

LOUISVILLE. Courier.

The Kahler Pottery Co. sold a car-load of flower pots to a Lincoln florist this week. Excavating for the new Home State bank building was begun Thursday morning. Mrs. J. R. Mayfield returned home from the hospital at Omaha Tuesday...

Mrs. H. T. Wilson received the sad intelligence last Sunday of the death of her mother, Mrs. George H. Woods, at her home in Halsey, Nebraska. She had been in failing health for the past year...

UNION. Ledger.

John McCarthy left for Huron, S. D., Tuesday, where he will remain for several days on business. Elmer McReynolds, living one mile north of Nehawka, broke his leg Tuesday when he was thrown off his motorcycle.

A. L. Becker is going to raise the rear of his store building to the second story and make a dressing room and also add a bath room. He will also heat the building with steam heat. Miss Mary E. Foster, ex-county superintendent of schools for this county...

Charles Anderson of Stewart, Wyo., came in the latter part of last week to visit with his father, A. J. Anderson, who is very ill. He came as far as Omaha with a trainload of cattle. He will return to his home in a few days...

WEEPING WATER. Republican.

Mrs. G. H. Olive went to Omaha Monday to accompany her mother, Mrs. Defibaugh, here, where she will make her home. Mrs. F. B. Reed accompanied Mrs. Byron Clark to her home in Omaha Thursday...

Miss Bridgie Bourke left Wednesday for Omaha to enter St. Katherine's hospital and study to become a trained nurse. Her training will consist of a three years' course.

George Clizbe, who has been visiting in town the last two weeks, left for his ranch at Cody, Monday morning. Mrs. Clizbe and the baby remained for a more extended visit.

J. M. Teegarden made a trip to Furnas county the last of last week to look after his farm land there. He reports things looking good and a fine prospect for corn if the frost holds off long enough.

William Hobson of Eagle will move back to Weeping Water and occupy the cottage home on Elm street. Mr. Hobson is an undertaker by trade and will go into the undertaking business here.

Mrs. William Jameson returned Friday night from the ranch at Sargent, where she had spent the summer. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Merce Hubbard, who came to attend school.

Word has been received from Conductor M. F. Perry of the Lincoln branch, who is on his vacation at the Madeline Islands in Wisconsin, that they are having a fine time. He expects to be on the job again about October 1st.

Mrs. N. H. Wilkinson left Wednesday morning for Ovid, Michigan, where she was called on account of her mother having a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Wilkinson has been caring for her mother the last year and was only here on a visit with her children.

NEHAWKA. News.

G. A. Murdock and wife left the first of the week for a visit in Furnas county and other points in the western part of the state.

E. M. Pollard, who had a large exhibit of apples at the state fair, returned home the latter part of the week in a new six-cylinder Apperson car.

Mrs. Wicker and baby and sister, Miss Bailey, returned to their home in Grand Island Saturday, after spending several days with their sister, Mrs. Hathaway.

Charles Engle of Yuma, Colorado, arrived in town Wednesday for a visit with friends. He reports the crops of eastern Colorado to be better than any he saw in Nebraska.

W. E. Ax, a member of a bridge gang who had been working near town, had the misfortune to cut his foot Wednesday morning, which required a few stitches by a physician.

M. D. Pollard, who has been working in the Sheldon store for some time, resigned his position there last Saturday and is now giving his time to the picture show he is operating.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ballentine loaded their household goods the first of the week and left Wednesday for Springfield, Ohio, where they will make their future home. En route they stopped in Omaha for a visit with relatives...

James Boden of Lincoln, a brother of Mrs. Robert Dore of this place, died at the home of his sister in the north part of town early Wednesday morning. He had been sick over a year and had only been in Nehawka a few days where he came for a visit with his sister...

Elmer McReynolds, who lives about a mile north of town, was returning home on his motorcycle about 7 o'clock Wednesday evening and when on the hill near the C. D. St. John home he was traveling slowly and struck a rut. He was thrown from the machine and both bones in the ankle on the right leg were broken...

William Snyder, who has been visiting for the past three weeks at the home of his son, C. P. Snyder and family, left Thursday morning for Judson, Indiana, for a visit with his daughter.

Fred Kent shipped his household goods to Elyria, Ohio, Wednesday, at which place they will make their future home. Mrs. Kent expects to leave Sunday, while Fred will remain here for a couple of months.

Fred Trunkenbolz and daughter, Nina, arrived here from their home near Superior, Neb., the latter part of last week for a few days' visit with relatives and friends, returning home Thursday noon.

Mrs. Anna Reiter arrived here from Forest Hill, Mich., the latter part of last week and spent a few days at the Will Hursh home, southeast of Eagle, and at the Charles Trumble, jr., home. She departed again on Tuesday evening's train.

The house which A. H. Vanlandingham purchased of Nick Peterson just recently, was moved in from the country this week and placed on the lots just south of G. Rockenbach's residence. Jess and Owen Wall doing the job of moving.

ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.

Miss Kittie Worley of Omaha spent Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Worley.

Robert Gamble of near Overton, Dawson county, came in Friday night for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gamble.

Attorney Howard Saxton of Pender, Neb., was a visitor here Friday night and Saturday morning with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Saxton.

Mrs. Martha Meisinger and son, Joe, of Springfield, Neb., returned to their home Saturday morning, after a week's visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. A. Wallinger.

The many friends of Mr. Charles Rofelofs and Miss Hazel Reeder were surprised to learn that they had taken a trip to the state fair Thursday of last week and while there were quietly married.

Mr. and Mrs. William Winslow of Beaver City, departed Tuesday, after a visit with the former's cousin, Mrs. A. H. Weichel, and other relatives. They went to Plattsmouth for a visit with relatives there before returning home.

William Mueller of Springfield, was down Tuesday shaking hands with old Elmwood friends. His pride as "grandpa" has been increased accordingly, as the birth of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Franz of Union gives impetus. The little one arrived a couple of weeks ago.

A good deal of new wheat has been coming in during the past few days. Some of it is of good quality and some is not so good. There has been considerable talk about the oats. Most all say that their oats are in bad shape, while one farmer over by Avoca says that he has oats that are as bright and as clean as any he ever saw.

G. L. Berger left on Monday of last week and spent a few days rusticating in the western part of the state. He visited with his son at Gothenburg and stopped at different points on the old Oregon train, familiar to him as a freighter from the Missouri river over Nebraska and to Denver when this state was practically all prairie, infested with the Indian and practically all kinds of wild animal life.

J. E. Johnson and wife came down last evening on No. 2 for a few hours' visit at the home of Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson. J. E. Johnson and son, Edgar, expect to leave in a few days for San Francisco, where they will attend the exposition.

W. C. K. Sidwall of Sheridan, Wyo., arrived in this city yesterday afternoon to attend to some business matters, and while here was a pleasant caller at this office. Mr. Sidwall will go to Omaha this afternoon, where he will visit for a short time, and then go to Lincoln for a short visit, after which he will return to his home at Sheridan.

From Saturday's Daily. George H. Meisinger was in the city today for a few hours looking after the week-end shopping.

George Ray and wife of Murray were here today for a few hours looking after some matters of business with the merchants.

S. O. Pitman and wife and George Nickels were in the city yesterday attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

J. E. Meisinger and wife drove in this morning from their farm home to spend a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

P. A. Hill, one of the enterprising young farmers of near Murray, was in the city yesterday afternoon spending a short time looking after some matters of business.

Otto Lutz, Herbert Burbee and Oscar Naylor came up this morning from near Murray, where they are employed, and departed this afternoon for the metropolis.

Mrs. Lloyd Gape and mother, Mrs. F. M. Young, sr., of Murray, were visitors in this city yesterday. This is the first time Mrs. Young has been in Plattsmouth for two years.

Julius Helfficker of near Cedar Creek was in the city today attending to various matters of business, and was a caller at the Journal office to renew his subscription to the Semi-Weekly Journal.

Philip H. Meisinger, jr., departed this morning for Omaha to visit for the day with his wife at St. Joseph's hospital, where she is recovering nicely from the effects of an operation, and with the present rate of improvement will be able to return home next week.

FOR SALE on easy terms or will trade for live stock, 9 nice lying lots near Masonic Home, Plattsmouth. For price and terms write A. O. Ault, Cedar Creek, Neb. 9-16-2tw

Local News

From Friday's Daily. County Superintendent Miss Eda Marquardt departed this morning for the metropolis, where she will spend the day.

Adam Stoehr of Eight Mile Grove precinct was in the city today for a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

Mrs. Rose Chambers Ruffner of Chicago is in this city for a short visit as the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Westcott.

Mrs. James B. Tipton came down this morning to spend a few hours with friends, as well as to look after some matters of business.

Mrs. David Amick came in this morning from her country home near Mynard and departed on the early Burlington train for Omaha.

Mrs. John Hadraba and son, John, departed this afternoon for Madison, Neb., where they will visit for a short time in that locality with relatives and friends.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore motored up this morning from his home at Murray to look after some business matters, and was accompanied by Miss Majorie Walker.

Mrs. J. H. Adams of Mynard has gone to Columbus, Neb., where she will visit friends for a time and look over her land interests in that vicinity.

Mrs. J. N. Barger departed this morning on No. 6 for Weldon, Iowa, where she will spend two weeks visiting in that locality with relatives and friends.

John R. Pierson, the Springfield banker, accompanied by his wife, came in last evening on No. 2 for a short visit here with Mrs. Pierson's mother, Mrs. Mary B. Allison.

Ben Beckman, one of the enterprising farmers of near Murray, was in the city today in company with his son-in-law, Louis Rheinacke, and they brought with them a load of fine Cass county apples.

Henry Boeck, who with Mrs. Henry Boeck, are making an extended visit at Los Angeles, California, writes us that they expect to start home about the 11th of October and will arrive in this city about the 15th.

J. E. Johnson and wife came down last evening on No. 2 for a few hours' visit at the home of Mr. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson. J. E. Johnson and son, Edgar, expect to leave in a few days for San Francisco, where they will attend the exposition.

W. C. K. Sidwall of Sheridan, Wyo., arrived in this city yesterday afternoon to attend to some business matters, and while here was a pleasant caller at this office. Mr. Sidwall will go to Omaha this afternoon, where he will visit for a short time, and then go to Lincoln for a short visit, after which he will return to his home at Sheridan.

The freight Tuesday evening did not go west owing to a severe storm at or near Lincoln. It must have been heavier than here.

Eli Plummer is going to have a new delivery wagon soon, that will take the shine out of anything west of the Missouri.

At the first alumni dinner of Doane college, given last week, the toast, "The Alumni," was responded to by G. W. Mitchell of Plattsmouth, who is one of the three alumni of the college.

S. O. Pitman and wife and George Nickels were in the city yesterday attending to some matters of business and visiting with friends.

J. E. Meisinger and wife drove in this morning from their farm home to spend a few hours looking after some trading with the merchants.

P. A. Hill, one of the enterprising young farmers of near Murray, was in the city yesterday afternoon spending a short time looking after some matters of business.

Otto Lutz, Herbert Burbee and Oscar Naylor came up this morning from near Murray, where they are employed, and departed this afternoon for the metropolis.

Mrs. Lloyd Gape and mother, Mrs. F. M. Young, sr., of Murray, were visitors in this city yesterday. This is the first time Mrs. Young has been in Plattsmouth for two years.

Julius Helfficker of near Cedar Creek was in the city today attending to various matters of business, and was a caller at the Journal office to renew his subscription to the Semi-Weekly Journal.

FOR SALE on easy terms or will trade for live stock, 9 nice lying lots near Masonic Home, Plattsmouth. For price and terms write A. O. Ault, Cedar Creek, Neb. 9-16-2tw

The Idea of the high cost of building material smashed all to Building material of all kinds is cheaper now than ever. Repair, remodel or build new Now! E. J. RICHEY, LUMBERMAN. A MERCILESS JUDGE One Who Shows No Favor. None Equal to Chamberlain's. FOR RENT. FOR RENT—My blacksmith shop. Come to The Journal for fine stationery.

- VanBrunt Drills - Have made their way by the way they are made. Now that the threshing time is out of the way and plowing is in full sway it is time to think about buying a New Drill. G. P. EASTWOOD, The Store that Saves You Money.