

Nebraska Military Academy

(INCORPORATED)

YOUR BOY must be educated and developed. If he is not doing well in school, is discouraged, wants to do more and better work, the NEBRASKA MILITARY ACADEMY is a school close at home where you can send him and be sure he gets what you want him to have. This SCHOOL understands BOYS and deals with them individually. Prepares for college and business. For information, talk to our patrons, visit the school, phone or write for catalog. Address COL. B. D. HAYWARD, President LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Local News

From Friday's Daily.

Judge Begley returned to Omaha this afternoon, after a short session of the district court.

Henry Hinz, sr., was in the city yesterday for a few hours looking after some matters of business and calling on friends.

J. I. Fitch, from near Murray, was among those going to Lincoln this morning to spend a short time talking in the sights.

Mrs. Thomas Ruly and children were among the passengers this afternoon for Omaha, where they will visit for a short time.

H. J. Meisinger and wife, from near Cedar Creek, were here today looking after some trading with the merchants for a few hours.

Peter Meisinger and wife, of near Cedar Creek were here yesterday for a short time looking after some trading and visiting with friends.

Will Fitzgerald, who has been employed on a ranch in the west part of the state, came in this morning for a visit with friends in this city.

Oscar Gopen was among those going to Lincoln this morning to attend the state fair and be present at the closing hours of that exposition.

Anton Nitka departed yesterday for Murdock, Neb., where he accompanied his niece, Miss Nerine Schulhof, who will teach there during the coming year.

Ben Beckman came up yesterday from his home near Murray and spent a few hours here looking after some matters of business with the merchants.

Will Smith, from south of the city, was a passenger this morning for Omaha, where he will spend a few hours looking after some matters of business.

Rev. J. M. Eades and wife came in this morning from their home south of this city and were passengers on the early Burlington train for Lincoln to visit at the fair for the day.

J. M. Bell, wife and family were among the state fair visitors today, driving up from their home south of this city and were passengers on the early Burlington train for the state capital.

George M. Hall and wife, who have been spending a week here with friends, departed this afternoon over the Missouri Pacific for their home at Falls City, after a honeymoon of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Fitch and son, Dean, of Nehawka, motored to this city yesterday and spent the day visiting with county seat friends and attending to business matters. While here Mr. Fitch took time to call at this office and have his subscription to this paper extended for another year.

Mrs. M. S. Briggs, vice president of the W. C. T. U. county association; Mesdames P. E. Ruffner, Charles Troop, Joe, Wiles, C. C. Westcott and daughter, and Goldie Kaffenberger and Miss Elizabeth Spangler were passengers to Weeping Water this morning, where they will attend the W. C. T. U. county convention, which is being held there today.

Armour Gambelin and wife returned to Pacific Junction this morning after a visit here with Mrs. Gambelin's parents.

Fred Ronne of Weeping Water came over to this city last evening to attend to some important business matters, returning home this morning.

Adam Stehr and Adam Fornoff motored in from Cedar Creek yesterday to spend a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

George P. Meisinger, jr., drove in yesterday afternoon from his farm home and spent a few hours here looking after some trading with the merchants.

George W. Shrader came up this morning from his farm home near Murray and was accompanied by his nephew, Sidney Wimmer, who is returning home to Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Buhs, Mrs. M. Bloompot and Mrs. Mary Saal of Pekin, Illinois, who have been here for the past week visiting at the H. G. Meisinger home in the vicinity of Cedar Creek, as well as with other relatives and friends, departed this morning for their home.

For Sale.

Nine head of cows and calves for sale, and one 2-year-old Holstein bull. C. R. Todd.

A want ad will bring you a buyer.

W. A. ROBERTSON, Lawyer, Coates' Block, East of Riley Hotel, Second Floor.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

At Plattsmouth, in the State of Nebraska, at the close of business September 2nd, 1915.

RESOURCES

Table with 2 columns: Resource Name and Amount. Includes Loans and discounts, Overdrafts, U.S. bonds, Securities, etc.

LIABILITIES

Table with 2 columns: Liability Name and Amount. Includes Capital stock, Surplus fund, Total Capital and Surplus, etc.

State of Nebraska, I, H. N. Dwyer, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

GETS INSURANCE FROM WOODMEN OF THE WORLD

This morning W. B. Rishel, clerk of the local Woodmen of the World lodge, received from Omaha two warrants for $500 each for Mrs. Christina Nesson and W. F. C. Nesson, in settlement of the $1,000 policy carried by the late William Nesson in the Woodmen of the World.

FOR SALE OR RENT—Corner store room in Murray, known as the old Holmes and Smith stand. There are four good living rooms in connection with the room.

W. A. INGALLS IN AUTO MIX-UP OUT IN THE STATE LAST WEEK

William A. Ingalls, while out in the state last week, had an experience in an automobile mix-up that came near being fatal both to Mr. Ingalls and a gentleman who had accompanied him out on the automobile trip.

THE BIG HOG SALE OF W. B. PORTER ON SEPTEMBER 21

The hog sale of W. B. Porter, which will be held at Mynard on Tuesday, September 21st, gives promise of being one of the big events of its kind in this part of the state.

BERT COLEMAN AND MISS FLORENCE CORY ARE MARRIED SUNDAY

Sunday morning shortly before 9 o'clock, at the Methodist parsonage occurred the marriage of Mr. Bert Coleman and Miss Florence Cory, both of this city.

OLSON PHOTOGRAPH COMPANY UP TO THEIR EYES IN BUSINESS

There are few residents of this city who fully appreciate the amount of work that each day is sent out here from the Olson Photograph company to all parts of the United States.

FRED DETTLE PUT IN THE COUNTY JAIL FOR SAFEKEEPING

Fred Dettle, a gentleman who has made his home in this locality for several years, and who seems to have been afflicted with a mental irresponsibility, caused a great deal of excitement in the vicinity of Washington avenue Saturday evening.

Secures a Marriage License.

Saturday afternoon a marriage license was secured by Mr. Harry B. Schroeder and Miss Louisa Lemon, both of Greenwood, at the office of County Judge Beeson.

FOUND.

FOUND—A watch. Owner may have same by calling at this office, proving the same and paying for this advertisement. 9-7-15d

Parmelee Theatre!

"WHERE EVERYBODY GOES"

— OPENING OF THE SEASON — September 17th

Big Time Vaudeville

Three Missourians Singers Who Really Sing Mlle. Gillis & Co. Sensational Equilibristic Novelty Willy Zimmermann World's Greatest Protean Artist Bogard & Nicoll Comedy Due

And 3-Reels of First Run Pictures!

PRICES 15c, 25c and 35c Seats on Sale at Weyrich & Hadraba's Drug Store.

Purchases New Buick.

From Friday's Daily. Fred Spangler is now boasting of a fine new Buick "Six," which he secured through the office of T. H. Pollock, the local agent, and Mr. Spangler is well pleased with his machine.

Worth Their Weight in Gold.

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and found them to be just as represented, a quick relief for headaches, dizzy spells and other symptoms denoting a torpid liver and a disordered condition of the digestive organs.

"Jumbo" Returns to Lincoln.

From Saturday's Daily. Ewald O. Stehm returned to Lincoln Friday from Johnson Creek, Wis., where he and his family have been spending the summer at Mr. Stehm's former home.

To the Public.

"I feel that I owe the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy a word of gratitude," writes Mrs. T. N. Witherall, Gowanda, N. Y.

Makes Nice Appearance.

From Saturday's Daily. The Eagle Beacon this week appears with a brand new "dress," which adds very much to the general appearance of that paper.

None Equal to Chamberlain's.

"I have tried most all of the cough cures and find that there is none that equal Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes W. V. Harner, Montpelier, Ind.

Local News

George A. Sherwood was here today for a few hours visiting with his brother, Herbert, and other friends, departing this afternoon for Omaha.

Miss Nettie Cook departed for Peru, Neb., this afternoon, where she will attend the State Normal school at that place during the coming year.

Robert Sherwood, sr., came up yesterday morning from his home at Nebraska City and spent the day here visiting with relatives and friends.

John R. Pierson, the Springfield banker, was an over Sunday visitor here with his family at the home of Mrs. Mary B. Allison, returning to his home this morning on No. 15.

Frank Schille and family of Omaha were here yesterday for a short visit with relatives and friends, as guests at the home of Mrs. Schille's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Weber.

W. L. Mote and wife, Charles E. Greene and wife and Thomas McHenry arrived this afternoon from their homes at Plainview for a short visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cole. The party motored down from their homes.

John Wunderlich, one of the worthy citizens of near Nehawka, came up Saturday evening from his home to look after some matters of business, and remained in the city until yesterday afternoon, when he departed for his home.

Miss Betty Bennett of Glenwood is here visiting for a short time at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Frans and family. Miss Bennett was one of the soloists at the M. E. church at the morning service Sunday.

County Judge A. J. Beeson and family returned home last evening from an auto trip of several days through northern Nebraska, and while there were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brantner at Pender.

Mrs. Agnes Chapman, who has been spending several months on the Pacific coast with her sister, Mrs. Sue Morrisey, and many old friends, arrived here Saturday afternoon for a visit with her son, John W. Chapman and wife, as well as her many friends. She enjoyed her visit very much and feels much benefited by her sojourn on the coast.

Grapes! Grapes are ripe now and ready for making wine, and I can supply all you want at 2c per pound. J. C. Peterson.

DRS. MACH & MACH THE DENTISTS Successors to BAILEY & MACH The largest and best equipped dental offices in Omaha. Experts in charge of all work. Lady attendant. Moderate Prices. Porcelain fillings just like tooth. Instruments carefully sterilized after using. THIRD FLOOR, PAXTON BLOCK, OMAHA

Duroc Jersey Hog Sale! MYNARD, NEBRASKA Tuesday, September 21st I am offering at public sale 44 head of pure bred Duroc Jerseys. Amongst the offering are 18 boars, 19 open gilts, 4 sows with litters and one open tried sow. Five of these animals are sons and daughters of the famous "Old King the Col," and are animals of real merit: one yearling boar that will weigh around 500 pounds (out of ECHO'S CRIMSON WONDER, GRAND CHAMPION at the Nebraska State Fair 1914). This boar I will make a special offer on. Will agree to take him back at the price he sells for at sale, in one year's time, providing he is in as good condition as he is now. Will have 4 Spring boars of the JUMBO CRITIC strain—all large and good; one of them will beat 200 pounds, and is a real outstanding animal of this strain. Balance of animals are mostly by the above boar—"Echo's Model Wonder." One sow with litter by her side, a grand-daughter of "COL GANO," an animal I paid $95.00 for at Oscar Larson's sale last winter, will go in the ring and some one will get a bargain. Remember the Date—Tuesday, September 21. Sale to be held in large building, one-half block from the depot. W. T. RICHARDSON, Clerk W. B. PORTER, Owner COL. N. G. KRASCHEL, Assisted by COL. R. W. YOUNG O. I. PURDY, Fieldman for Nebraska Farmer M. S. CRUSE, Fieldman for the South Omaha Stockman and Drover's Journal CATALOGUE ON REQUEST MAIL BIDS TO EITHER FIELDMEN

-VICTROLAS- from $15 to $150 IN STOCK Come in and Hear Them! Records, Needles, Etc. John W. Crabill