

TWO OF PLATTS- MOUTH YOUNG PEOPLE MARRIED

Mr. Cyril Kalina and Miss Marie Jelinek United in Marriage at the Holy Rosary Church.

From Tuesday's Daily.
This morning at 7 o'clock at the Holy Rosary church, occurred the marriage of Mr. Cyril Kalina and Miss Marie Jelinek, the beautiful nuptial mass of the church being performed by Rev. Father John Vleck, rector of the church, and the ceremony was witnessed by a number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties, who gathered to witness the uniting of these two worthy young people as one.

The wedding was a very quiet one and the young people were attended at the altar by Miss Emily Kalina, of Omaha, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, and Mr. James Jelinek, of Council Bluffs, brother of the bride, as best man. The bride was gowned in a blue broadcloth traveling costume, making a most charming appearance. Following the wedding the young people were driven to the Burlington station, from where they departed at 8:16 for David City, where they will make their home for the present, and where the groom is interested in a roller skating rink. There were a number of the friends of the young people at the station to bid them good luck and success in their new venture on the sea of matrimony.

Both of the contracting parties are well known in this city, where the bride was born and brought up, and where she has a host of warm and sincere friends who, while they are grieved to lose her from their midst, will trust that she may have all the happiness she so well deserves. Mrs. Kalina is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jelinek, and is a young lady of rare charm of character and disposition that has made her a wide circle of friends.

The groom has made his home in this city for the past few years, being employed by the Burlington in the upholstery department of the shops, and is a young man of the most sterling character and one who is held in the very highest esteem by all who know him, and it is the most sincere wish of the friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Kalina that they may find in their new life the greatest of happiness and bliss and that their way may be free from the cares and troubles that sometimes come into the lives of all.

BOTH MR. AND MRS. WILL BOECK IN SOUTH OMAHA HOSPITAL

From Tuesday's Daily.
The many friends in this city and vicinity of Will Boeck and wife will regret to learn of the misfortune that has befallen them, as both Mr. and Mrs. Boeck were taken to the hospital in South Omaha, where they reside, the wife suffering from appendicitis, which made it necessary to operate on her at once, and the husband is reported as suffering from a hemorrhage of the brain as the climax to his mental trouble that has for the past few years affected him in a very severe form. Mrs. Boeck is reported as having stood the operation in good shape and it is thought that she is now on the highway to recovery and at the present rate of improvement will soon be able to return to her home. Mr. Boeck is a nephew of Henry Boeck of this city.

THE STORK LEAVES A LIT- TLE GIRL AT CLAUS HOME

From Tuesday's Daily.
Peter Claus, the lower Main street merchant, today is wearing one of the broadest and happiest smiles that it would be possible to find on the countenance of a proud father, and it is all occasioned by the fact that at 11:30 this morning a charming little daughter made her advent at the Claus home, and Pete says there is not a finer little lady in the whole United States, and he would not take the credit for her. The mother and little one are doing fine and Pete is simply walking on the clouds in his happiness. That the little lady will prove to be a joy and comfort to her parents in the years to come is the wish of their many friends.

BUCKING AUTO NOT A MACHINE THAT ANY- ONE BRAGS ABOUT

From Tuesday's Daily.
Just how provoking an automobile can be is fully appreciated by Miles Allen, the carrier on rural route No. 2, who possesses one of the bucking varieties of autos, and it has in the past few days proven a severe test on the patience of Mr. Allen. Yesterday he decided to use the machine in making a trip out on the route, and as it was apparently in good working order he invited Postmaster D. C. Morgan to join him in a swing around the circle of this garden spot of the state. The trip went fine until the party was quite a distance out of the city in the direction of Cullom, when, without any warning, it died and all the efforts of the driver and Mr. Morgan to get it to give any signs of life failed and it looked like a clear case of securing help to get back to town. Mr. Morgan had just gotten to one of the nearby farmers, when a glad shout greeted him, and looking back he saw the machine all ready for business and it brought them back into town without a mishap, and it is still a deep mystery what was the matter, as the car as soon as it got ready, responded to the efforts of their driver, although he had spent half an hour trying to get it started, without avail.

MRS. EVERETT WILES CELEBRATES HER 23D BIRTHDAY

From Tuesday's Daily.
A very pleasant surprise was given Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Everett Wiles on the occasion of her twenty-first birthday, and the event was celebrated in the most appropriate way with music and games of all sorts, and the occasion was one of the rarest enjoyment to all. A very pleasant feature of the very pleasant surprise. Those who took part in the event were: Mesdames Conrad Grebe, Arthur Alexander, John Grebe, George Grebe, Anton Hrasaky, Alice Wells, Miss Verna Rauan, Miss Lottie Kopsickie, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wiles and Mrs. Carl Kopsichka and family.

PLEASANT SURPRISE TO MISS FLOSSIE RICHARDSON

Last evening Miss Flossie Richardson, who is here visiting for a few days with her father, John Richardson, and other relatives, was given a most pleasant surprise at the cozy Richardson home, "Riverview," near the ferry landing, and for several hours there was much enjoyment prevailing in the home with games and music to pass the time most agreeably. At a suitable time the jolly party was invited to partake of a most tempting luncheon, and the table was well laden with the good things to eat, and the occasion was one that will not soon be forgotten. There were twelve guests present, and in departing at a late hour they wished Miss Flossie many more pleasant gatherings of this nature.

PLATTSMOUTH BOYS ARE VERY BADLY TREATED

While Attending a Dance the Rougher Class of the Magic City Attempted to "Do Up" Our Boys.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Several young men from our peaceful and progressive little city Sunday journeyed to the metropolis of the state to spend a few hours and gaze on the wonderful sights that the town of Tom Dennison might reveal to them, and thereby hangs a tale of slaughter and carnage, compared to which the Russian retreat from Sventziany would seem like mere child's play.

The boys were out at South Omaha attending a dance at one of the halls, and as the hour was drawing nigh for the departure of the Missouri Pacific midnight train they hastened from the hall in the direction of the depot, and of necessity were compelled to go through a rather dark and rough part of the Magic City, and here their kindness got them in bad, as when they were en route to the depot they ran onto a young man who was being rather roughly handled by two of the strong-armed and weak-minded residents of that section of the city, and the Plattsmouth boys interfered in behalf of the under dog, and the two who had been doing the annoying of the younger man got away in short order, and the home guard continued on their way toward the station, and when a block and a half from the scene of the first meeting they ran onto the enemy entrenched, and it was stated that the gang of roughnecks that had gathered to do up our lads strung along for half a block, and they proceeded to get busy on the Plattsmouth boys, who stood their ground, but in one case they had all they wanted, as one of the boys made a stand and put six of the South Omaha denizens out of the running before someone hit him in the back of the head with a club. Two of the Plattsmouth boys lowered the world's record for running by some two minutes, and showed good judgment, as they were clearly outclassed and finally secured relief from the police, who arriving, rescued the member who had received the brunt of the fighting.

One of the local delegation, who is unused to the uses and customs of the South Omaha sluggers, was trying to get out in the open to make his getaway, when one of the ruffians inquired if he was from Plattsmouth, and being so informed, proceeded to knock him clear off of the sidewalk into the street. The party was all finally gathered together and enabled to return home, but presents a very badly damaged appearance.

LEM MAYBEE SLAYS 555 GOPHERS ON 40 ACRES OF LAND

From Tuesday's Daily.
Lem Maybee, who for the past thirty days has been engaged on the farm of W. D. Wheeler, east of Murray, in waging a war on the gophers that infested the farm, has made a great success of the hunt and the gophers caught and slain by Mr. Maybee numbers 555, and all of these were secured off of a forty-acre tract of land and shows how the pests multiply when left alone. Mr. Maybee took the contract to clean up the gophers at the price of 20 cents each, and as a result of his month's warfare on them he has just received $110, which is quite a goodly sum, but the riddance of the pests is worth that much to Mr. Wheeler and he feels well repaid for the outlay. They were trapped and killed and the dead bodies disposed of, and as a result the Wheeler farm is comparatively free of them now.

COMPLAINT FILED IN COUNTY COURT AGAINST HENRY CARSON

From Tuesday's Daily.
This morning a complaint was filed in county court by County Attorney A. G. Cole, in behalf of the State of Nebraska vs. Henry F. Carson, charging him with assault and battery on the person of Walter J. Wunderlich, at Nehawka on Saturday evening. As far as could be gotten at from the statements made it would seem that the assault and battery was the outgrowth of the defendant getting in bad with the management of a social dance given there last Saturday, and he later undertook to settle the differences with a number of the young men and Mr. Wunderlich was the victim whom he fell upon and attempted to beat up. The party will be brought in as soon as possible and the matters threshed out before Judge Beeson.

ST. MARY'S GUILD ARRANGING FOR ANNUAL BAZAAR

From Wednesday's Daily.
The ladies of St. Mary's Guild are now making arrangements for the holding of their annual bazaar, and the dates decided on are December 10 and 11. The ladies have in the past been most successful in this line of work and realized a neat sum to be applied on the expenses of the church work. The bazaar gives everyone a chance to secure many dainty and choice articles of needlework and linen and many other fancy articles which are bargains at the prices placed on them and which it would be impossible to purchase at any store. Held as it is, just before Christmas, there is a splendid opportunity offered for the purchase of articles suitable for Christmas gifts. There will be perfect satisfaction in every article sold by the ladies and the public should keep their eyes open for later announcements as to the location of the bazaar and the different lines of goods that can be purchased there.

TWO MORE PLATTS- MOUTH YOUNG PEOP- LE ARE MARRIED

From Wednesday's Daily.
This morning at the St. John's Catholic church occurred the marriage of two of our popular young people, Mr. Fred L. Linderman and Miss Claire Mockenhaupt, in the presence of the members of the immediate families of the two contracting parties. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father M. A. Shine and was most impressive and beautiful, as the two young people were united as man and wife. The bridal couple were attended by Mr. John Clodt as best man and Miss Marie Fitzgerald as bridesmaid. The costume of the bride was a very handsome one of blue broadcloth trimmed with fur, and made a very charming appearance.

Following the wedding the bridal party were entertained at the home of the bride's parents in the south part of the city at a wedding breakfast and spent the day receiving the congratulations of their friends. They will depart this evening for a trip to the west for a short time and returning will make their home here, where they have a cozy home awaiting their occupancy.

Both of the young people have been brought up in this city and are possessed of a large circle of friends. The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Mockenhaupt and is a young lady of rare charm of character and one who is held in the highest esteem by all who know her.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Linderman and is a bright, genial and industrious young man and is at present holding a clerical position in the Burlington offices in this city.

It is the sincere wish of their many friends that the best of luck and happiness will be the future lot of these worthy young people, who have just launched their bark upon the matrimonial sea.

PLATTSMOUTH'S YEAR OF GREAT PROSPERITY

At Close of the Year It Will Be Shown That in Improvements It Has Been Greater Than Expected.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Not so many days ago we were present when a citizen of Plattsmouth, who had just made a trip over the city, made the statement that he "had never seen so many building operations going on in the city as there is at the present time, and we are ready to echo his statement, and those among us who do not believe that Plattsmouth is experiencing a growth and an increase in new homes that is truly surprising should take a trip over the city and view the work that is being carried out along this line. There is hardly a section of the city where there is not some new residences being put up, and the beauty of this is that they are at once occupied, and in fact as soon as the announcement is made that a new residence is being put up there is a demand from someone to secure it.

Those who have resided here for a number of years recognize it not as a sudden boom, but rather as a steady, conservative growth which the prosperity and thrift of the citizens has brought on and which marks the true spirit of public citizenship—that of confidence in the future of the city and of the steady, healthy growth both in wealth and population. It is really surprising the number of new homes that have sprung up during the months since the dawning of the year 1915, and before the year closes it is safe to predict that the building record in the city will be greater than for many years before, and this is aside from the many public improvements that have been made.

Miles of permanent sidewalk and curb and gutter on the streets have been added during the past nine months, and with that which is projected for the next few months will make 1915 a record year in the history of the city. The alley in the business section of the city north of Main street has been paved and the south side alleyway has also been placed in a position where it is possible for early action to be taken, and before snow flies this, too, should be completed and ready for service and save the loss to the merchants, as well as the annoyance of the muddy alleys, which in the past has been a very severe drawback to the business houses on the south side of Main street.

DEATH OF MRS. WIL- LIAM A. BOECK AT SOUTH OMAHA

From Wednesday's Daily.
Mrs. William A. Boeck of Omaha, an account of whose illness appeared in the Journal of last evening, has passed away, as she was unable to stand the ordeal of the operation and died Monday evening, although word was not received here until last evening. Mrs. Boeck was taken with what seemed to be appendicitis on Sunday and was at once taken to the hospital for treatment, but it seems to have been without effect, as she continued to grow worse until death came to her relief. Mrs. Boeck was forty-seven years of age and had made her home in Omaha for a great many years, where the family has resided at 460 South Thirty-first street. A husband, one son and one daughter survive her. Henry Boeck of this city is an uncle of the deceased lady, and he and his wife will attend the funeral, which will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Brewer chapel in Omaha and under charge of Rev. E. L. Wheeler of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Boeck for a number of years was engaged in teaching school in this county and was married here, and a great many of our citizens had the pleasure of knowing this estimable lady, whose years of suffering and worry have closed. The husband has been practically an invalid for a number of years, suffering from a mental disorder.

YOUNG APPLE PICKER FINED ONE DOLLAR AND COSTS

From Wednesday's Daily.
The case of the apple picker from Nehawka, who was charged with assault and battery on Walter Wunderlich, came up for hearing this morning before Judge Beeson in county court, and the young man entered a plea of guilty and was given a fine of $1 and costs. From the fact stated at the court house, it would seem that the affair was not altogether one-sided, and the appearance of the young man charged with the assault was that of a clean-cut young fellow and he bore no marks of any "rough stuff" and was quiet and gentlemanly and the judge gave him the smallest fine possible, which was settled, and he returned back to Nehawka.

A VERY QUIET HOME WEDDING OF A WORTHY COUPLE

From Wednesday's Daily.
Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kissling, on Wintersteen Hill, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Carrie, to Mr. George Bronhofer of this city. The wedding was a very simple home wedding and attended by only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends and neighbors. The service uniting these two young people as one was performed by Rev. J. H. Steger of St. Paul's Evangelical church, and the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was used by the minister in uniting these two worthy young people. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests were treated to a very dainty luncheon and the newly weds showered with well wishes from their relatives and friends.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kissling and is a very charming lady who has a host of friends who will rejoice with her in the new found happiness that has been given her. The groom is a very energetic and industrious young man and well worthy of the charming helpmate he has secured.

TERRY'S UNCLE TOM'S CABIN IS COMING TO THE PARMELE SOON

The teachers in the schools, the preachers in their pulpits, the press and in fact every right-minded citizen endorses and encourages the attendance to see Uncle Tom's Cabin. Nothing is more discouraging, however, than to see the false and out versions as given by many so-called Uncle Tom's Cabin Companies who do not even try to give a satisfactory performance. For nearly a quarter of a century the Terry's Big Uncle Tom's Cabin Company has been the monarch of them all. This company uses the G. L. Aiken version, which is acknowledged to be the only true representation of the author's story. This version is not used by other companies on account of the amount of scenery required and the large cast. This company carries the best actors, Cuban blood-hounds and everything necessary to give a worthy presentation of Harriet Ward Beecher Stowe's wonderful story of slavery days. At the Parmele theater Saturday night, October 23.

MISS SLATER ATTEMPTS TO IDENTIFY THE SLAYER

Suspects in W. H. Smith Murder Case Are Haled Up for Examination.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 20.—Eighteen men were rounded up by the police Monday and Tuesday and taken before Miss Grace Slater, the companion of Harry Smith when he was shot to death Saturday night. She could recognize none of them as the murderer.

Ed Malone, one of nine men held up by a lone bandit a week ago, also scrutinized the men, but could identify none of them as the possible robber.

Rewards totaling $400 will be offered for the capture of the murderer of Harry Smith. The city council offers $200 and the county commissioners and the Woodmen of the World are preparing to offer $100 each.

The murder of the young man has awakened the city to the need of a clean-up. W. A. Fraser, sovereign commander of the Woodmen of the World; Commissioner Ellis of the Commercial club, and other prominent men have expressed themselves freely on conditions.

A man answering the description of the murderer of Smith held up Clarence Anderson and Miss Stella Schoor at 815 North Thirtieth street. He relieved Anderson of $2 and dragged the girl into a vacant lot and attempted to attack her. She fought back, and finally the man ran.

UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCES WITH "HOSS" TRADERS YESTERDAY

Yesterday afternoon Herr Adolph Wesch, the shoemaker, had a most unpleasant experience with "hoss" traders, and as a result is shy his favorite driving horse this morning. It seems that a party from the vicinity of La Platte was here, and meeting Mr. Wesch engaged him in conversation on the respective merits of their horses and this led to the comparison of the fine points of the respective animals, and Mr. Wesch was urged to trade his horse for that of the La Platte trader, but he declined at first to consider the matter at all and attempted to get rid of the clamoring demand made for a trade. After it had been discussed still further, it was finally agreed that Mr. Wesch would try out the Sarpy county nag and see what he thought of it, and accordingly the horse of Herr Wesch was unhitched and the other animal placed in the shafts and the trial trip was undertaken and for several blocks the La Platte horse held its own, but began to betray signs of being "wind-broke" and other drawbacks that filled our old friend with disgust and he decided there would be "nothing doing" in the trading line with the horses, and accordingly drove back to where he had left his horse, and was amazed to find that his horse, as well as the La Platte horse trader had disappeared and nothing could be found of the whereabouts of the animal, and Herr Wesch was left with the prize package on his hands and wrath filled his breast, and he certainly had a right to feel sore over being "flim-flammed" in the manner that he had been. He called on the county attorney this morning to see what steps could be taken to recover his horse and compel the possessor to take back his animal.

Sheriff Quinton drove out to La Platte this afternoon to endeavor to secure the horse for Mr. Wesch, which was reported as being driven off by a man named Owens, and if the animal is recovered it will be turned over to the rightful owner. The horse taken was quite a valuable animal, while the one that was left on the hands of Mr. Wesch was more of an ancient curiosity than anything else, and it is to be hoped that he secures the return of his animal.
