JOHN F. GORDER

IN PLATTSMOUTH
FORTY YEARS AGO.

Several sections of brick sidewalk are being relaid on Main street.

Lawyer Morrison sports a handsome gray horse and new vehicle.

The B. & M. folks are building a new section house out at the "Y."

Mrs. John Chapman is visiting in Plattsmouth, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chapman.

Miss Mary Ruby left on Monday last to take a position in the schools at Denver.

M. H. Hathaway of this office left for Seward Tuesday to take a few weeks' vacation.

H. C. Brome, a young gentleman studying law in Hon. Samuel Chapman's office, proposes to cast his lot among us for the future.

R. O. Fellows comes back to the Herald printing shop and will take charge of one end of the machine during Mr. Hathaway's absence.

A grandchild of James O'Neil, Esq., living on the Iowa side of the river, died Sunday and was buried here on Monday.

IN PLATTSMOUTH
FORTY YEARS AGO.

Dick Reese fell from a barn he was fixing and injured his spine severely.

Elam Parmele has a handsome pair of gray horses for sale. Call and see them.

The butcher in Hatt's shop was thrown out of a buggy Tuesday and broke his leg.

Charles Dawson, esq., has moved into the Schnasse house, and is now content. Three times and stop is Charley's motto.

We notice that a glass has been broken out of the door of the Temperance billiard hall. The boys better be a little careful.

Billy Wells is suffering from a slight attack of rheumatism. With the aid of a cane he can manage to get home to dinner, however.

Mr. Fritchler and family have recently located in Plattsmouth, Mr. F. having a position in the B. & M., in Mr. Hawksworth's department.

If thieving and disorderly conduct longer our commissioners will have to furnish us with a new jail, sure.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Buck, with their niece and nephew were all in town Saturday. Mrs. B. says she is coming to see the Herald print newspapers one of these days.

Mrs. John Lysight of St. Joseph, sister of Mrs. F. M. McDonagh, and four children, and Miss Colligan, daughter of Hon. Thomas Colligan of St. Joseph, are visiting at Mr. Editor McDonagh's of this place.

M. L. White, esq., a former resident of Plattsmouth, has returned to dwell among us after a sojourn in the Black Hills for a season. He has traded for the Drew house on Sixth street and is busy already making improvements. We welcome Mr. White to Plattsmouth again.

Petty thieves have no show in Plattsmouth any more. One John Woods, stole a coat and mershaum pipe from Henry Hartz. He skipped across the river, out of reach of the officers, but they started Hartz after him. With a little coaxing he was prevailed on to return, and as soon as he crossed the river the marshal nabbed him and "sent him up."

From Three Groves—Mr. Ambrose Campbell, from South Bend, is down on a short visit in this section.

Big Frank Young has sold his beef cattle to Mr. Barker, to be delivered in April.

D. A. Young lost a fine steer the other day, death caused by being hooked by the other cattle.

Hugh McClean is getting to be quite a horse trader in these parts.

The Berger boys are in the neighborhood shelling corn, and are kept busy.

Rev. Domnithrope preached last Sunday at the school house, but the attendance was rather small to what it used to be.

Mrs. Doc. Wiley has been very ill for a few days.

Everybody is sniffing with bad colds throughout the neighborhood.

We are in receipt of several papers from Mr. Orlando Tefft at Lincoln.

Charles Yates, superintendent of telegraph, B. & M. R., paid us a visit Sunday. Charley looks well and feels natural yet in Plattsmouth.

Peter Bates has been building a bay-window on the north side of Mike Schnellbacher's shop. And Mike has a new, handsome buggy, we tell you, to exhibit.

Mr. Schickentanz leaves Plattsmouth this week and returns to Council Bluffs to reside. His shop will be kept open, however, by his brother-in-law. We are sorry to see Mr. S. going away.

We neglected to make mention last week of the fact that Mrs. Richey, wife of Dr. Richey, the dentist, joined her husband here. The doctor, owing to pressure of work, does not leave until the last of this week.

Attempts have been made several times to enter the house of R. C. Cushing within the past two weeks, and as Mr. Cushing is away from home, Mrs. C. has only succeeded in driving them off by alarming the neighbors, Mr. Eaton and Mr. Johnson. It is hoped for Mrs. C.'s peace of mind that the thieves will be discovered and punished.

The greenbackers met at Weeping Water on Friday, the 18th, and nominated the following ticket: Senator, G. W. Shrader of Rock Bluffs; representatives, Frank Carruth of Plattsmouth, B. F. Allen of Centre and T. J. Wilburn of Greenwood; commissioner, J. S. Tewksberry, Weeping Water. They promised us the minutes of the meeting, but we have not seen them as yet.

"WHEN IS SCHOOL NOT SCHOOL" DOES NOT APPLY TO METHODIST

The old adage, "When is a school not a school?" with its answer, "A Sunday school," certainly cannot be applied to the Methodist Sunday school in this city, which is arranged on the latest graded system the same as that of any up-to-date school, and extends from the tots in the cradle roll to the older gray-haired members who are studying in the adult classes. On next Sunday will be held promotion day, as the first of October is the beginning of the school year, and on this occasion the members of the Sunday school will all advance a class and take up different phases of their work and with their text-books that will aid them in their work. There are at present twenty-seven distinct classes in the school, with the same number of teachers, and these classes are all divided among several departments, consisting of the primary, junior, intermediate and adult departments and the entire school, under the supervision of a general superintendent, who oversees the work of the entire school and plans for the different classes. The school has two secretaries, one recording and one enrolling, that look after the work of recording and checking up the members and keeping in personal touch with them. The superintendent of the Sunday school is C. C. Westcott; superintendent primary department, Mrs. Ed Roman; superintendent junior department, Mrs. Robert Hayes; superintendent intermediate department, E. C. Hill; superintendent adult department, R. D. Dalton; recording secretary, Maldon Brown; enrolling secretary, Miss Helen Hadraba; superintendent home department, Mrs. G. A. Kaffenberger; superintendent cradle roll, Mrs. Mollie Gobelman; secretary primary department, Miss Zella Frans; secretary, Miss Ruth Roman.

MRS. JOHN F. GORDER SURPRISED ON HER ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. John F. Gorder was most agreeably surprised by a number of her friends last evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. Her friends, learning the date of her birthday, concluded she must celebrate it in the proper manner, and planned this most pleasing surprise very secretly and all unknown to Mrs. Gorder. They permitted her to attend "The Diamond from the Sky" at the Crystal Star theater, and while she was at the theater entered her home and awaited her coming home. When she entered the house and the merry company gathered around, she was most completely surprised, but soon was herself again and proceeded to entertain her guests in her usual hospitable manner. The evening was most enjoyably spent in conversation, interspersed with various games and amusements. At a convenient time a delightful birthday luncheon, which the guests had brought with them, was prepared and served. During the evening the guests presented Mrs. Gorder with a beautiful piece of silverware as a token of the love and esteem in which she is held by her circle of friends. As the midnight hour drew near the guests dispersed, wishing Mrs. Gorder many more happy birthday anniversaries and declaring they had had a genuine good time.

MRS. B. HEMPLE CELEBRATES SEVENTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday was the seventy-eighth anniversary of Mrs. B. Hemple of this city, and in honor of the event a large number of the relatives gathered at her home last evening to do honor to this charming lady on whom the weight of years has rested so gently, and the occasion was one of rarest pleasure to the relatives and the guest of honor of the evening. During the day Mrs. Hemple received a large number of bouquets from friends, as well as messages from those residing at a distance and which showered her with good wishes for the future years and that they might be filled with happiness that her long and useful life so well deserves. One of the pleasant events of the day was the presence of little Teresa Virginia Marie McDowell, of Hardy, Nebraska, a great-granddaughter of Mrs. Hemple, who had been brought here to assist in the celebration of the notable event of the family. Mrs. George McDowell of Hardy, mother of the little great-granddaughter, and who was formerly Miss Teresa Hempel, was also present, as was Mrs. Henry Hempel of Gage, Oklahoma, as well as Mrs. D. O. Hewitt of Greenleaf, Kansas. Charles Hempel and Mrs. Louise Kline of Omaha, son and daughter of Mrs. Hemple, came down Sunday and spent the day with their mother. There were some twenty-five present last evening and the occasion was one that will linger with all who were present to pay their tribute of love to this grand lady who has passed so many useful years in caring for her family and aiding and comforting her friends.

WILLIAM E. STEVENS, M. P. CLAIM AGENT, IN THE CITY

From Wednesday's Daily.

William E. Stevens, claim agent of the Missouri Pacific, was here yesterday afternoon for a few hours securing a copy of the verdict of the coroner's jury in the Missouri Pacific wreck, in which three men—Sherlock, Goodman and Wilson—were killed, and this will be used in the office of the company. Mr. Stevens returned last night to Omaha. A certified copy of the verdict has also been filed with the interstate commerce commission as required by law, and was prepared by Clerk of the District Court Robertson for this purpose.

THE STORK VISITS HOME OF MR. AND MRS. R. C. WOOD

From Wednesday's Daily.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wood in this city was visited by the stork Monday morning at an early hour and a fine little daughter left with them to brighten their home and be a joy and help to them in the coming years. The mother and little one are doing nicely and the father is very proud of the new happiness that has befallen him. The friends of the family will extend their best wishes for a long and successful life to the young lady.
