Celebrate Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Davis, two of the most highly respected old people of this section of Cass County, celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary at their home on last Sunday. The affair was given in honor this occasion by the sons and families of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, and only these family were present to enjoy the occasion with their parents. All of the sons were present except M. S. Davis, who resides in Colorado, and was unable to come. There were Dr. T. V. and family, of Lincoln, Dr. J. R. and wife, of Lincoln, I. M. and family, Ray and family, and O. A. and wife, all of Murray and vicinity. The Davis family are among the oldest residents in this part of Cass County, and this excellent old couple sure have a host of friends who join with the Journal in wishing that they may live to enjoy many more such happy occasions. While their health has been rather poorly for the past few months they are feeling pretty good at the present time, and are enjoying their ripe old age in every way possible.

Pleasant Birthday Party.

There was a very pleasant birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lutz on last Sunday, the occasion being given in honor of Mrs. Lutz' thirty-first birthday anniversary. The usual good time was had, and there were many good things to eat spread before the visitors.

Electric Lights for Murray.

The business men of Murray, and all citizen that have been interested in the electric light plant, held a meeting Tuesday evening to discuss the proposition and take the initial steps to securing the plant. There is one sure thing at the present time, and that is that Murray will have an electric light plant in the near future, but it will require time to ascertain the number of consumers, in order to know about the size of the plant to install. There will be another meeting held on Friday night of this week. Let all those interested in this excellent movement be present. Murray will sure have lights, but the promoters need the help of all the residents and business men of the town to make the plant a success.

Reminded of Old Home.

B. A. Root is in receipt of a paper from his old boyhood home in Fremont, Michigan, this week. A section of this issue of that paper is devoted to the pioneer day celebration, and in that section Mr. Root finds a picture of himself and a number of other early business men of Fremont. This picture, one of which Mr. Root has also, was taken in 1871 or 1872, and is sure one highly prized by Mr. Root. These men were early business men of Fremont, at which time Mr. Root was engaged in the drug business in that town. Most of the number have already been called to the Great Beyond.

Please Settle.

I take this method of notifying all parties knowing themselves indebted to me, from the time I was in the hardware business alone, to call and settle same at once. I need the money at this time, and if not settled soon same will be placed in other hands for collection. George Nickels.

Here From Idaho.

Mrs. Wm. Smith is entertaining her niece and little daughter, Mrs. N. B. Rawls and Lois, of Boise, Idaho. Mrs. Rawls, who, with her brother, is returning home from Boston, where they went to be present at the world series base ball games, has stopped to visit with relatives in Omaha, Plattsmouth and Murray. She will return to Boise next week. She says her trip has been a delightful one.

Suffering From Throat Trouble.

On account of the condition of Rev. Hutchinson's throat it has been arranged that morning services only, be given in the Presbyterian church for a time. The congregation and pastor, Rev. Robb, were glad of his presence and assistance in the Christian church Sunday evening. A large audience gave interested attention to Rev. Robb as he spoke upon the theme—"Seven Devils." In a tactful manner he drives home truths, and one is made to recall through the week his forceful, clear-cut language. He spoke of the two opposing forces, devils and angels being present in every community, and named among the devils that might be in Murray, "gossiping tongues," "pleasure," "drink."

Library Dinner and Supper Success.

At the home of Mrs. Oldham, assisted by her daughters, Misses Pauline and Fay, and the ladies of the Library Association occurred the Library dinner and supper last Saturday, as per previous advertisement. No body said the home would be decorated in autumnal beauty, that the dining room was to be Halloween decoration with a great pumpkin filled with fruit, symbolic of the "horn of plenty" as a center piece upon the candle lighted tables. But for the palate as well as the eye had a feast been prepared. Everything homemade, everyone trying with the other to make their offering most delicious. One gentleman said "when the Murray ladies undertook to do anything it was done." When supper was ended the ladies served hot coffee and lunch to the young people who were stepping to the music furnished by Holly's Orchestra and Miss Esther Rice, at the Puls & Gansemer hall.

Christian Endeavor Meeting.

Following are the numbers that are to be heard next Sunday evening at the Christian Endeavor meeting: Original Questions and Answers. By Murray People. Meeting to begin promptly at 7:00 o'clock p. m.

Dinner at Oldham's a Success.

The dinner and supper given at the Oldham home last Saturday was quite well attended and a most enjoyable time was had by all in attendance. The Library Association will be in the neighborhood of $25.00 better off than before this occasion was given for the benefit of this excellent organization. The usual decorations of the present Halloween season were very much in evidence about the home.

GENERALS RETIRE FROM VILLA'S CAUSE AND ARMY

Generals Maytorena and Angeles Will Do No More Fighting in His Behalf.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—General Jose M. Maytorena, late adherent of General Villa, and former governor of the Mexican state of Sonora, and chief of the conventionalist forces along the Arizona border, was in Chicago today on his way from Washington and New York to the west. The general is accompanied by R. Ramirez, former political adviser to the Villa party, and stopped here to await the arrival of General Felipe Angeles, who is on the way from Boston.

"I shall not rejoin the Villa army," General Maytorena said. "Carranza has won. We cannot oppose him successfully in the face of a United States arms embargo against our forces. General Angeles also expects to retire from actual participation in the fighting. So does General Raoul Madero and General Manuel Chao."

Mr. Ramirez said: "The retirement of Villa leaders in Mexico does not signify withdrawal from the affairs of that country. We mean to let Carranza establish a sound government, if he can, and then join forces to oppose him politically—not by force. Mexico has had enough of war."

"Already rivalry, it is understood, is becoming serious in the Carranza camp. General Obregon, it is said, wants to be president and I should not be surprised if he realizes his ambition."

General Maytorena, Senor Ramirez and others went to Washington three weeks ago as Villa representatives.
