Which Shall It Be?

Do you intend to continue laboring, burning valuable fuel and destroying high-priced food with that old worn-out cook stove?
You KNOW that old stove eats up a lot of fuel each year.

You KNOW you have trouble in getting it to bake just right, in fact, spoil a batch of bread every once in a while—you know it costs considerable for yearly repairs. Stop and think and figure. Wouldn't it pay you to buy a good range—a range with a reputation—

THE GREAT MAJESTIC MALLEABLE AND CHARCOAL IRON RANGE

YOU make no mistake in buying the GREAT MAJESTIC—it's the range with THE REPUTATION—ask your neighbors. Then, too, it's made just right and of the right kind of material—MALLEABLE AND CHARCOAL IRON—riveted together practically air tight—lined with pure asbestos—parts being malleable can't break—has a moveable reservoir and an oven that doesn't warp—that's why the MAJESTIC uses so little fuel, bakes just right every day in the year (browns bread just right all over without turning), heats fifteen gallons of water while breakfast in cooking—properly handled last a lifetime, and costs practically nothing for repairs.
Don't buy the range you expect to last a lifetime "unsight unseen"; you'll sure be disappointed. Come to our store during demonstration week, see the GREAT MAJESTIC—have its many exclusive features explained—find out why the MAJESTIC is 300 per cent stronger than other ranges where most ranges are weakest.

LIFE AND DEATH STRUGGLE IN SERBIA REALIZED

Little Balkan Nation in a Desperate Plight, Being in Last Stages of Resistance.

FORGES TWENTY MILES APART

London, Oct. 27.—The desperate plight of the Serbians, which has been described ever since the beginning of the Austro-German and Bulgarian invasion as "an affair of national life and death," is no longer a rhetorical phrase, but the literal truth. London's optimism regarding the outcome of the Balkan conflict, which had been colored by reports of the determined Serbian resistance and the difficulties which the invaders are meeting, has now yielded to the conviction that it will take something in the nature of a miracle to avert a disaster for Serbia.

Lord Lansdowne's exposition of the Macedonian campaign in the house of lords yesterday is regarded as an indication that the assistance the allies have been able to offer Serbia is not sufficient to meet her needs. The appeal of the Serbian premier to England "to do everything you can to insure your troops reaching us as soon as possible," intimates the resistance of the Serbians is nearing its last stage.

Twenty Miles Apart. Austro-German and Bulgarian forces are now within twenty miles of each other. Southwest and southeast of Belgrade invading armies are advancing along a 100-mile front, twenty-five to forty miles south of the Danube. Analysis of the situation in regard to the Belgrade-Nish-Saloniki railroad shows that the Germans command the first fifty miles from Belgrade, the Serbians the next 150, the Bulgarians the next 100 and the French the last fifty miles to the Greek frontier.

No details have been received here concerning the reported recapture by the Serbians of Veles.
Whether free communication between Hungary and Bulgaria by way of the Danube has yet been established is doubtful, but the proximity of the forces of the two countries makes such communication at least imminent.

All dispatches continue to describe the intensely stubborn resistance of the Serbians. According to accounts which have reached here concerning the capture of Uskup, the Serbians defended every foot of ground on either side. Although the Bulgarian forces are said to have outnumbered the Serbians ten to one, they made only 500 prisoners. All the others fought to the death.

Road Almost Open. Communication between the Austro-German and Bulgarian armies is on the point of being established, and the dispatch of munitions to Constantinople is expected to begin within a few days, according to information from Turn-Severin, Rumania, sent to the Times by its correspondent in Bucharest.

This communication is being effected in the northeastern corner of Serbia, where the distance between the Hungarian and Bulgarian frontiers is only 40 miles.

The dispatch describes the Austrian occupation of Tekia, which was accomplished after a bombardment lasting many hours. Austrian troops crossing the Danube in eighty-six boats. The advance on Kladovo immediately followed. At 4 o'clock Tuesday morning Kladovo was in flames, the Serbians having started many fires. Refugees from Kladovo reaching the Rumanian shore of the Danube included civil authorities and several Serbian officers.
