The weather conditions have been against the lumberman so far this season. The result is that the stocks have accumulated and prices gone down. Shingles are cheaper today than they have been in the last ten years. If your roofs are in bad condition now is the time to fix them.

JOHN TOMAN, SR., REPORTED BETTER THIS MORNING

The condition of John Toman, sr., the aged gentleman who had been in such a critical condition at his home in this city for some time, is reported as being a little better this morning. His two sons, Julius and Joseph Toman, have arrived from their homes in Oregon and South Dakota, to be present at their father's bedside and to assist in caring for him during his illness. Mr. Toman is quite well advanced in years and the chances of his recovery are not considered of the best, but his family and physicians are expending every effort to aid in the recovery of this fine old gentleman.

"THE SECRETARY OF FRIVOLOUS AFFAIRS" AT THE AIR DOME

The Mutual masterpiece which will be presented this evening at the Air Dome will be one that is certain to please the most exacting movie fan over, as it is one of the most interesting society dramas placed on the screens by the Mutual company, and its title, "The Secretary of Frivolous Affairs," point to its portrayal of the modern American high society, while interwoven with it is a most entrancing mystery story. May Allison and Harold Lockwood are the stars of the production. The story of the play, in brief, is as follows:

Upon the death of their father, Louie and Josephine learn that instead of being wealthy heiresses, they are practically penniless. Fortunately, Louie secures the position of secretary to rich Mrs. Hazard, becomes a great social favorite, and the latter's son, Hap, falls in love with her. One evening, while dancing with the Duke de Trouville, Natalie, with whom Hap has been infatuated, loses an emerald bracelet, and accuses Louie of being the thief. Then follows a series of jewel thefts and Winthrop, a young author, in love with Hap's sister, Laura, is arrested. One night Louie, suddenly awakened, discovers thieves at work, whereupon she is seized, bound and taken to a lonely cabin. The household is awakened and a search begins. Hap, who has been knocked unconscious by one of the thieves, revives and joins in the pursuit. In the meantime Louie has escaped from the cabin, later falling unconscious upon the beach, where she is found by Hap. At the Hazard home the duke, who is discovered in the act of stealing valuable pictures from the gallery, and Mrs. Cutter, another one of the guests, turn out to be the jewel thieves and are brought to justice. Naturally, this stirring climax is followed by exquisite love scenes, in which Hap, Louie, the exonerated Winthrop and Laura are the principals.

W. F. Truelsen, wife and little son of Omaha were here over Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker, and other relatives and friends in this city.

FLOATER TAKEN OUT OF PLATTE RIVER TODAY

There is a Possibility That It May Be
C. S. Wortman, Who Mysteriously
Disappeared Two Weeks Ago.

This morning shortly before noon "Dad" Childers, who resides near the Platte river, just above Oreadopolis, made the discovery of the body of a floater about a mile west of the railroad bridge in the Platte river.

The body was that of a man well advanced in years and as far as could be learned at noon there were no marks of identification on the body, and to judge from the appearance of the corpse it was a man some 45 to 50 years of age, but it had been in the water some time and the identification was very hard. There is a possibility that the body is that of C. S. Wortman, who disappeared two weeks ago from the home of his daughter in Ashland, and of whom there has been no trace found.

As soon as he was notified Sheriff Quinton departed for the scene to take charge of the body and to discover, if possible, some clue that might settle the question of whether or not it was the body of Mr. Wortman. The body was landed on the island in the Platte about a mile above the bridges by Mr. Childers to await the arrival of the sheriff and county coroner to take charge of the remains.

FISHING PARTY TO CEDAR CREEK BACK; REPORT GOOD TIME

The fishing party which has been at Cedar Creek for a few days enjoying outdoor life and the pleasures of trying to snare the finny tribe, yesterday broke camp and returned to this city with a good record of the number of fish landed during their stay in the vicinity of Cedar Creek. The party was composed of John Kirkham, Albert Rheinacke, Frank McCarthy and Will Mason, and were reinforced on Saturday by Gus Swanson, who arrived to assist in the sport. Many exciting stories are related of the doings in the camp that afforded not a little pleasure to the party. The residents in the vicinity where the party camped were entertained very much by the singing of the quartet, which was one of the successes of the trip, and much heretofore unknown musical talent in the members of the party was developed during the time they were in camp. Mr. McCarthy returned home Saturday evening, while the rest of the boys remained until yesterday to secure as many fish as possible.

THE NEW HARDWARE STORE OF BESTOR & SWATEK IS NOW OPEN

The new hardware store of Bestor & Swatek opened its doors today to the citizens of Plattsmouth and Cass county with a full and complete line of hardware of every description and everything in the store is brand new and a well selected stock is inviting the public who may desire anything in their line. The new firm is composed of sterling young men who are well versed in the hardware line and should be able to give the citizens a first-class store in every respect, and all can rest assured of courteous treatment at their hands all the time. Mr. Frank Bestor has been employed in the hardware business for a number of years, while Mr. Swatek, who comes here to make his home, has been engaged in business in Omaha and is a young man well qualified in every way to assist in the operating of a first-class store. Both he and his family will receive a hearty welcome here.

The ladies of St. Mary's Guild, to aid in raising funds, have secured the best moving picture in the country for presentation here, "The Heart of Maryland," with Mrs. Leslie Carter, and the cost of the production makes it necessary to charge 25 cents, although it was shown in New York for $2 a seat at the Hippodrome.

W. W. Moore and wife and little son, Wilson, arrived Saturday from their home at Schuyler and will enjoy a visit here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Moore has entirely recovered from her recent illness.

C. D. Spangler, wife and children, who have been living near Murray, departed this afternoon for Orange, California, where they expect to make their home during the coming winter. They were accompanied to the station by a large number of relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Tritsch and daughter, Esther, who have been visiting Mrs. Tritsch's brother, Edward Tagel, at Osmond, Neb., and her sister and brother, Ida and Robert Hagel, at Norfolk, Neb., for the past week, returned home today on the noon train. On her return Mrs. Tritsch called at this office and renewed the subscription of the paper going to Robert Hagel at Norfolk.

Despondency Due to Indigestion.

"About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon, Macedon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." Obtainable everywhere.
