MURRAY COUPLE ARE MARRIED AT THE COURT HOUSE

Yesterday afternoon at the court house occurred the marriage of Mr. Carl J. Lyngge and Miss Selma Ettrup, both of Murray, the ceremony being performed by County Judge Allen J. Beeson, and was witnessed by Mrs. J. W. Berger and Dr. J. F. Brendel of Murray. The young people have resided at that place for a short time and have made many friends during their residence there, who will be pleased to learn that they are to make life's journey together in the future. After the ceremony the young people returned to their home, having motored to this city.

Mr. Lyngge has been in this part of the country for the past two years, where he has been employed in farming and other work, and is a young man who has gained the friendship of all who know him in this locality. Miss Ettrup arrived in this country, direct from her home in Denmark, about two months ago, and has been employed at the Berger hotel as an assistant to Mrs. Berger. She is a young lady of excellent qualities, and is well liked by all the people of this locality with whom she has become acquainted. They are both natives of the same country, and their wedding was planned long before leaving the old country.

The usual charrivari party greeted the young people at the Berger hotel in the evening, which was composed of a large number of the ladies and gentlemen of this community, and in place of making the usual racket on all the old tin pans of the alley, they brought with them many new and useful articles in the tin and granite-ware line that were presented to the happy couple after the disbanding of the party. For the present the young people will make their home in Murray.

The Place to Buy Lumber.

There never was a season so favorable for building and making improvements around your farm home as this one has been, and the activity around the Murray lumber yard is an evidence of this fact. More of all grades of lumber is being sold this spring than for many seasons. The demand for good goods and the fact that it can always be found at this lumber yard at the right prices are the causes for the increased business. Mr. Kikendall is after the lumber business of this locality, not only from the fact that it is due him, but because he is ready and willing to meet all competition on the numerous grades of lumber.
