

"Oh Look!
I can eat 'em all—they won't hurt me! That's because they're made with Calumet—and that's why they're pure, tempting, tasty, wholesome—that's why they won't hurt any kid."
Received Highest Awards
New York, Wash. D. C., St. Louis, Chicago, St. Paul, Minn., Philadelphia, Pa., and other cities.

NOT MADE BY THE TRUST
CALUMET
CALUMET BAKING POWDER CO.
CHICAGO

Cheap and big can Baking Powders do not save you money. Calumet does—it's Pure and far superior to sour milk and soda.

UNION.
Ledger.

Uncle Reuben Foster is slowly improving. This is good news for his many friends.

J. Frank loaded his car Tuesday. He will leave for Farnam, Neb., where he will enter into the shoe and harness business.

Rev. E. A. Fletcher of Oakvale came in Tuesday morning for a visit with his father-in-law, John Klaurens, and other friends.

A. L. Harlan, who moved from here to Kansas several months ago, was here Monday looking after some business affairs and meeting his friends.

Rock Creek, during the recent rains, was the highest it has ever been known to be. Many washouts have been reported, both from the railroads and the wagon roads.

L. J. Hall departed Monday evening for Holt county, where he has been fattening a large herd of cattle on a ranch, and brought a shipment of "ripe ones" to the South Omaha market.

One of G. S. Upton's horses got tangled up in the harness here Monday and before being set free succeeded in destroying a good part of its harness and doing some damage to the rig.

C. F. Harris and J. B. Roddy were out in Wyoming last week looking over the country. Mr. Roddy came back Saturday, while Mr. Harris waited till Sunday before he returned. They both report the crops looking good and the country prospering.

George W. Edmisten of Crow Lake, S. D., came last Friday for a visit with his brothers, Alex and James Edmisten, east of town. Having been a resident of this vicinity for many years prior to moving to Dakota, this visit was one of great pleasure to him, as well as his relatives and numerous friends.

LOUISVILLE.
Courier.

The Kahler Pottery company shipped a car of their product to Kansas City this week.

T. E. Parmele and Henry Schoeman returned Wednesday from a hunting trip out to the Parmele ranch near Broken Bow.

Miss Rachel Stander made a weekend visit with the family of C. A. Richey in Omaha, and attended the Sunday meetings.

August, George and Edward Ossenkop, Charles Heim and Henry Schoeman left Thursday morning by auto for western Nebraska on a hunting trip.

Mrs. John Thomas and niece, Miss Emma Ward, left Tuesday evening over the Burlington for a trip to California. They expect to be gone about a month.

Mrs. S. J. Edgerton and her sister, Mrs. Ray Beaver, went to Omaha Wednesday, where the former will stay for a few days to consult a specialist concerning a serious stomach trouble with which she has been troubled.

Mrs. M. Peterson arrived home Monday from Long Beach, California, where she spent the last two years. She is feeling fine and is looking well. She stood the trip splendidly, considering her advanced years, and says she enjoys being back in her old home town and seeing her old friends.

We are in receipt of a communication from our former correspondent at Cedar Creek, Miss Floy Tremain, who is now teaching at Murray, Neb. Miss Tremain says she likes her new place very much, but she misses her old friends in Cedar Creek and sends them her kindest regards.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pankonin returned last Friday evening from a three weeks' visit with William Eller and family at Onida, S. D. Mr. Pankonin reports splendid crops of all kinds in the Dakotas. Some pieces of oats, he says, yielded as high as 110 bushels to the acre, barley from 40 to 60, corn 30 to 50, and wheat was exceptionally good.

ELMWOOD.
Leader-Echo.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nickel, on September 17th, a baby daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hill are the happy parents of a baby daughter, born Wednesday night.

Leonard McLaughlin lost a valuable horse Friday, this being the second one he has lost this season.

We are pleased to report that Rev. P. Van Fleet has been returned to Elmwood by the M. E. conference just closed in Omaha.

Cedar Creek

A. O. Ault went to Omaha Saturday.

Louis Myers went to Omaha Saturday.

John Busche went to Plattsmouth Wednesday.

J. W. Wolf and wife were in Omaha Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Dasher went to Oread Monday.

William Meisinger was in Plattsmouth Saturday.

Henry Meisinger went to Plattsmouth Thursday.

Miss Anna Henrich spent Saturday in Plattsmouth.

P. H. Roberts and wife went to Plattsmouth Sunday.

G. P. Meisinger and family went to Plattsmouth Sunday.

Henry Baughman and son, John, went to Omaha Saturday.

James Hessefflow went to Ralston Saturday to see his son, Walter.

Miss Clara Dasher went to Chalco Monday to stay for a few days.

Miss Honor Seybert spent Sunday at her aunt's, Mrs. R. N. Thomsen.

The Farmers' Elevator trustees held their annual meeting Monday.

Lloyd Schneider and sister, Verla, drove their car to Omaha Wednesday.

Mrs. Philip Stokes and Mrs. Pete Schroder spent Saturday in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Robert Stivers and children went to Plattsmouth Saturday to visit over Sunday.

G. P. Meisinger and wife and Henry Thierolf and wife drove to Plattsmouth Thursday.

J. W. Knoff took charge of the depot at Cedar Creek while Mr. Lyle is away for a few days.

Mr. Friedrich and Mr. John Albert of Plattsmouth came out to attend the elevator meeting Monday.

Henry Thierolf and wife, and Mrs. G. P. Meisinger and Mrs. Harry Meisinger went to Ashland Monday.

Lloyd Schneider, Verla and Helen Schneider, Miss Morris and Miss Beachell went to Omaha Saturday.

Rev. Henry Kruse of Ellsworth, Minn., came in Saturday night and filled Rev. Swart's place Sunday.

Mrs. Sayles is having the hall cleaned and newly papered and painted and will give a dance in the near future.

J. F. Foreman came down from Omaha Wednesday to enter into his duties as cashier of the bank Thursday.

The base ball boys went over to Nehawka Sunday and returned the game the Nehawka boys played here at the picnic.

Frances Pace and family have moved into the Hall part of the hotel and will live in Cedar Creek this winter.

Frank Busche and family of Omaha drove out in his car Sunday and spent the day with his brother, John Busche and family.

Miss Lena Hertz of Plattsmouth came out Friday and spent the night at the C. A. Gauer home, returning to her home Saturday on No. 34.

School Notes.

Visit our schools and see what your children are doing.

Mrs. C. A. Whitaker visited the primary room Wednesday, September 29.

Miss Dora Gauer and sister, Mrs. J. Solsberg visited school Friday, September 24.

There will be a box social at the school house Saturday evening, October 30. Everyone plan to come. Ladies bring well filled boxes. A Halloween program will precede the sale of the boxes.

Our school has entered the Cass county school contest for the Perry picture, or a piece of statuary. This is to be given to the school having the highest average attendance for the year. Parents please help us to make the average of this school the highest.

The following pupils of the primary room were neither absent nor tardy for the month of September: Henry Franke, Everett Lyle, Lorene Ault, Mildred Gauer, Harold Gauer, Carl Meisinger, Theresia Sheuerer, Herbert Meisinger, Victor Stoehr. Number of pupils, 19. Number neither absent nor tardy, 9. Miss Morris, Teacher.

The following were neither absent nor tardy in the grammar room: Merna Wolf, Bernese Ault, Freda Gauer, John Keil, Grace Duff, Cleome Meisinger, Josephine Sheuerer, Leona Dasher, Emma Warren, Francis Gauer, Lloyd Meisinger. Number of pupils, 11. Number neither absent nor tardy, 11. Miss Beachell, Teacher.

For croup or sore throat, use Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Two sizes, 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.

ALVO NEWS ITEMS

Dan Skinner was in Omaha Saturday and Sunday.

S. C. Boyles transacted business in Omaha Monday.

Harley Wolfe was a capital city visitor Saturday.

G. P. Foreman shipped hogs Tuesday to South Omaha.

Ed Casey was a passenger for Omaha Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Chris Eichmann visited in Lincoln Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. G. P. Foreman returned home from Lincoln Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Boyles of Lincoln visited relatives here Monday.

Dr. L. Muir and family attended the Ak-Sar-Ben at Omaha Wednesday.

Fred Prouty was real sick Saturday and Sunday, but is better at this writing.

C. D. Rasp and family and Mrs. Harvey Rasp autoed to Lincoln Wednesday.

Lee Stewart and mother, Mrs. Joe Richardson, were Omaha visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murty were Ak-Sar-Ben visitors Wednesday at Omaha.

Sherman Wolfe returned Wednesday from Montana to spend the winter here.

Mrs. H. Moore and daughter, Blanche, were visiting friends in Lincoln Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson attended the electrical parade at Omaha Wednesday night.

Roy Stewart returned from Iowa Tuesday evening, where he had been for several months.

Dr. Pringle of Lincoln and P. H. Flynn of St. Paul, Minn., were in town on business Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Whitney were passengers for Omaha Wednesday to take in the Ak-Sar-Ben.

C. G. Anderson went to Litchfield, Neb., Monday, where he went to look after his farm interests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harrington of Lincoln spent Sunday with the latter's brother, Fred Kear, and family.

Mrs. William Hynbaugh and son of University Place visited this week with her sister, Mrs. Kennedy.

A reception was held at the M. E. church Saturday evening for Rev. Keith, who will remain here another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Toole of Murdock visited Saturday and Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. McKinnon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William James and daughter, Etta, from near Elmwood, spent Sunday with Henry Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Park of Colorado visited over Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Skinner, and other relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Kear and granddaughter, Dora Kear, came in Saturday and visit her son, Fred Kear, and family over Sunday.

Among those going to Omaha Wednesday to hear Billy Sunday were Mrs. Bina Kitzel and the Misses Kate and Della Sutton.

Mrs. Kime of Lincoln visited from Saturday until Monday with Mrs. E. L. Uptegrove and Mrs. Harry Appleman and other friends.

J. A. Shaffer was shooting squirrels at South Bend Monday morning. He brought home fourteen, and only two others seen got away.

James Christianson and family, from Elmwood, autoed over Wednesday evening to visit his brother, Andrew Christianson and family.

A number of the Royal Neighbors went to Weeping Water Friday evening to attend the Sarpy and Cass counties convention of that order.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. H. Moore "sponged" two meals each at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Woods, jr., last Monday, so it is reported.

J. W. Davis and brother, F. L. Mann, and G. A. Wilson left Wednesday for Crab Orchard, Neb., in Mr. Mann's auto to spend the day with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Foreman and their son, Joe, autoed to South Bend Wednesday morning, where Joe had cattle in a pasture. They brought the cattle home for the winter.

Castle Shaffer of Lincoln spent Tuesday and Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shaffer, having autoed down. He was accompanied by Messrs. Bagnell, Dillon and Babcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stroemer autoed to Barneston Saturday to visit the former's father, who is not as well as usual. They returned home Monday evening, leaving the father feeling some better.

A party of friends surprised Elmer

Local News

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mrs. Alice Sage departed this morning for Omaha, where she will visit for a short time with relatives and friends.

Glen Perry came in yesterday afternoon from his farm home to look after matters with the merchants for a few hours.

Ernest McCarty of Lincoln departed this morning for his home, after being here to attend the wedding of his brother, L. L. McCarty.

W. F. Fitchman, wife and son, Robert, were among those going to Omaha this afternoon, where they will visit for a few hours with relatives.

George A. Meisinger was among those going to Omaha this morning, where he will visit for the day with his wife at St. Joseph's hospital.

Fritz Vallery came in this morning from his farm home near this city and departed on the early Burlington train for Omaha to attend the carnival.

Mrs. J. P. Keil and daughter, Mrs. A. F. Seybert, were among those going to Omaha this afternoon to spend a few hours taking in the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Earl Barclay and wife of St. Joseph, Missouri, were here for a few hours today visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Barclay, the parents of Earl.

P. A. Horn, wife and children came in this morning to catch the early Burlington train for Omaha, where they will visit for the day attending the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Clarence Busche and Richard Sanborn came in this morning from their home near Cedar Creek and were passengers for Omaha to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben.

James Murphy and Rudolph Bergman of Manley were here yesterday for a few hours looking after some matters of business at the court house and calling on friends.

John L. Smith of Nehawka and W. T. Smith of this city were among those going to Omaha this afternoon to spend a few hours looking after some matters of business.

L. O. McCarty and wife and babe of Sheridan, Wyoming, who were here attending the McCarty-Wohlfarth wedding, departed this morning on the early Burlington train for their home.

L. D. Hiatt, president of the Murray Commercial club, accompanied by W. H. Puls and W. G. Boedecker, were in the city yesterday attending to some matters before the board of county commissioners.

John Knabe, wife and daughters, Misses Martha and Josephine, of Nehawka, came up this morning from their home and were passengers on the early Burlington train for Omaha to attend the carnival.

Henry Horn and daughter, Miss Helen, and George P. Horn, sr., came in this morning from their country home south of Cedar Creek and were passengers on the early Burlington train for the metropolis.

Henry A. Guthmann and wife, of Murdock, came over last evening to visit for a short time with Mrs. F. R. Guthmann and family, and this morning departed for Omaha to spend a few hours taking in the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Car Load of Horses for Sale at Public Auction!

Good young horses, coming 3 and 4 years old, all halter broke; will make horses weighing from 1,100 to 1,200 pounds. Sale will be held at
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA,
Burlington Stock Yards, on Saturday, October 16th

Terms:—Six months' time will be given, with approved security, with eight per cent interest; 2 per cent off for cash.

J. S. and C. E. BENSCHOTER.
J. P. Falter, Clerk.
Q. K. Parmele, Auctioneer.

Klyver and wife Tuesday evening in honor of the former's birthday. They took well filled baskets of "delicious eats" and also violin strings and floor wax and it is needless to say a jolly time was had by all present.

G. A. Wilson and F. L. Mann of Quincy, Illinois, came in Friday to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. J. W. Davis, and Mr. Davis, for a week, when they will go to Denver, Colorado, and other points of interest there, returning home via St. Louis, Missouri.

Cort Lemon and family, Jake Lemon of Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. McCarty of Emerson, Iowa, and L. B. Appleman and family ate Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Appleman. E. K. Reece and family of Greenwood visited the Appleman home Sunday evening.

J. P. Rouse received a message Monday that he had another grandson, who came Sunday morning to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Uhley at Verdon, Neb. The little man weighed 10 pounds and he and his mother are getting along fine, and Papa Uhley is the happiest man in Verdon. Grandma Rouse went down Sunday night to spend several days with them.

HOW AN ENGINEER KEEPS WELL

Railroad engineers are more exposed to catching cold than other workers. E. G. Dunsapport of Montette, Mo., has run a Frisco engine 25 years and all the medicine he has taken is Foley's Honey and Tar. He writes: "I always keep it in my house and recommend it to all who have a bad cough or cold." Sold everywhere.

For Rent.

M. E. parsonage at Mynard. Grant Wetenkamp, Mynard, Neb. Phone 4920. 9-24-tf-d&w

OUR JITNEY OFFER—This and 5c. DONT MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with five cents to Foley & Co., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills, and Foley Cathartic Tablets. Sold everywhere.

SUIT AGAINST W. O. W. TO SECURE INSURANCE

A suit was filed today in the district court entitled Molly Garens vs. the Woodman of the World lodge, in which the plaintiff asks that a judgment be given her for the sum of $1,000, which she claims is due to her on an insurance policy carried by her late husband in this order. The plaintiff resides at Union and her husband, it is claimed, was a member of the camp of the Woodmen of the World in that city. Mr. Garens, so the petition states, joined this lodge on August 12, 1912, and died November 4, 1914, and was in good standing, the plaintiff claims.

GEORGE BURNETT FALLS AND ROLLS INTO THE CREEK

George Burnett, who has been engaged in some work at the Burlington sewer near the residence of Mrs. Purdy on Lincoln avenue, yesterday afternoon fell and rolled to the bottom of the creek which drains the shop yards, and as a result received a rather severe shaking up and was bruised about the back somewhat, but his injuries are not serious, although he will probably be stiff and sore for a few days.

HERMAN'S U.S. ARMY SHOE

JOSEPH M. HERMAN & CO. have been manufacturers of Shoes for the U. S. Army Ever Since the Outbreak of the Spanish War.

Government Specifications Guarantee:

1. COMFORT
2. GOOD STYLE
3. LONG SERVICE

In Several States the entire National Guard are required by law to wear

Herman's U.S. Army Shoe

The State Militia Officers have found this shoe the best on earth.

Look at a pair of these shoes at our local representative's store and see what army quality demands. Study the materials; examine the workmanship.

You don't need the training of an expert in shoe leather to appreciate the superior worth of Herman's U. S. Army Shoe. Try on a pair your size and see how easy they are and how well they look on your feet.

We Guarantee Satisfaction

There are 12 styles in the army line, both russet and black leathers, and you are sure to find a shoe to please you.

JOSEPH M. HERMAN & CO., Manufacturers, BOSTON

Avard & McGlean, THE RELIABLE SHOE STORE