YOUNG LADIES ON THE HIKE FROM OMAHA

Four Charming Young Ladies Make the Trip About as Quick as the Boys Could Make It.

Yesterday four young ladies, members of the Christian Association Athletic club of Omaha, hiked into this city from the metropolis, two of the party covering the distance from Omaha, while the two others started on their trip from Fort Crook. Two of the ladies, Nina Williams and Lelia Lipp, did the whole trip from Omaha to Plattsmouth in good time and required only four and one-half hours to do the fifteen miles from their home to this city, while Miss Hannah Berggren and Miss Charlotte Wandersneider covered twelve miles in three and one-half hours. The trip was one filled with pleasure to the ladies and they did not in the least hurry themselves, but swung along under the cool of the October breeze and although there were several offers made of rides along the way the ladies refused them and made the entire distance on foot, and returning to Omaha left here at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after spending a few hours here with Miss Berggren's parents. The young ladies are members of the athletic club, and for their efforts they will receive a credit of their athletic work at the Y. W. C. A. and a trophy of their walking expedition over the hills of old Nebraska. All of the party when here had a fine time in the walking tour and were more than willing to take up the job of hiking back to their home in Omaha.

How to Prevent Croup.

It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Elida, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and when he began having that croupy cough I would give him one or two doses of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine, because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable." Obtainable everywhere.

VILLA READY FOR ATTACK ON BORDER TOWN

Rebel Hordes, Clamoring for Food and Water, Are Assembled for Attack.

BATTLE MOMENTOUS EXPECTED

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 31.—General Francisco Villa began moving his troops into position tonight for an attack on Agua Prieta, Sonora, opposite here, regardless, he personally declared, of any consequences or effects from the United States.

"If necessary I will fight the United States army assembled along the border," he asserted, after hearing this afternoon for the first time that the American government had given permission for Carranza to transport troops from Laredo and Eagle Pass, Texas, to reinforce the garrison at Agua Prieta.

Four of these troop trains arrived tonight, bringing the total fighting men in the garrison commanded by General P. Elias Calles, to approximately 6,000 men.

Villa, according to reliable estimates, has 10,000 soldiers. He claims to have 18,000. The battle may begin at any moment—perhaps tonight or probably tomorrow.

The border line was closed, but arrangements were made by United States immigration authorities to admit under guard thousands of more or less destitute refugees from Agua Prieta.

Villa's forces appeared within five miles of Agua Prieta shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon. Fifteen hundred cavalry advanced from the Slaughter ranch, eighteen miles east of her, along the border.

Three thousand other troops, mounted and afoot, and driving pack animals apparently loaded with machine guns or mounted cannon, were tonight at a point four miles east of Douglas and about the same distance south of the international boundary.

Villa With Cavalry. Villa himself was with his cavalry, forming a flank guard which passed along the border today. It was during this march that he learned that Carranza reinforcements had been transported over American territory, and launched a verbal attack on the United States which he declared would turn into a physical attack if necessary. He said:

"This is the way the United States repays me for the treatment and protection I have given foreigners in Mexico. Hereafter I don't give a damn what happens to foreigners in Mexico or in my territory. I am through with the United States. I can fight my battles. Let them fight theirs."

Fighting at Torres. Nogales, Ariz., Oct. 31.—A battle has been in progress since 4 a. m. today at Torres, Sonora, between Carranza forces commanded by General Dieguez and a Villa column under General Flores, according to reports received tonight at Nogales, Sonora, opposite here. No details could be obtained.

General Dieguez, who recently captured Guaymas, on the west coast of Mexico, has been advancing with his troops toward Hermosillo in an effort to drive Villa detachments toward the international border. Torres is a short distance south of Hermosillo.

HERE AT HOME

Plattsmouth Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Plattsmouth citizen:

Mrs. Adam Kurtz, Plattsmouth, says: "I suffered intensely from my kidneys and back and I couldn't stoop or stand erect. I had a dull, nagging pain through my back that robbed me of all energy. My sight became effected and dark spots appeared before my eyes. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Gering & Co.'s Drug Store and in a short time they relieved me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kurtz had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

BATTLE IS ON NOW IN THE BLACK SEA

Russia Believed to Be Hurrying to the Rescue of Their Ally.

SERBIA STILL CENTER INTEREST

London, Oct. 30.—Serbia remains the center of interest in the war. Except for the French contingent stiffening the Serbin line in the region of Strumitsa, the allied reinforcements have not yet reached her hard pressed and retreating armies, and only the mountainous character of the country is saving these troops from annihilation. Serbia's tiny neighbor and ally, Montenegro, meantime, is being hampered by the Austrians, who are exerting renewed pressure along the Drina near Visegrad, in a movement co-ordinating with the general Teutonic offensive in the Balkans.

Following the Russian bombardment of the Bulgarian litoral, Russian troops are now reported to be crossing the Black sea preparatory to an attempted landing, with a view to attacking the Bulgarians in the rear. These reports come from German sources, however, and are not confirmed, nor is the report of a big naval engagement in the Black sea between a Russian squadron and Turkish war craft, headed by the Goeben and Breslau.

Russian Troops to Aid Serbia. The rumored movement of Russian troops to aid Serbia is generally credited in England and given the most prominent place in the late editions of the London evening papers. A guarded reference to the undertaking was made in a Petrograd dispatch printed this morning, which referred to the Russian emperor "journeying south to give a send-off to large forces of all arms."

Serbia circles in London are still making urgent appeals to the allies to rush troops to their country's support, but the very fact that the Serbians have been able to hold out up to the present time has created a certain amount of optimism.

Neither of the great battle fronts in the east and west have furnished any marked developments. Petrograd reports tonight that the Austro-Germans are evacuating Volhynia, leaving a vast quantity of ammunition and supplies.

Details Lacking of Naval Battle. Almost coincident with the report that the Russians are sending transports with troops through the Black sea for the purpose of making a landing on the Bulgarian coast, comes the unofficial statement that a naval engagement between Turkish and Russian warships has taken place in the waters. A message received in Berlin from Bucharest reports that the Turkish warships Mindullu, Sultan Selim (formerly the German cruisers Breslau and Goeben), and Hamidieh attacked a Russian squadron of three battleships and several cruises and destroyers in the Black sea. No further details are given.

The Bulgarians are said to be preparing special trains to transport German troops over the Bulgarian railroad to Constantinople through Thrace. Already war munitions have been dispatched to the Turkish capital.

Executions for Espionage. The execution by German military authorities in Belgium of nine persons convicted of espionage is reported officially from Berlin, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to London. Ten other persons, including three women, were sentenced to penal servitude.

Russian resistance in the Riga district evidently is holding firm, as the Germans admit a retirement south across the Missa near Palakken after they had advanced on the northern bank of that stream. Palakken is about eleven miles directly south of Riga, which shows the nearness of the German approach. The Germans retired after they had repulsed two strong attacks and were facing a third.

Berlin reports that nothing of moment has occurred on the western front since the issuance of the previous official statement. Paris declares the Germans were beaten off in violent counter attacks made in an effort to regain positions near "La Courtine" in the Champagne, which the French took on Friday. The gain of a trench section at Boysenhatche in the Artois also is claimed by the French.
