Foley's Honey and Tar is an old and reliable family medicine and frees children from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Parents may save trouble by giving before school opens. Sold everywhere.

ASKS THE APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTOR OF ESTATE

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday a petition was filed in the county court asking for the probate of the estate of the late Charles S. Wortman of South Bend precinct, and the document was admitted to probate with the nomination of C. S. Wortman, a son, as the executor of the estate. This estate is quite a large one and consists of 700 acres of land, as well as several thousand dollars in money. The will of the late Mr. Wortman was drawn up last June and disposed of his estate among the different children.

NEWSPAPER MAN RECOMMENDS IT.

R. R. Wentworth of the St. James (Mo.) News, writes: "A severe cold settled on my lungs. I feared pneumonia. Foley Honey and Tar straightened me up immediately. I recommend this genuine cough and lung medicine." Right now thousands of hay fever and asthma sufferers are thankful for this wonderful healing and soothing remedy. Sold everywhere.

FOR SURE THERE ARE FINE PEACHES IN CASS COUNTY

From Wednesday's Daily.

Those who do not believe that Nebraska is some peach country should call and gaze into the show windows of the Journal, where Harry Smith has on display two of the biggest and finest-looking peaches that can be found anywhere in the whole country, even in the heart of the great peach-growing section. These peaches are grown on a tree at the farm of Mr. Smith near the poor farm and are of the celebrated "Champion" variety, and their very appearance is enough to make the mouth of the lover of this luscious fruit water and Mr. Smith can certainly claim the prize for peaches in Nebraska this year. He will have these peaches on exhibit at the state fair as showing what Nebraska can do when she tries.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

Mr. Thurnagle, formerly partner of Geo. Fickler, was killed last week at Nebraska City by the falling of a house he was at work on.

George Foster mashed two of his fingers off coupling cars Monday. Mustn't couple cars with your fingers, George; try your toes.

Messrs. Leonard, Bennett and John Barnes left for the Black Hills on Monday. Hope they may do well and bring back lots of gelt.

"Dick" Streight, one of our best known livery men, has gone to Chicago to be absent a week. He affectionately bid the Herald good-bye and told us to take care of the boys while he was gone. All right—you take care of "Dick" while you're gone, too, my boy. Shekaugo is a big place.

Dr. and Mrs. Dio Lewis spent Sunday last with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wheeler. Dr. Lewis finds that the benefit to his health by his long sojourn in California last summer is not so permanent as he hoped for, and he therefore returns to try it again. We sincerely hope that he may be benefited.

Mr. Thatcher, an old grain buyer of this town, and partner at present of William Darrah, returned to his old love (Plattsmouth) last week and will soon settle down among us again for the winter. "Thatch" and Connor used to make a lively team on a Saturday afternoon on Main street, but since Connor has got married he has become so good-natured and pious that "Thatch" says he can't get a "cuss" out of him, and there's no fun left buying grain any more. If it wasn't for Billy Darrah he'd go back to Hastings at once. We did hear that Connor had joined the church and was going to preach soon—on the wickedness of "corners and sich." Thatch will do the heavy (hass) singing at Connor's revivals.

Three Groves—Ed. Herald: I think that the Three Groves' Reporter has gone back on the Letter Box somehow or other, or the readers of the Herald will probably think so by his not writing regularly, so I thought that a few lines from this part would cheer them up once more. Last Thursday evening the people of this neighborhood and vicinity had a grand festival at the brick school house for the purpose of raising funds to be donated to the Rev. Hull of this circuit. By the kindness of friends I was invited to attend, and of course went. Arriving at the school house pretty early we had a chance to note all the proceedings. First thing of any importance to be noticed was the committee; they were busy preparing the tables and emptying out the well-filled basket which had previously arrived, and spreading their contents thereon. From the looks of the good catables that were placed before us, such as pies, cakes, chickens, turkeys, oysters, peaches and other things too numerous to mention, we should judge that the people of this place were not grasshoppered very mad last year, and always have plenty to eat. After supper was over an hour was spent in auctioning off a few large handsome cakes, which sold to the highest bidder, bringing a neat sum, and the purchaser being none the worse off. By this time the postoffice was opened. Mr. Isaac Coren acted as postmaster; it was very interesting for the young ladies and gentlemen to receive letters from their sweethearts by paying 10 cents postage, and then find nothing in them only a blank sheet of paper or pretty near it. The attendance was not as large as expected on account of bad roads, rainy and disagreeable weather. Receipts of the evening were announced at $30.60, which, after expenses are paid, will be presented to Mr. Hull for his future wants.

One train on the C. B. & Q. had 345 passengers bound for Nebraska, and the other eastern roads are bringing them in equally fast. It won't be "menless lands" long at that rate.

The telegraph dispatches announce the appointment of Hon. W. F. Robb of Otter county as United States collector of revenue for Nebraska, in place of H. A. Newman, removed.

J. W. Barnes and George Fairfield are busy assessing the town and this part of the county, nowadays. They make a good team for the business and we think will make as fair assessment as we have had lately.

Pottenger was lying half asleep on the office lounge the other day when Sam Chapman got a young bloodstock to commence operations on one foot; before he could fairly open out, however, "Pot" was over the table and backed up in the corner, protesting that they wanted to ruin his practice and reputation, by getting him polished up.

Durell, the man who was taken to the asylum from South Bend last year and afterward released to visit with friends, was returned from Maine on Saturday worse than ever. It took two men to hold him and his hands were lacerated fearfully.

An unknown party attempted to gain an entrance into Mr. Fitzgerald's house last Tuesday night, but Mrs. Fitzgerald being awakened by the barking of the dogs, asked who was there, and finally called Uncle Denny, when the man took his leave, going down Vine street.

From Three Groves.—Warm weather has again made its appearance, indicating the annual return of that invigorating and refreshing season when the cold and snowy robes of winter are laid aside for the freshness and beauty of spring. But though the summer-like weather is beautiful at present, a snow storm, accompanied with a northwester may break the stillness at any time without a moment's warning.

The Odd Fellows of Rock Bluffs gave a grand supper at Mr. L. H. Young's on Tuesday night last. The repast was excellent and the table was bountifully supplied with the best of the season. The attendance was not as large as could have been expected for such an occasion. We noticed, too, that some of the members were very negligent in attending; in fact, a number of the members were not present at all. Notwithstanding this, plenty to eat, and fun seemed to be the order of the evening with those present, and the time was well spent by all.

We understand that Uncle Jimmy Chalfant had an arm broken a few days ago. Haven't heard how it was done as yet.

Dick Oldham returned from the west on Friday last.

Edward Wiley is happy now. One more to be added to the census. They say it's a boy.

The Rock Bluffs school closes this week.

Miss Joanna Young returned Sunday from a short visit in Weeping Water.

Quite a number of cattle have been sold in the last two or three weeks. More remain unsold.

Considerable sickness throughout the neighborhood; principally bad colds and sore throats.

Some few farmers plowing and sowing wheat. The amount of wheat sown this year will be as large as in former seasons.

ADVANTAGES OF THE PARCELS POST GROWING RIGHT ALONG

The advantages of the parcel post as a medium of shipping packages has been growing constantly in popularity and the postoffice department at Washington is constantly adding to the facilities of the system by increasing the size and weight of the packages that can pass through the mail, and the latest advantage to be added is that of an insurance for the different mail matter that is included in the parcel post regulations. The postoffice department has made the rate for the insurance that will be effective on September 1st, when the following rate of insurance can be secured.

Covered by a 3-cent fee, value up to $5.
Covered by a 5-cent fee, value up to $25.
Covered by a 10-cent fee, value up to $50.

Duroc Jersey Hog Sale!

MYNARD, NEBRASKA

Tuesday, September 21st

I am offering at public sale 44 head of pure bred Duroc Jerseys. Amongst the offering are 18 boars, 19 open gilts, 4 sows with litters and one open tried sow.

Five of these animals are sons and daughters of the famous "Old King Col." and are animals of real merit; one yearling boar that will weigh around 500 pounds (out of ECHO'S CRIMSON WONDER, GRAND CHAMPION at the Nebraska State Fair 1914.) This boar I will make a special offer on. Will agree to take him back at the price he sells for at sale, in one year's time, providing he is in as good condition as he is now.

Will have 4 Spring boars of the JUMBO CRITIC strain—all large and good; one of them will beat 200 pounds, and is a real outstanding animal of this strain. Balance of animals are mostly by the above boar—"Echo's Model Wonder." One sow with litter by her side, a grand-daughter of "COL. GANO," an animal I paid $95.00 for at Oscar Larson's sale last winter, will go in the ring and some one will get a bargain.

Remember the Date—Tuesday, September 21. Sale to be held in large building, one-half block from the depot.
