

BILLY "SINGLE" CLIFFORD COMING MONDAY NIGHT

One of the Best Shows That Ever
Struck Plattsmouth, and Always Pleases the People.

Those who had the pleasure of attending the performance here of Billy "Single" Clifford two years ago in "Believe Me," will be pleased to learn that this clever comedian will soon be with us again, on Monday, October 11, in his new and entirely successful production, "Walk This Way," in which Mr. Clifford and his bevy of Merry Minstrel Maids have scored a great hit in every city in which they have appeared. They have been showing on the Pacific coast and are en route east. The Ogden Daily Examiner of September 27, in speaking of this attraction, gives vent to the general feeling expressed where the show has been, and the following from the Examiner is certainly a good boost:

Billy "Single" Clifford came to Ogden last night, convulsed an audience at the Orpheum theater and then departed for other scenes. Clifford is the same merry-making Englishman that has delighted dozens of audiences each month for dozens of years. Besides he has gathered around him a very capable company, one of specialists.

The offering, "Walk This Way," isn't a play and it isn't vaudeville—it's just a bunch of nonsense and music thrown together, with Billy "Single" Clifford tossed in on top of the heap, all for the amusement of an audience. There's something over two hours of amusement in the lot. Clifford offers a good round sum if any one can find a plot in his offering, sketch or play. No one has even intimated, after attending the event, that he or she cared to tackle the job of getting the money.

Clifford has it arranged so that the first scene shows the entrance of his company, and himself, to the theater where "Walk This Way" is to be presented, the scenery depicting the stage entrance. The second scene is the office and reception room in a hospital. Clifford, as the doctor in charge, carries off some honors in acting in the scene, being assisted by Misses Gloria, Julia and Catherine Weston, Miss Mae "Ginger" Collins, Miss Doris Bates, Miss Helen Clark, Billy Van Allen and Garnett Bannister.

The Weston sisters have established quite a reputation as instrumentalists with Clifford's company on previous tours. This year their acting is also a feature. One acts the part of the head nurse, another is the matron, the third is a patient. Then there is the stenographer, Miss Collins; the nervous wreck, Miss Clark; and the ballet dancer, Miss Doris Bates. They all assist Clifford in getting his jokes, some old and some new, before the audience. But Billy Van Allen, as the "Pohtah," is the one chief and real assistant. He had four encores for one of his numbers and as a negro comedian is considered one of the really good ones who have come here.

The first scene of the second act is set on the lawn of the hospital, a benefit entertainment for the institution. This gives an opportunity for the Weston sisters to give a musical program, for Clifford and Van Allen to spring some more comedy, for songs by Miss Clark and by Miss Collins, and a catchy dance by Clifford and Miss Collins. The company has its own orchestra, used on the stage in this scene. At the finish, Clifford puts over his latest song and conducts a school, the audience taking the place of the student body. The final scene is the stage entrance once more, with the exit of the entire company, Clifford as the rear guard.

Clifford has been seen more than once in Ogden, but he showed last night that he continues to be a real favorite.

Remember the date—at the Parmelee theater Monday night, October 11.

Big Nebraska Pears

From Tuesday's Daily.
Mrs. Homer McKay brought into the Journal office today a couple of the biggest pears that we have feasted our eyes on this season and they are worthy representatives of the biggest fruit year in the history of Nebraska. They were raised at the McKay home in the north part of the city.

NEW SON AT FRANK LORENZ HOME IN SHELDON, IOWA

From Tuesday's Daily.
John Kopia, the West Main street merchant, has been wearing a mighty broad smile for the past two days that has caused many to wonder the cause of it, but the truth has come to light that he is now a happy grandpa, as a fine seven-pound boy baby arrived Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lorenz in Sheldon, Iowa, and that the mother and little one are doing nicely, while Frank is simply walking on air since the happy event. Mrs. Lorenz was formerly Miss Anna Kopia of this city.

FAREWELL SURPRISE TO MR. AND MRS. G. W. MAYFIELD

From Tuesday's Daily.
Last evening at their home in Louisville Elder G. W. Mayfield and wife were made the recipients of a very pleasant farewell party from their many friends in that city and vicinity, who gathered to pay their respects to this worthy couple who are among the pioneers of Cass county, as Mr. Mayfield arrived here in 1850 and has since that time been among the leading citizens of this great county. Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield are to leave on November 1st for El Paso, Texas, where they expect to spend the winter months with their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Secord and family, and enjoy the pleasant southern climate in that city, where Mr. Secord is located as the superintendent of telegraph of the El Paso & Southwestern railroad.

The gathering last evening was one of the rarest enjoyment and the many friends of this estimable gentleman and lady extended to them their best wishes for a happy and pleasant sojourn in the southern city. Elder Mayfield and wife departed this morning for Stanton, Neb., to visit their son, G. A. Mayfield, and where Mr. Mayfield will officiate on Saturday, October 9th, at the marriage of his granddaughter, Miss Olive Mayfield, to Mr. Boyd Bointon, which will be celebrated at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Mayfield is 76 years of age and his worthy helpmate a few years younger, and they feel that the coming trip to Texas will be one of much benefit to them both, as the Nebraska winters are proving rather severe on them. It is to be hoped that they enjoy themselves to the utmost and return home to old Cass county next spring safe and sound.

THE FAMOUS CALF CASE IN THE LIMELIGHT ONCE MORE

From Tuesday's Daily.
The famous calf case of James Terryberry vs. Earl Wiles and M. C. Walker is about to be again brought into the limelight and given more publicity. This is the case that attracted so much attention a few months ago when it was tried in county court before a jury consisting of M. L. Friedrich and George Born, and which resulted in a disagreement of the jury, and the necessity of having it tried over. The plaintiff claims to have lost a calf which was found later, he claims, in the herd of Mr. Wiles and identified by the Terryberry boys as that which had been in their possession, while on the other hand Mr. Wiles and several others are positive that the calf is one they raised on their farm and which had only a slight difference in age with that of the calf of Mr. Terryberry. The calf in question had been sold by Mr. Wiles to M. C. Walker, and it was from him that the animal was relievined by the plaintiff, and his appearance in the case is merely that of the purchaser of the calf.

The parties in the case, to save the expense of a jury trial a second time, have decided to let County Judge Beeson pass on the case on the evidence submitted in the first case, and the judge will hand down his decision on Saturday next, and the result will be awaited with interest by the friends of both parties throughout the county, but whatever the result the case will probably be appealed to the district court for a further airing. The case is a very peculiar one and will be a hard matter to arrive at a decision, as the evidence is very conflicting in regard to the identification.

SPECIAL SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL MONDAY NIGHT

Called for the Purpose of Letting the Contract for Filling Washington Avenue Sewer.

From Tuesday's Daily.
The city dads last evening assembled in session at the city hall, after a great deal of difficulty and loss of good time in getting the meeting to working. The council by a unanimous vote at the previous session one week ago had agreed to meet on this date in order to settle the question of the letting of the contract for the filling of the Washington avenue sewer, and it was generally understood that the session was to be held for this purpose, and a majority of the members assembled at the council chamber to get busy, when it was learned that it had been decided to call the meeting off, as it required a signed call to make the meeting legal. The boys who were on the job soon got busy, and getting in touch with Mayor Richey, Clerk Nemetz and the remaining councilmen, soon had a call ready, which allowed them to go ahead with the business of the evening, and all were in their seats when the gavel fell at 9 o'clock, with the exception of Councilman Shea of the Fifth, who had not been able to reach the scene of action in time to participate in the meeting.

There were three bids ready for the consideration of the council, which were opened and read by the city clerk. S. W. Ranosme bid 30¢ per cubic yard, or $820 for the whole job; J. F. Clugy bid 30½¢ per cubic yard, or $808.60 for the completed work, and J. H. McMaken 29¢ per cubic yard and $771.20 for the whole job. The bids, after being read were turned over to the streets, alleys and bridges committee for examination, and they, after a careful consideration, returned a report in which they recommended the letting of the contract to J. H. McMaken at the price of 29¢ a yard.

Councilman Bajek moved that the report of the committee be adopted and the contract let as recommended, on the providing of a suitable bond by the contractor.

Councilman Johnson thought that a time limit should be specified in the contract as a protection to the city, and this opinion was shared by Councilman Lushinsky, who desired to have Mr. McMaken, who was present, explain to the council just how he was fixed on the matter of a time limit for the work.

Mr. McMaken, in explaining, stated that he had taken the contract at a lower figure than he had really expected to, as he intended to use his own teams as far as possible, and this would take some time, and also that the weather would have a great deal to do with the filling of the ditch, as it might be possible to get the work out in thirty days or sixty, or it might take ninety days to do the work, but he was going to get the work out as soon as possible and would ask the council to allow him sufficient time to do the work without having to employ a large number of workmen and teams for the job, as he had taken the contract with the idea of making the fill with his own men and teams.

Councilman Buttery desired to have sixty working days set as the time for the completion of the work, and this was agreeable to the other councilmen.

Mayor Richey warned the council that while the bids called for the securing of the dirt for the fill from Vine street from Eighth to Tenth, it might become necessary to get it at other locations and this should be considered by the council in the letting of the contract and clearly understood, as there had been complaint made as to taking the dirt from in front of the Mann property and the city might face an injunction and be compelled to go to some other section to procure the dirt for the fill.

Councilman Mauzy stated he had been informed that a great deal of dirt could be procured from the property of Mike McCool, which would go a long way toward making the needed fill.

Councilman Bestor, in reply to the question of several of the councilmen, stated that the dirt taken from Vine street, if moved under the old grade, would make a cut of probably twenty feet, but under the new grade established it would not be over six feet at the most and the greater part of the cut would be on the east side of the hill.

After quite a little discussion the resolution letting the contract was drawn up to include the taking of dirt from any spot agreeable to the city and contractor, and the boys all went home.

MRS. GEORGE A. MEISINGER OPERATED ON FOR TUMOR

From Wednesday's Daily.
Yesterday at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha, Mrs. George A. Meisinger of this city was operated on for a tumor which had been giving her a great deal of trouble for the past few weeks, and reports from the hospital indicate that she is getting along nicely, although suffering considerable pain. Mrs. Meisinger was operated on several months ago for this same trouble, and for five weeks was at the hospital, but the re-appearance of the tumor has made it necessary for the second operation. It is to be hoped that this estimable lady will recover from her ordeal and soon be able to return to her home and family, entirely cured of the affliction.

DAN CUPID GETS IN HIS WORK ON ANOTHER COUPLE

Mr. William Becker of Osmond and Miss Mary McGuire of This City
Married at St. John's Church.

From Wednesday's Daily.
This morning at St. John's Catholic church occurred the marriage of Mr. William Becker of Osmond, Neb., and Miss Mary McGuire of this city. The beautiful nuptial mass was performed at 9 o'clock by Rev. Father M. A. Shine, pastor of the church, and a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony that made these two hearts as one.

The bride was attired in a very attractive costume of dark blue broadcloth and wore a large blue picture hat, while the groom was attired in the customary dark suit. The bride and groom were attended by Mrs. A. R. Payton of Chicago as matron of honor, while Misses Caroline Becker of Osmond and Miss Nellie Ryan of this city acted as the bridesmaids. The groom was attended by Charles McGuire, brother of the bride, and Dr. Paul Becker of Osmond, as groomsmen. The wedding party was preceded by Miss Majorie Payton of Chicago, who bore the golden wedding ring which was to seal the vows of love and matrimony, and after the blessing of the minister was placed on the ring of the bride, marking one of the happiest days in the lives of these young people.

After the wedding the bridal party were entertained at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire, for several hours and a dainty and delicious wedding luncheon served that was very much enjoyed by the jolly party. The young people left this afternoon at 4:15 for Gretna, where they will spend a few days with relatives and friends before returning to their home at Osmond.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGuire and is a young lady who has been reared here in this city and is a lady of more than usual charm of character, and for the past two years has been engaged in teaching near Osmond, where she and Mr. Becker first became acquainted, and which romance found its culmination this morning in their marriage. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of the vicinity and a young man of the highest character and held in high esteem by his many friends. The best wishes of the friends here go with Mr. and Mrs. Becker in their new home.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM A GENUINE BLAZE LAST NIGHT

From Wednesday's Daily.
Last evening there was a very lively time around the drug store of Weyrich & Hadraba when it was discovered that the screen door at the rear of the store was blazing up, and for a few minutes it looked as though the fire might grow to dangerous proportions, and had it not been for the heroic work of the bucket brigade the result might have been serious. Carl Wohlfarth, one of the clerks in the store, was slightly burned while he was attempting to tear a part of the burning screen door down. The fire is supposed to have originated from a small blaze which was set in the alley in the afternoon to burn some trash, and which is supposed to have allowed a live spark to blow over and lodge on the screen, causing the fire.

WEDDING BELLS RING OUT AGAIN IN PLATTSMOUTH

Mr. Leon L. McCarty and Miss Anna
Louise Wohlfarth United in Wedlock Tuesday Evening.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Last evening at the pleasant home of Miss Louise Gorder, on North Third street, was solemnized the nuptials of Mr. Leon L. McCarty and Miss Anna Louise Wohlfarth, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the young people, whose lives were joined in holy wedlock.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Margaret Wohlfarth, sister of the bride, sang very sweetly, "I Love You Truly," and as the notes of the song died away the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march were played very softly by Mrs. C. H. Smith, as the bridal party entered the parlors. One of the pleasing features of the wedding was that Mrs. Smith had performed the same office for the father and mother of the bride thirty-three years ago in the same home where the daughter was to be united. The bridal party was preceded in descending the stairs to the parlor by the six little ribbon-bearers, Fred and Martha Gorder, Helen and Harlan Gorder, Emma Wohlfarth and Edna May Gorder, who formed an aisle of white ribbon through which the wedding party moved to the parlor, where they took their stations before a screen of asparagus ferns and cream roses, while on either side of the floral bower large bouquets of the roses and ferns added their beauty to the occasion. The marriage lines were read by Rev. A. F. Ploetz of Scotland, South Dakota, uncle of the bride, and the ancient Moravian ring ceremony was used in uniting of the two estimable young people, and as the minister spoke the words that made their lives as one, a reverential silence prevailed through the home as the blessing was called down upon the lives now about to enter on life's journey as one. The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Downing of St. Joseph, Missouri, as best man and matron of honor. The bride's costume was one of white organdie with a bertha of real antique lace, with the long flowing bridal veil. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and the only jewels was a beautiful La-Valire of sapphires. The groom was attired in the conventional black.

Following the wedding ceremony the guests were served with a very dainty and delicious two-course luncheon which was served by Mrs. Olga Crossacre and the members of the Modern Priscilla club, of which the bride was a member. During the reception Misses Eda Marquardt and Margaret Wohlfarth gave a number of very delightful vocal and instrumental numbers, which were very much enjoyed.

The dining room and hall of the home were very tastefully arranged with bouquets of red roses and yellow dahlias, and here the presents, which were very numerous and beautiful, were in charge of Misses Gertrude Sellemire or Omaha and Dorothy Gorder.

The guests were received by Mrs. A. F. Ploetz of Scotland, S. D.; Mrs. Chris Wohlfarth, mother of the bride, and Miss Louise Gorder.

Those from out of town attending the wedding were: Fred H. Gorder and family, Weeping Water; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn O. McCarty, Sheridan

NEW INTEREST TAKEN IN PERSONAL APPEARANCE

From Wednesday's Daily.
Do you notice the new interest men are displaying in their personal appearance? A wave of worthy pride is sweeping over the country. It is here, and the merchants have thrown their doors open in an attempt to prove that the problem of men's attire is no longer a matter of mere dollars.

The "Dress Up" movement is based on the fact that men feel well when they look well. The man who takes an interest in his dress takes more interest in his work. Nothing succeeds like success. And the first step towards success is to look the part.

Dress up! Take an interest in your appearance and the world will take a greater interest in you.

MRS. P. REYNOLDS WHO HAS BEEN SERIOUSLY ILL IS IMPROVING

Mrs. P. Reynolds, who has been lying at her home in the south part of the city for the past few days in a very serious condition, is reported as resting as easily as possible under the circumstances, but there is little hope entertained that she will recover from the stroke of paralysis which has rendered her almost helpless for the last few days. Mrs. Reynolds is well advanced in years, being close to 80, and the stroke, which affected her left side has been a very great shock to her and it seems almost impossible for her to rally from the attack. The illness of his wife has come as a great blow to Rev. Reynolds, and he is showing signs of breaking under the strain that has greatly alarmed his relatives and friends. Victor Reynolds of Omaha, a son of the aged couple, with his family, are here looking after the needs of Rev. and Mrs. Reynolds, but the condition of the mother is so poorly as to cause her recovery to be almost dispaired of by the relatives and friends.

CLARENCE BABBITT IS IMPROVING SOMEWHAT

From Wednesday's Daily.
The many friends of Clarence E. Babbitt, who is at Omaha taking treatment of one of the nerve specialists in that city, will be pleased to learn that he is getting along nicely and feels greatly improved in health since he has been there. Mr. Babbitt has been in very poor health for some time and his family and friends have been very apprehensive over his condition, and now that he is apparently improving it is a great relief to them.
