LADIES AUXILIARY OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HOLD MEETING

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon and were delightfully entertained by Messrs. A. G. Cole and Elizabeth Travis. There was a very good attendance, there being a number of new members present and taking up the work. A very interesting business session was held, at which time various plans for the coming winter months were discussed, and the ladies decided to hold a market some time during October and a Rummage Sale during November. The officers are very much pleased over the interest the ladies of this splendid organization are taking in the work this fall and feel that they will surely be able to accomplish great things. After the business session a few moments were devoted to a very pleasant social time. At an appropriate time the hostesses served dainty and delicious refreshments.

ST. MARY'S GUILD ENTERTAINED BY MRS. W. R. CLEMENT

Clement on Granite street, and a very good attendance of the membership was present to participate in the business of the meeting, which was occupied with the discussion of plans and measures for the advancement of the work of St. Luke's church in this city. The occasion was one that was thoroughly enjoyed and the ladies taking part were well pleased with the result of their afternoon's session, and in advancing the work of the church. At a suitable hour dainty and tempting refreshments were served, which added greatly to the pleasures of the afternoon.

Showing Marked Improvement.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Reports from Uncle Rueben Foster at Union state that he is doing nicely and showing recovery from his recent illness. He has been taken to the home of his nephew, R. E. Foster, southeast of Union, where he is being cared for, and a trained nurse has been secured to assist the family in looking after his care. That he is doing so nicely will be most pleasing to the many friends of this grand old gentleman and it is to be hoped he will regain his former strength.

ARE TRAVELING SOUTH IN GLASSY LITTLE MOTOR BOAT

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon a party of four young men, bound from Trident, Montana, to New Orleans, tied up for a short time at the ferry landing near this city and secured some supplies. The young men, Henry and William Rathjan, C. B. Whitehead and Herman Johnson, are traveling in a glassy little motor boat, 22½, which they constructed in Montana, and are making their way by easy stages down the river, stopping at the larger towns en route. The boat cost them in the neighborhood of $300. They spent Sunday and Monday at Omaha, leaving there Tuesday morning and reaching here in the afternoon. They are taking views of the country through which they travel and are having the time of their lives in the river trip, and they expect it to cost them in the neighborhood of $700. They left last night on their way toward the gulf, after having secured what they desired in the way of provisions here.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS GO OUT TODAY ON BRIDGE BUSINESS

From Wednesday's Daily.

This morning County Commissioners Henry Snook, C. E. Heebner and Julius A. Pitt, accompanied by O. K. Reed and John Crook of the Monarch Engineering Co., and County Treasurer Fox, motored out in the county to measure up bridges and inspect the work that has been done in the past few months. The bridge work has kept the commissioners busy to devise ways and means to repair the damage done by the storms and high water along the creeks and streams throughout the county, as a great many of the large bridges have suffered from this cause and are in constant need of repair.

DON'T'S FOR SMART AUTOMOBILE DRIVERS WHO KNOW IT ALL

Don't run for a hill. Climb it after you get to it.
Don't use cut-out. Unship it and avoid temptation.

Don't cut corners. Keep to the right side of both streets.

Don't hog the middle of the road. Keep over to the right.

Don't turn in middle of block. Go to the street intersection.

Don't cover your rear number with a spare tire. Be a real sport.

Don't regard the officer's signal as an insult. He is there to help you.

Don't race with a motorcycle. The man you're racing may be an officer.

Don't forget your rights or presume on your advantages, either horsepower or official.

Don't keep your intentions a secret. Stick your hand out for the benefit of the car behind.

Don't cuss an officer if you have an imaginary grievance against him. Tell your troubles to the chief.

Don't stop your automobile beyond the property line at street intersections. Pedestrians have the right of way here.

Don't swing to the left toward the middle of the street without looking behind. There may be a big truck at your elbow.
