

CHAPTER II.

"This is our ranch." EFORE Berea could reply a man's phone, however." voice called, "Hello, there!" and | "Where will I find the government n tall fellow stepped up to her phone?" with confident mien.

Norcross awkwardly shrank away. It was impossible that so attractive a girl should be unattached, and the knowledge produced in him a faint but very definite pang of envy and regret-get the stranger. She gave him her hand in parting, and again he thrilled to its amazing power. It was small, but it was like a steel clamp. "Stop in on your way to Meeker's," she said, as a kindly man would have done. "You pass our gate. My father is Joseph McFarlane, the forest supervisor. Good night."

"Good night," he returned with sincere liking. The hotel was hardly larger than the but the ment was edible, and just outside the door roured Bear creek, which came down directly from Dome mountain, and the young easterner went to sleep beneath its singing that night. trail " He should have dreamed of the happy mountain girl, but he did not. On the contrary, he imagined himself back at college in the midst of immunerable freshmen yelling: "Bill McCoy! Bill McCov. He woke a little bewildered by his strange surroundings, and when he besy washstand, the ugly wall paper and Fisitor be smiled. thought how far he was from home and friends he not only sighed, he shivered. The room was chill, the pitcher of water cold almost to the freezing point. and his joints were stiff and painful from his ride. What folly to come so far into the wilderness at this time!

his bed and looked from the window he recuperate-if I can." out tree or shrub to give shadow or I'll mellow that suit of yours and make of the town was lessened by the pres stream was singing its glorious moun- your school?" tain song, and away to the west rose the aspiring peaks from which it came, class," Romance brooded in that shadow, and The other man displayed his fob. on the lower foothills the frost tauch- "I'm ten classes ahead of you. My ed foliage glowed like a mesaic of jew. name is Nash. I'm what they call an Dressing burriedly he went down to utensils gave evidence of the presence of many hunters and fishermen. The slovenly landlord was poring over a help." with a mop. But a cheerful clamor father is in the lumber business, but from an open door at the back of the his point of view isn't exactly yours." hall fold that breakfast was on.

Venturing over the threshold, Norcross found himself seated at table gul." with some five or slx men in corduroy. fackets and laced boots, who were, in fact, merchants and professional men from Denver and Pueblo out for fish and such game as the law allowed. and all in holiday mood. They joked the waiter girls and joshed one another in noisy good fellowship, ignoring the slim youth in English riding sult. who came in with an air of mingled melanchely and timidity and took a sent at the lower corner of the long

As he looked about the room the tourist's eye was aftracted by four young fellows seated at a small table to his right. They were rough shirts. of an olive-green shade and their faces were wind scorched, but their voices She cuts a wide swath up here. Being in the present and future of a girl held a pleasant tone, and something in the manner of the landledy toward them made them noticeable. Norcross later asked her who they were.

"They're forestry boys." "Forestry boys?"

"Yes. The supervisor's office is here. and these boys are his help."

This information mided to Norcross interest and cheered him a little. He many of the rangers were college men. today's stage, but it's only a short ride Her face shone cordially as she call-He resolved to make their acquaint across." spee. "If I'm to stay here they will! belo me endure the exile," he said.

find the postoffice, expecting a letter of lane. "Good morning, Emery," she instructions from Meeker. He found called to the surveyor. "Good mornnothing of the sort, and this quite discongerted him

"The stage is gone," the postmistress day after tomorrow. You might reach

Meeker by using the government

"Down in the supervisor's office They're very accommodating. They'll This was her cowboy lover, of course. let you use it if you tell them who "Good morning," she nodded at Noryou want to reach."

It was impossible to miss the forestry building for the reason that a handsome flag flattered above it. The door being open, Norcross perceived ment of meeting her lover, did not forner close by the window another and older man was working intently on a

"Is this the office of the forest supervisor?" asked the youth.

The man at the machine looked up. and pleasantly answered: "It is, but the supervisor is not in yet. Is there anything I can do for you?"

"It may be you can. I am on my way to Meeker's mill for a little outing. Perhaps you could tell me where log shanty of a railway grading camp, Meeker's mill is and how I can best get there."

The man at the map meditated. "It's not far, some eighteen or twenty miles, but it's over a pretty rough > at kind of a place is it?" . charming. You'll like it. Real in country."

about thirty-five, with keen all clear eyes. His voice, though prougly nasal, possessed a note of came aware of the cheap bed, the flim- manly sincerity. As he studied his

"You look brand new. Haven't had time to season check, have you?" "No. I'm a stranger in a strange land."

"Out for your health?"

"Yes. My name is Noveross. I'm just getting over a severe iliness, and As the eastern youth crawled from I'm up here to lay around and fish and in again tater. We may be able to

"I am a 'Son of Ell.' Last year's

'expect.' I'm up here doing some estimating and surveying for a big ditch the small barroom, whose litter of they're putting in. I was rather in dufile bugs, guns, saddles and camp we sons of Eli are holding the conserhopes you had come to join our ranks. vation fort these days, and we need newspaper, while a discouraged half "My knowledge of your work is rathgrown youth was sludging the floor er vague," admitted Norcross, "My

> "He slays 'em, does he?" "He did. He helped devastate Mich.

"After me the deluge! I know the kind. Why not make yourself a sort of vicarious atonement?"

money in the work, but it's about the most enlightened of all the govern- By the way, you'll like Landon. He's mental bureaus." forester, whose tone was that of a Meeker's house. It's a pretty well highly trained specialist. "I rode up known fact that Alec Belden is part on the stage yesterday with Miss Ber- proprietor of a saloon over there that rie McFarlane."

"The supervisor's daughter?"

"She seemed a fine western type." "She's not a type; she's an individual. Thetic with the crowd." an only child, she's both son and whom he had met for the first time daughter to McFarlane. She knows only the day before, was quite rendy more about forestry than her father. to give up his trip to Meeker. her judgment."

want to take up valuable time. He message from Meeker. He found neiphone to Meeker's?"

knew something of the United States order. You'll have to wait a day or so. pony and leading a blaze faced buckforest service and had been told that or use the mails. You're too late for skin behind her.

As they were talking a girl came gal- this morning?" leping up to the hitching post and slid "Tiptop," be answered, in an attempt After breakfast he went forth to from her horse. It was Beren McFar- to match her cheery greeting. ing," she nodded at Norcross. "How cent." do you find yourself this morning?" "Homesick," he replied smilingly.

"I'm disappointed in the town." commission." Berrie looked round at the forlors grassless yards. "It isn't very pretty that's a fact, but you can always for get it by just looking up at the high When you going up to the mill

"I don't know. I haven't had any word from Meeker, and I can't reach him by telephone." "I know. The line is short circuited somewhere. But they've sent a mar out. He may close it any minute." "Where's the supervisor?" asked Nash

"He's gone over to Moore's cutting How are you getting on with those plats?

"Very well. I'll have 'em all in shape by Saturday" "Come in and make yourself at home," said the girl to Norcross. "You'll find the papers two or three days old." she smiled. "We never know about anything here till other people have forgotten it." Norcross followed her into the office, curious to know more about her. She officer was a plain featured was so changed from his previous conception of her that he was puzzled She had the directness and the brevity of phrase of a business man as she opened letters and discussed their con> tents with the men. "Truly she is different," thought Norcross, and yet she lost something by reason of the display of her proficiency as a clerk. "I wish she would leave business to some one else," he inwardly grumbled as he rose to go.

She looked up from her desk. "Come reach the mill."

was still further disheartened. In the "You can-you will. You can't help fle thanked her and went back to his foreground stood a half dezen frame it." the other assured him. "Join one hotel, where he everhanted his outfit buildings, graceless and cheap, with- of our surveying crews for a week and and wrote some letters. His disgust charm of line-all was bare, bleak, a real mountaineer of you. I see you ence of that handsome girl, and the sere. But under his window the wear a Sigma Chi pin. What was hope that he might see her at luncheon made him impatient of the clock. She did not appear in the dining room, and when Norcross inquired of Nash whether she took her meals at the hotel or not the expert replied "No: she goes home. The ranch is only a few miles down the valley. Occasionally we invite her, but she don't think much of the cooking."

One of the young surveyors put in a word: "I shouldn't think she would. I'd ride ten miles any time to eat one of Mrs. McFarlane's dinners."

"Yes," agreed Nash, with a reflective look in his eyes. "She's a mighty fine girl, and I join the boys in wishing her better luck than marrying Cliff Belden.

"Is it settled that way?" asked Nor-

"Yes, The supervisor warned us all but even he never has any good words Norcross smiled, "I had not thought for Beiden. He's a surly cuss and vioof that, it would belp some, wouldn't lently opposed to the service. His "It certainly would. There's no great Meeker mill, and they have all tried to do not expect. bulldoze Landon, our ranger over there. a Harvard man and a good ranger. Norcross was strongly drawn to this His shack is only a half mile from worries the supervisor worse than anything. Cliff swears he's not connected with it, but he's more or less sympa-

She hasn't her like anywhere I've gone. Norcross, already deeply interested

In fact, half the time he depends on | Early on the second morning he went to the postoffice-which was also the Norcross was interested, but did not telephone station-to get a letter or said, "Will you let me use your tele- ther. But as he was standing in the door undecided about taking the stage "Very sorry, but our line is out of Berea came into town riding a time bay

ed out, "Well, how do you stack up

"Do you like our town better?"

"Not a bit! But the hills are magnifi-

"Anybody turned up from the mill?"

"No, I haven't heard a word from there. The telephone is still out of

"They can't locate the break. Uncle thops: the irregular sidewalks, the Joe sent word by the stage driver asking us to keep an eye out for you and send you over. I've come to take you over myself."

good deal to ask." "I want to see Uncle Joe on business. anyhow, and you'll like the ride better taining than the journey by stage."

their bridle reins hanging on the cough, ground, she led the way to the office. "When father comes in tell him worked and disordered kidneys and where I've gone and send Mr. Norcross' packs by the first wagon." "You'd better take my bay," sake rheematism, Berea. "Old Paintface there is little at least been instructed in range horse three family remedies for only 5c. osychology, and as he gathered his reins together to mount, Berrie remarked:

"I hope you're saddle wise." "I had a few lessons in a riding school," he replied modestly. Young Downing approached the girl with a low voiced protest. "You oughtn't to ride old Paint. He nearly pitched the supervisor the other day." "I'm not worried." she said and swung to her saddle.

The ugly beast made off in a tear ing sidewise rush, but she smilingly followed her in high admiration.

Eventually she brought her broncho to er along the wagon road quite comfortably. By this time the youth had for cross. "How do you find yourself this gotten his depression, his homesickness of the morning. The valley was again enchanted ground.

rather sorry fields of grain for a mile their home at Crofton, Neb. or two Berea swung into a side trail "I want you to meet my mother," she

The grassy road led to a long, one story, half log, half slab house which stood on the bank of a small, swift. willow bordered stream.

"This is our ranch," she explained

The young easterner looked about in Joseph's hospital. astonishment. Not a tree bigger than his thumb gave shade. The gate of the cattle corral stood but a few feet from the kitchen door, and rusty beef sun dried hides littered the ground or the many fine attractions. hung upon the fence. Exteriorly the low cabin made a drab, depressing ple lover Sunday at the home of her parwas met by a sweet faced, brown haired little woman, in a neat gown.

awkward or embarrassed. told you about," explained Berrie. Mrs. McFarlane extended her small not enjoyed a visit for some time. band with friendly impulse. "I'm very glad to meet you, sir. Are you going to spend some time at the mill?"

"Mr. Sutler! Oh, we know him very well. Won't you sit down?" books and magazines, dog eared with friends in that city. use, littered the table, and Norcross, feeling the force of Nash's half expressed criticism of his "superior," lis From Wednesday's Daily. tened intently to Mrs. McFarlane's apologies for the condition of the farm | terday for a few hours looking after ymrd. "Well," said Berea sharply, "if we're to reach Uncle Joe's for dinner we'd better be scratching the hills." And to her mother she added, "I'll pull in time, looking after same matters of about dark." The mother offered no objection to her daughter's plan, and the young peonie rode off together directly toward the high peaks to the east.

(To Be Continued.)

U. B. Church Notes.

There will be Sunday school at 10 and preaching at 11 o'clock next Sunday at the U. B. church, south of Plattsmouth. As it is nearing the closing of the year there will be important announcements to be made. Let all the membership make an effort brother is one of the proprietors of the to be present. Those not interested we J. M. Eads, Pastor.

Very Pleasant Meeting.

From Wednesday's Daily. Last evening Plattsmouth lodge, B. P. O. E., held their first meeting of the fall season and a very large number were in attendance at the session. The lodge has been enjoying their summer vacation during July and August, and now start in on their fall work with enthusiasm. Two candidates, G. H. Reece and John Jirousek, were taken into the antiered herd, and following the meeting the members enjoyed a very delicious luncheon, which was served in the dining room on the second floor.

This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any tase of Catarrh that cannot be cared by Hall's Satarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Teledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Chemey for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

NAT. BANK OF COMMERCE.

Toledo, Ohlo.

Hall's Catarri Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price R cents per bottle. Sold by all Drugststa. Take Eall's Family Pills for constipation.

Cut This Out-It Is Worth Money

"That's mighty good of you, but it's a cents to Foley & Co., 2825 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will re-ceive in return a trial package con-

(1) Foley's Honey and Tar Com-Leaving the horses standing with for coughs, colds, croup, whooping timbiness and chest, grippe and bronchial coughs. bladder ailments, pain in sides and back due to Kidney Trouble, sore muscles, stiff joints, backache and

(3) Foley Cathartic Tablets, a notional."

Norcross approached his mount with a caution which indicated that he had Sold Everywhere.

Local News

From Tuesday's Dany John Tighe of Manley came in this afternoon to look after some matters of business for a short time.

Simon Clark and wife visited over Sunday and Monday at Cedar Creek called back, "All set." And Norcross with their daughter and family in that

W. R. Young of near Mynard was subjection, and they trotted off togeth | here Saturday for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

John L. Mayfield and wife, who have been here visiting with relatives After shacking along between some and friends, departed this morning for of the lot is four feet. They are do-

Mrs. Olive Snyder of Omaha was an over Sunday visitor here at the home of her father and mother, Rev. J. M. Eads and wife, at their farm home near Mynard.

Adam Meisinger of near Mynard was in Omaha yesterday for a few "All the meadow in sight belongs to hours visiting with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Philip H. Meisinger, jr., at St.

Arthur Baker of Murray came in this morning from his home and was a passenger on the state fair special bones, bleaching skulls and scraps of for Lincoln to spend the day taking in Miss Florence Richardson visited from her duties at Omaha.

Charles Patterson of Arapahoe, ac-

Mr. Meeker from a friend of mine who their relatives and friends and enjoyhunted with him last year-a Mr. Sut ing a rest from their duties in the bank at Arapahoe.

Mrs. F. J. Hennings and daughter, The interior of the house was not Miss Helen, came in yesterday from only well kept, but presented many their home in Eight Mile Grove preevidences of refinement. A mechanical cinct and departed on the afternoon piano stood against the log wall, and train for Omaha for a short visit with

T. W. Vallery was in the city yesome trading with the merchants. Henry Meyn departed this afternoon for Aberdeen, S. D., to visit for a short usiness. Mrs. C. R. Frans departed this morning for Glenwood, Iowa, where From Saturday's Dally. the will visit for a few hours with relatives and friends.

Mrs. C. H. Parmele returned home has been for a short time visiting with her daughters in that city. those going to Lincoln this morning, where he will visit for a few hours in attendance at the state fair.

Joseph Altman, wife and son, Miles, an outing trip of several weeks.

turned home last evening on No. 2.

Philip Becker and Will Jean depart-locality. Ed Tritsch was among the residents the state fair special this morning and visited the capital city to spend a few nours there taking in the sights. parted this afternoon for Lincoln, home near Murray. where he will, attend the state fair, and was accompanied as far as Ash- WANTED-A good, steady, gentle- filed before said hour on said last day land by his daughter, Miss Lucille, who will visit there for a short time.

Miss Florence Currier of New York City, who has been here for a short visit as a guest of Miss Amelia Martens and Miss Lillian Cole, departed ast evening on No. 2 for her home in the east. She has been visiting on the Pacific coast for a time.

Mrs. Henry J. Streight returned home yesterday afternoon from a trip of several weeks' duration to the Pacific coast, and during which time she was the guest of her son, Ed Streight, at Portland, Oregon. Mrs. Streight was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Jackson, on her trip, and both ladies had a fine time.

J. W. Allen, who is manager of ene of the large moving picture producing companies on the Pacific coast, and IN THE DISTRICT COLLET OF CASS whose home is at San Francisco, arrived in the city this morning for a Charles C. Parmele, Plaintist, a convention of theatrical managers.

MURRAY

(Continued From Page Six.)

Laying Concrete Walk.

The citizens of Murray and farmers of surrounding territory are certainly to be commended for one line of improvement that they have been doing this week, that is the laying of the new concrete walk leading to the school house. From their lot line to the school building they have been in or to said real estate, signal laying a twelve-foot walk, then quite a distance they are making it eightfoot, and the balance along the length enterprising citizens are lending aid with a day's or two work. Some time ago the ladies gave a dinner and other similar occasions for the raising In the District Court of the County of of funds for the material, and the men folks are doing the work. Now it is Amelia Vallery Straight, Plaintin, the duty of the property owners leading up to this new school walk to join them, giving a good walk from the main part of town right up to the school house door, and this should be done just as soon as possible, before W. M. Small, first real name unknown.

May Callin, Daisy Miller, nee Wright,
Harry T. Miller, Bersie Jackson, nee

George Berger in Town.

George Berger, of Ness City, Kanture, but as he alighted upon Berea's ents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richardson, sas, arrived in Murray last Sunday invitation, and entered the house he near Mynard, and taking a vacation evening for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berger, and whose bearing was not in the least Hans Goos of Plainview, a former other relatives and friends. He de-"This is Mr. Norcross, the tourist I a short visit with relatives and his will attend the State Fair before remany old friends, with whom he has turning to his home. George is well pleased with his location in Kansas, and has been doing well. His crops companied by his nephew, James Pat- are looking good as is possible under "I don't know. I have a letter to terson, is here for a short visit with the present conditions, and he has en-

> FOR SALE OR RENT-Cores store room in Murray, known as the old Holmes and Smith stand. There are four good living rooms in connection with the room. For particulars call or write J. W. Holmes, Murray,

GEORGE W. SHRADER AND FAMILY RETURN FROM VIRGINIA

Neb.

This morning George W. Shrader and daughters, Mrs. F. L. Rhoden and Mrs. Charles Wolf, returned home last evening from Lincoln, where she from a trip of several weeks duration back in old Virginia, where Mr. Shrader spent his boyhood days among the hills and valleys of the Old John Kaffenberger, jr., was among Dominion. The trip was one he enjoyed, although the party were handicapped by the bad weather prevailing there and which prevented them from returned home this morning from Chiliked to of the country. There has eighth (1-98) thereof; that the country and prayer of said petition is to obtain the space, where they have been enjoying been a great deal of rain in Virginia the shares of the parties as above. seeing as much as they would have this season, as well as Nebraska, and stated and to partition the said real Fred Stewart, who has been visiting Mr. Shrader and daughters seemed to at Palmer Lake, Colorado, for a few have hit the worst of the season and days with his mother and sister, re- the atmosphere was very chilly and cold a great part of the time they George A. Meisinger departed this were there and kept all three of them petition morning for Omaha to visit with his feeling rather poorly. They brought 1915. daughter-in-law, Mrs. P. H. Meisinger, back a number of souveniers from the at the St. Joseph's hospital for the trip, and among these was a large buckeye burr containing five buckeyes that they secured at the place where they were visiting in Ohio, and this In the County Court of the County of ed this morning for Aberdeen, S. D., where they will spend a short time they presented to the Journal, as a ooking after land interests in that greater part of the residents of this In Re Estate of Francis Kushinsky section are unaware of the appearance | Deceased. of the tree or its seed, although they To All Persons Interested: of this vicinity who took advantage of West Virginia and Virginia. Mr. ing upon claims against said estate > manly salesman to handle a Ward's of hearing will be forever barred. wagon in Cass county. No experience needed. For full particulars write promptly to Dr. Ward's Medical Company, Winona, Minn. Estab-8-12-8twkly lished 1856.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the County Court of Coss County, Achresko, In the Matter of the Estate of Charles S. Wortman, Deceased few days' visit at the home of his father-in-law, J. E. McDaniel and family. He has been at Chicago attending the control of t nknown; and the unknown beirs, de cinces, legalers, personal represent-atives and all other persons interested in the estate of Mrs. C. H. Kleeman, first real name unknown, detendants:

COUNTY, NEBRASKA,

Brst real name unknown, defendants:
You are hereby notified that on July 28th, A. D. 1915, plnfuthr filed his suit in the Instrict Court of Cass County, Nebraska, to quiet the title to the following described lands in Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, to-wit:
Lot Pive (5), in Block Unity-three (23), in the City of Pixttsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska. The object and prayer of which soft e to have expunded from the regard of declared null and void one certain iff, and for equitable rallef.

Dated this and day of August, A. D. 15. CHARLES C. PAUMELE. Plaintiff. A. RAWLS, Attorney for Plaintiff.

5-9-1W KH NOTICE OF SUIT TO QUIT TITLE. Cass. Nebraska.

A. I. Small, first real name unknown, et al., Defendants. real name unknown; P. M. Small first cal name unknown; J. C. Small, first cal name unknown; James L. Small, Small, first real name unknown Wright; James S. Burns, also known as James S. Burnes, and the unknown belrs, legatees and devisees of Alice It.

You are hereby notified that on July 20th, A. D. 1915, plaintiff filed her suit in the District Court of the Counts of use, Nebruska, to quiet title to the llowing described land, to-wit: Let three (5), in Block nineteen (19), in the Cuy of Pluttsmouth, (19), in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska Because of her adverse possession by Plattsmouth resident, is here enjoying parted Tuesday for Lincoln, where he herself and her granters for more than equitable, in or to said land or ar e order of the Court.

You are required to answer said petion or before Monday, the 18th day September, A. D. 1916, or your de-ult will be duly entered therein AMELIA VALLERY PRIESCHT,

W. A. ROBERTSON, Attorney

8-1-4wks-whit NOTICE TO NON-BESIDENT

DEFENDANTS, Jacob Stetfler, James Sottler, Sarah Jackson, William Bauman, George Bautian, Jacob Baginan, James Bau-man, Sarali Downen, Kate Swihart, Winnie Kanous, Theren Stettler, Maude Shultz, Clifford Stettler, Clarand Emma Hamlin, Non-Ress

dent Defendants:
You and each of you are hereby orified that on the 27th day of July, D. 1915, Harley Wolfe, as plaintiff, lied his petition in the District Court f Cass County, Nebraska against you and each of you as defendants, im-deaded with Frank J. Stettler and pleaded with Frank J. Stettler and George Siettler; that said plaintiff in maid petition alleges that he is the owner of an undivided one-half of the following described real estate, to-wit: The East Half (E. 12) of the Northwest Quarter (N. W. 14) of Section Thirty-four (14), and the West Half (W. 15) of the Southeast Quarter (S. E. 14) of Section Twenty-seven (27), all in Township Eleven (11), North, of Range Nine (9), East of the 6th P. M., in Cass County, Nebraska; that Jacob Stettler, James Stettler and hat Jacob Stettler, James Stettler and Strah Jackson each owns an undivided ne-fourteenth thereof, that William lauman, George Bauman, Jacob man, James Hauman and Sarah Downer and some an undivided one-seventieff of the cereof: that Kate Swihart, Winnie anous, Theren Stettier, Edward Ball, heda Williams and Emma Hamin ach own an undivided one-forty-serler, Clifford Stettler, Clarence Stettler, Sdward Stettler and Clean Stettler ach Owns an undivided one mnety-ighth (1-98) thereof, that the object

You and each of you are required to nawer said petition on or before the 7th day of September, A. D. 1915, and n failing so to do your default will be uly entered therein and judicinent aken as prayed for in plainings

By PALMER, TAYLOR & PALMER, His Attorneys. B-10-4 Wks NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Cass, Nebraska.

are quite common throughout Ohio. You are hereby notified that hear-

Shrader and daughters came in this will be had at the office of the County morning on No. 1 and remained here Judge, Court House, Plattsmouth, Nefor a few hours until Mr. Rhoden braska, on the 8th day of September. County Assessor W. R. Bryan de- could drive up for them from his farm A. D. 1915, and on the 8th day of March, A. D. 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m. on each of said days. All claims not

> By the Court, ALLEN J. BEESON. County Judge.

W. A. ROBERTSON, 8-9-4twkly