respectfully yours, Paul Stadelman.

WATER COMPANY EXPECT TO INSTALL NEW HYDRANTS

The Plattsmouth Water company are preparing to install a new fire hydrant on lower Main street near the Burlington subway that can be used for the protection of buildings in that section of the city from fire. This has long been needed as the nearest hydrant to the Burlington depot and freight house and yards has been at Third and Main streets, and in case of a serious fire this would hardly prove adequate to supply enough water. The property in the radius that can be covered from the new hydrant is considerable and it is a wise move on the part of the city in granting the request of the Burlington to supply them with the needed protection.

MRS. P. F. GOOS ENTERTAINS KENSINGTON YESTERDAY

Yesterday afternoon the Kensington club was entertained by Mrs. P. F. Goos in a most delightful manner at her home at the Plattsmouth hotel, and the ladies belonging to this club were more than pleased with the gracious hospitality shown them, and the event was one that was thoroughly enjoyed by the members. As is usual at these gatherings, the time was spent in plying the busy needle, as well as social conversation, and some time was spent in this way. At a suitable hour the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Olga Crossary and Miss Paula Goos, served a very dainty and tempting three-course luncheon.

MANY LOCAL TENNIS SHARKS WILL ENTER THE CONTEST

Many of the tennis "sharks" of this city have signified their intention of entering the inter-county tennis tournament, which is to be held in this city August 23-27. Up until last evening the following had entered their names for the tournament: T. M. Patterson, Robert Walling, Bruce Rosenerans, E. A. Wurl, John Falter, Junior Marshall, Ray Larson, Rev. H. G. CcClusky, Ben Windham, Rev. F. M. Druliner, Harris Cook, Ed Schulhof, E. A. Fricke. There are at least four or five more who will enter from this city, and there should be close to a dozen from the different towns throughout the county. It is hoped that the disagreeable weather will be over by the time for the tournament rolls around, but should it rain the courts will dry quite rapidly.
