Suit of White Broadcloth and Beaver

Designed by J. M. Gidding & Co., New York.

Of all the furs beaver is perhaps the most fashionable this season. It is used to trim frocks and hats as well as tailored suits. The soft light color of the fur brightens dark suits and when used on white is extremely fashionable and chic. This tailored suit of white broadcloth has a band of beaver bordering the front of both skirt and coat. It also has muffle-like cuffs and a high collar of the fur, and the flaring skirt has beaver at the bottom. This is really a beaver outfit, as the turtleneck with the costume has a crown of the same fur, with two fur ears jauntily perched at the back.

Jet and beads are continuing their vogue, with cut steel in combination with jet, a very modish arrangement.

ADOPTED SON CONCLUDES HE DOESN'T LIKE THE STUNT

Sheriff C. D. Quinton was out today on a search for Walter Isbell, the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Isbell, residing west of this city, near the county farm. The young lad has been missing from home since about noon yesterday, when the last trace of him was seen by his parents. It would seem that the boy was feeling rather "sore" over a lecture that had been given him yesterday morning for some misdeed he had committed and which his guardians had reprimanded him for, but his running away had not been thought of until his continued absence caused Mr. and Mrs. Isbell a great deal of worry, and finally the matter was reported to the authorities. The boy is reported to have walked across the Platte river wagon bridge yesterday afternoon, headed in the direction of Omaha, and the description fits that of Walter, which makes it almost certain that he was the boy who was making his way toward Omaha. The sheriff was in Omaha and South Omaha today looking up the boy and trying to locate where he might possibly have found a lodging place.

House for Sale.

I have a good three room house in Plattsmouth, south of Burlington shops, that I will sell cheap. Terms made right. See or write Frank Valtery, Murray, Neb. Tel. 46, Murray.

Still Feeling Very Poorly.

Mrs. N. K. Peoples has been quite sick for the past few weeks from an attack of heart trouble and her condition is still such as to compel her to remain quiet a greater part of the time and has interfered with her household duties. Her family and friends are hopeful that she will soon show signs of improvement.

Secures Widow's Pension.

In the Washington dispatches appears the notice of the granting of a widow's pension to Mrs. Susan Irwin, of this city, in the sum of $12 per month. The matter of securing the pension has been looked after by Judge M. Archer.

BARGAIN DAYS ARE NOW LIMITED AT THE M. FANGER STORE

The Great Retiring Sale at the M. Fanger Department Store is rapidly drawing to a close. The days are numbered when you can secure goods at this store at such prices as we are now offering them. The chances are that the doors of this store will be closed in a very short time, and the opportunity of your securing goods at such ridiculously low prices will be lost forever. Just stop and think one moment of the golden opportunity that you are letting get away from you, in case you are not already one of the lucky buyers, right in the heart of the winter and Christmas season, when you will want gift goods, as well as the necessary garments for your family, this store is filled with a world of bargains, such as Cloaks and Suits, Millinery, Men's and Boys' Clothing, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Shoes for the whole family, and thousands of other seasonal articles that you need, and that are at your command for about one-half their actual value. Perhaps you may wonder why we are so anxious to sell these goods at prices below cost and willing to sacrifice every article in the store. It is simply this and nothing more: It requires a lot of time and costs a great deal of money to pack merchandise and pay freight, and we would much rather sell the entire stock right here in Plattsmouth than to pack it up for removal.

I wish to thank all former patrons of my Plattsmouth store, and at this time, if you are looking for bargains in the lines that we carry, I want you to call at this store during the remaining few days that this stock will be with you, and you will surely find them, for your price will be mine on many of the lines.

This is a golden opportunity for the shop employes this pay-day. Many of these garments you are needing "right now, and right now you can buy them right." Your check will go farther at this time than ever before, so call and see us this pay-day, before it is too late. All unsold goods in the department store will be moved from Plattsmouth within a very short time.

Very respectfully yours,
M. FANGER.
