MRS. F. L. CUMMINS ENTERTAINS A BRIDGE PARTY SATURDAY

Mrs. F. L. Cummins entertained at a charming afternoon bridge party Saturday afternoon at her pretty home on Ninth street, to which a number of her lady friends had been previously invited. The guest of honor was Mrs. Harry Chapman of Omaha, who has been visiting at the Cummins home for the past few days. The cozy parlors of the Cummins home had been decorated in a color scheme of pink and white, the pink and white asters being used and arranged in a most artistic manner. The principal amusement was derived from several games of bridge, there being four tables. Mrs. C. W. Baylor captured the first prize and Mrs. Chapman was presented with a very pretty guest's prize. After the card games the guests were invited to the dining room, which was also decorated with the pink and white asters, and here a lovely luncheon was served, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in the service. Mrs. C. C. Westcott assisted Mrs. Cummins in entertaining and serving. Those in attendance were: Mesdames Harry Chapman of Omaha, R. F. Patterson, George Falter, E. J. Richey, W. A. Robertson, C. W. Baylor, Earl Travis, John Falter, Lynn Minor, Misses Gretchen and Marie Donnelly, Claire and Hazel Dovey, Verna and Lillian Cole, Elizabeth Falter, Madeline Minor.

DEATH OF FORMER PLATTS-MOUTH LADY SATURDAY

Mrs. Mary Osborn died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louise Dutton, at University Place, Saturday. The body will be brought here over the Burlington at 1:12 tomorrow (Tuesday) and will be taken from the station to Oak Hill cemetery, where a short service will be held. Mrs. Osborn and family formerly resided in this city for a number of years, and the Osborn family have a large number of friends, who will be sorry to learn of Mrs. Osborn's death.

SURPRISE BY NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS ON HIS BIRTHDAY

Last evening a number of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McCrary and most pleasantly surprised their friend, George Privett, by helping him celebrate his birthday anniversary. At 6:30 a delightful supper was served, and after this the jolly party played many interesting games until a suitable hour, when they were again summoned to the dining room and were served with delicious ice cream and cake, served by Mrs. McCrary. There were a number of pleasing stories told, as well as the singing of songs, which passed the time most pleasantly, and it was with regret that they saw the home-going hour roll around, and in departing they all joined in wishing George many more happy birthdays. He received several handsome presents in honor of the event. Those present were: Misses Metta Jennings, Gladys Steinhauer, Donna Bowden, Mable McBride, Katie Fitchorn, Martha McCrary, Messrs. Glen Hawkenberry, John McCrary, Arthur Haworth, George Privitt and Mr. and Mrs. McCrary.

BROCK COUPLE MARRIED AT HOTEL RILEY SUNDAY

Last evening at 6:30 at the parlors of the Hotel Riley, Rev. F. M. Drulliner was called upon to unite in the bonds of holy wedlock Mr. John D. Vandervort and Mrs. Drucilla Robinson, both of Brock, Neb. The contracting parties arrived here yesterday afternoon over the Missouri Pacific, and locating the proper officials, secured the marriage license that would allow of them becoming as one, and the ceremony was performed in a most impressive manner by the minister, and this morning the bride and groom departed for Burlington, Iowa, to visit for a short time with friends.

HARRY CRAIG OPERATED ON TO REPLACE BROKEN CHEEK BONE

Harry Craig, the first sacker of the Red Sox, who was injured here two weeks ago in the Louisville-Platts-mouth ball game by being struck on the cheek by a foul tip while he was walking back of the catcher to the bench, was operated on Saturday at the office of Dr. Livingston, and the broken cheekbone, which had been depressed by the force of the blow of the ball, was raised and placed back in position, which will allow the young man the use of his jaw, which has been in bad shape since the accident. It is thought that the injury will now get along nicely and that after a few days he will be able to resume the use of his jaw, which has been useless since the bone was broken. This will be most pleasing to the unfortunate young man, as he has been compelled to subsist on soup since the breaking of the jaw bone, and his many friends trust that he will soon be back in normal condition and recover completely from the accident.

KILL A LARGE BLACKSNAKE WHILE OUT PICNICKING

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cotner and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stokes planned spending the day in the woods, and accordingly taking their dinners with them they repaired to the pasture of Posy Messersmith, north of this city, and here spread the repast and disposed of it in short order. While the ladies cleared away the dinner Ed and Albert decided to try and see what they could find in strolling through the woods, and while stopping to pick some hazelnuts Ed spied a large blacksake and called to Albert to bring two clubs to do business with Mr. Snake; by the time he arrived with the clubs the snake was curled up, ready to strike, and fought while the two men put it out of commission. The snake measured five feet, six and one-half inches long and five and one-half inches around. This is some snake story, but the whole party vouches for its truthfulness.

Raises Big Apples.

The apples continue to increase in size as the season grows on and the latest to be reported at this office is two which were raised by G. H. Meisinger on the Mike Hild farm, which weigh 2¼ pounds each and measure 14½ inches around, and are in fact truly the biggest and best apples that we have seen this season.

JULIUS NIELSON SECURES GOOD RESULTS FROM BEES

Julius Nielson of this city has devoted a great deal of his spare time to the culture of bees and production of honey and this he has advanced to a stage where he has secured a fine stand of bees and has just added to these several new bees which come from some of the most productive swarms in the country. This year has been a very severe one on the bees and the production of honey has not been as heavy as in years past, but Mr. Nielson has been able to secure some very good results from his bees.

Returns From Arkansas.

David Oslin, who has been spending a short time in Arkansas, returned home Saturday evening, and after a thorough investigation of the land and general conditions there is of the opinion that old Nebraska will do for him, as he saw nothing there in the way of crops that could touch those which are being raised in this state. He also brought with him several persimmons, which are raised in large numbers in Arkansas.

Work Is Delayed.

The wet weather of the past week has had a decidedly backward effect on the work on the alley paving from Fifth to Sixth, which block was all ready to be commenced by the contractors and the material on hand ready to go ahead when the wet weather set in and put them back. This improvement is one that has long been desired and is anxiously waited for by the property owners in that section of the city.

Had a Very Fine Crowd.

The dance Saturday evening at the German Home was one of the most pleasant events of its kind that has been held for some time and quite a large crowd were present to take part in the pleasures of the occasion and several hours were passed very pleasantly in dancing to the pleasant music furnished by the Svoboda orchestra.

Dance Saturday Night.

UNION Ledger.

Solomon Baldwin, living on the Ida Applegate farm two and one-half miles west of Union, brought to town on Monday a good specimen of corn. Corn that is Nebraska corn, too. The stalk held two large ears, and the editor found it to measure 14 feet, 3½ inches over all. Mr. Baldwin states that he has lots of stalks in the field that have as many as four ears on and a few with more.

Biliousness and Constipation.

It is certainly surprising that any woman will endure the miserable feeling caused by biliousness and constipation, when relief is so easily had and at so little expense. Mrs. Chas. Peck, Gates, N. Y., writes: "About a year ago I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they cured me of biliousness and constipation." Obtainable everywhere.
