

MANUFACTURING PLANT TO BE PROUD OF

Lee Sharp Refurnishing His Foundry With Up-to-Date Machinery That Will Do the Business.

From Friday's Daily. The manufacturing plant of L. C. Sharp, on South Third street, is a very busy place at the present time, as there are a large number of improvements being made there by the owner in arranging for the operating of the establishment as it should be and starting the wheels of industry to humming in this building that has so long been dormant.

Mr. Sharp is taking the proper step by establishing the proper foundation for the business by getting everything in shape where the work can be handled as the demand is made on the plant to supply the needs of the manufacturing public. The first step in the organization of the facilities for the work will be the thorough overhauling of the foundry section of the factory, and Mr. Sharp is now engaged in the task of placing this in first-class shape with the best of equipment for turning out what work may be desired. New moulds and a special variety of sand for use in the moulding of the different machinery or tools desired have been ordered from the east and as soon as the work necessary to place the plant in proper operating condition has been finished the foundry will be all ready to start in on a large number of orders that are already awaiting handling at this establishment. The foundry will be one of the best that can be found in a factory of this size in the west and will be prepared to handle any contract that may be given to Mr. Sharp to fill.

The floor space in the main factory is also being overhauled with a view of giving sufficient room for the erecting of new machinery that is already in the factory awaiting simply for the changes to be made that will allow of them being set up. The shafting in the building will be placed on the north side, and here the different machines will be set for use and arranged with a view of handling work with speed and ease. The work benches and erecting space will occupy the south portion of the main room. The new equipment for the machinery of the building will amount to several thousand dollars, but will fit the factory in first-class shape for working purposes and give every facility for handling the contracts. In the rear of the factory building a large shed 88x12 is being erected that will be used to store coal and iron for use in the foundry, and this will make the factory cover the entire lot. A new 30-horse power boiler to furnish heat for the building, as well as to be used in the manufacturing department, has been ordered and will be installed as soon as possible, and in the factory as oxygen welding plant will be made a part of the equipment.

The factory when fully completed should be in position to employ from eighteen to twenty skilled artisans in handling the different lines that can be manufactured in a factory of this size and there is no doubt that the demands for concerns of this kind are constantly growing and every day there are opportunities given to small factories and foundries to handle contracts for larger manufacturing plants and Plattsmouth certainly ought to be right in line in this work, as the shipping facilities for both the east and west are as good as could be asked for.

John Gerry Stark, one of the leading residents of Stove Creek precinct, near Elmwood, was in the city today for a few hours looking after some business matters, and found time to call at the Journal office and visit with the editor. Mr. Stark is a fine, genial gentleman, as of old, and a visit from him is one that is always enjoyed, and he is sure to always find a welcome at the Journal headquarters.

JUDGE BEGLEY FINISHING UP JUNE TERM DOCKET

From Friday's Daily. Judge James T. Begley arrived this morning to open a short session of the District court to take up a number of small matters in connection, with the closing up of the regular June term of the court and prepare for the opening of the regular November term of court, which will convene on Monday next, when the jury will start on their labors. The fact that Thanksgiving day will be next week will probably lead to the jury being excused from Thursday to Monday. One of the chief cases to come before the jury for trial will be that of Gust Johnson vs. the C. B. & Q. railroad, which will probably occupy several days for its trial.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents, consisting of silver, cut glass and linen. LADIES OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH ENTERTAINED BY MRS. HENRY OFE

From Friday's Daily. The ladies of the St. Paul's church were entertained very pleasantly yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Ofe on Wintersteen Hill, and the occasion was one of great pleasure to all who were present. The time was passed in social conversation and planning the work of the society, as well as in visiting and renewing the pleasant associations with each other and in the plying of the busy needle. At a suitable hour the jolly party of ladies were served with the most delicious coffee and coffee cake, which served to further heighten the pleasures of the occasion. The attendance of the members was quite large, and after a most pleasant afternoon they departed for their home expressing their pleasure at the delightful hospitality shown them.

THE RILEY HOTEL SALOON IS IN FINANCIAL TROUBLE

From Friday's Daily. An execution has been issued by the county judge in a suit brought by the Bank of Alma, Nebraska, against Martin A. Beyer, the owner of the saloon in the Hotel Riley building, and Sheriff Quinton has taken over a part of the stock to satisfy the execution, and will sell the same at public auction, at the south door of the court house, on Monday, November 29th. This should prove a golden opportunity for the needy to lay in their winter supply of stimulants, as there will be a great many bottles of rare vintage offered for sale.

200 RAILROAD EMPLOYEES ATTEND REVIVAL

The Church Crowded to Its Utmost Capacity and Great Interest Manifested.

From Friday's Daily. Last evening was railroad men's night at the Methodist church revival and there was present something like 200 of the employees of the Burlington shops to take part in the meeting, which proved one of the most interesting held so far in the series of revival services and those who were present cannot but be aided by what they heard from the lips of one of Omaha's leading business men, as well as the pastor of the church.

A quartet of the men who had been converted during the Sunday meetings in Omaha were present and at the song service preceding the regular service of the evening they gave a number of stirring campaign songs, which were much enjoyed by the audience, and the young men were compelled several times to respond with encores.

The regular services of the evening was opened by the introduction of William Foshier of Omaha by the pastor of the church, Rev. Druliner, and this gentleman made a very effective impression in his remarks, which covered his personal experience, and the speaker covered thoroughly his many experiences before being converted to the Christian faith, and his life was laid bare that his hearers might appreciate the wonderful changes that had come into his life when he had experienced a change of heart and lined himself on the side of right and Christian faith. Mr. Foshier, in his story of his life, held his audience spellbound as he told of the many wrongful acts and deeds that had marked his lifetime and the great struggle that had come before he had seen the light and came into the path of right and truth.

At the close of the remarks of Mr. Foshier, the pastor made a touching appeal to his hearers to come forward and make a stand for the right and to cleanse their lives of the sins of the world. The minister pointed out by lessons from the bible of the attainment of their ends by the worldly and sinful characters in that book of books, and of the price that each had paid to secure that end and closed with an invitation to come to the front and join in making a stand for Christian lives and to cast off the shackles that were holding them back from the attainment of the higher things of life.

GOODLY NUMBER IN TOWN TODAY, NOTWITHSTANDING THE CHILLY WEATHER

From Saturday's Daily. The chilling breezes today had a tendency to keep many of the residents of the country districts from coming to the city to spend their Saturday, but still there were a goodly number in to look after the week-end trading. The extensive use of the automobile has resulted in bringing the farmers in later in the day than formerly, as it is now possible for them to remain at home until 3 or 4 o'clock before making the trip, whereas it used to require all day in order to make the tip of a distance of ten or twelve miles and finish up the trading for the week, but all this is changed. In these days of telephone and automobiles the farm and the city are in constant touch and the distance has been made a small matter to the owner of a car, as they can cover considerable territory in a very short space of time.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY ENTERAINED YESTERDAY

The Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. H. G. McClusky at the manse. Each member of this society had been invited to come to the manse and bring a friend and listen to the report of the delegates to the Synodical Missionary meeting, which was held at Lincoln recently. Mesdames E. D. Cummins and McClusky were the delegates and they gave very interesting reports of the meeting at Lincoln in a most pleasing manner. Mrs. Cummins telling of the talks that were made and the papers that were read at the meeting, while Mrs. McClusky told of the business that was transacted and spoke of the plans for the future. The reports were greatly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present and they caused more enthusiasm and interest in this particular line of work in the church. Several new members joined this society, which was a pleasing feature of the afternoon's meeting. After the reports had been given, Mrs. McClusky served a very tempting luncheon. A few moments devoted to a social time and then, after extending their warmest thanks to Mrs. McClusky for her kind hospitality, the ladies dispersed, hoping that the interest aroused in this meeting will continue at all their meetings in the future.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL TEAMS IN INTER-CLASS GAMES

From Friday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon the basket ball teams representing the different classes of the High school indulged in the opening series of inter-class games and these were staged at the Crystal Star skating rink after the close of school and resulted in the seniors and freshmen being the victors in the contests. The games were most interesting in every way and created a great deal of spirit from the members of the classes, who cheered on their representatives to victory.

In the opening game the juniors and freshmen were lined up as opponents and the freshmen clearly demonstrated that they were the superior of the upper class team in all respects, as they won by the decisive score of 6 to 5. A number of very clever plays were made by both teams in the game. The seniors were pitted against the sophomores in the second game and the battle was fast and furious and it was not until the close of the second half that victory perched on the side of the seniors, who won by a score of 4 to 3. However, the fact that the greater part of the regular High school team is composed of the members of the senior class deprived this side of the services of a great many of their best players, as the school team was barred from the class games as being too swift, and the seniors were compelled to put their members who had little practice into the game, but at that were able to wrestle the victory from their opponents.

The games were refereed by Harris Cook, while Frank Marshall served as umpire, and the decisions of these eminent sporting authorities were received with approval, as they were fair and impartial.

DOCKET, TO A GREAT EXTENT, CLEANED UP

Swift Work by a Swift and Able Judge, Who Keeps Everything Moving.

From Saturday's Daily. During the short stay of District Judge Begley in this city yesterday he took up a great many cases that were awaiting action and disposed of them, clearing up the docket to a great extent.

John Fowler, who was charged with having forged a check drawn on the bank at Booneville, Iowa, and which was cashed at the Farmers' State bank at Greenwood, was arraigned in court and entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced by the judge to a term of from one to twenty years in the state penitentiary at Lincoln.

Yesterday seemed to be a record-breaker in the divorce line in the district court, as three couples were given their releases from the bonds of wedlock and again allowed their freedom. Max Duda was awarded a decree of divorce from Josephine Duda, the charges being desertion, and in this case the default of the defendant was entered and the testimony of the plaintiff taken after a great deal of difficulty on the part of the interpreter, County Clerk Libershal, who was called upon to translate the questions of the attorney and the replies of the witness. In the case of Mrs. Hazel Boyd vs. Lester Boyd, the plaintiff was awarded a decree of divorce and the default of the defendant entered. She was also granted $200 permanent alimony and $10 per month. The charge in this case was that of extreme cruelty. In the case of Joseph A. Halmes vs. Mary E. Halmes, the default of the defendant was entered and a decree of divorce granted the plaintiff as prayed for.

In the case of Julia Wanderholm vs. the C. B. & Q. railroad, the action was dismissed on motion of the plaintiff and the costs of the case taxed to said plaintiff.

In the case of Benjamin B. Bryan vs. William F. Gillespie, the demurrer to petition sustained. Plaintiff excepts and is allowed forty days to prepare and serve bill of exceptions.

In the case of James Ingwerson vs. Richard Ingwerson, et al, hearing to court. Finding for petitioners and judgment in partition entered on the calendar.

MRS. PETER MUMM ENTERTAINS THE SOCIAL WORKERS

From Saturday's Daily. Mrs. Peter Mumm and daughter, Clara, entertained the Social Workers' club at their pleasant country home south of town Wednesday afternoon. Rainy weather prevented many from attending, but those who were there enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The business session was exceedingly long and occupied a greater part of the afternoon. A dainty two-course luncheon was served at the usual hour, Mrs. Nolting, Mrs. Mrasek and Master Clayton Mrasek assisting in serving. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Smith on December 15th. The guests at Mrs. Mumm's were: Mrs. F. W. Nolting, Mark Iles, Mrs. Anna Gooch, James Mrasek, Charles Mammers, Ed Bein, Lee Hill, Mrs. Amelia Beins, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harvey, W. A. Taylor, W. P. Hutcheson, Will Oliver, Jr., Miss Nettie Smith, Clara Mumm and Mrs. Mumm.

From Friday's Daily. Nicholas Halmes of Weeping Water was in Omaha recently on the occasion of the visit of the Notre Dame football team, and spent some time with the members of that organization to learn how his son, George, was progressing from the effects of his recent accident in which his leg was broken. The members of the team report George as doing nicely and on the highway to recovery.

ADOLPH GEISE MOVES INTO HIS NEW HOME

From Friday's Daily. The new bungalow of Adolph Geise on South Fifth street has been completed and the family are now getting settled in their new home, which will make a very cozy and comfortable residence for them. The house has been enlarged and remodeled throughout by the force of workmen under the direction of J. E. Mason, the contractor, and the structure certainly is finished in the most complete manner possible. The residence is handy to the business section of the city and will be found a most pleasing location for a home.

TRAMPS CAPTURED AT FALLS CITY WITH BURGLAR TOOLS

From Saturday's Daily. At our neighboring town of Union Wednesday night a tramp made his appearance at the depot there and related a story of robbery by a number of his companions, and the fact that they had thrown him from the train as it came through Union. It would seem from the story told by the tramp that he, with four other hoboos, had secured quarters in an empty car on a Missouri Pacific freight train at Omaha and all went well until the other four men learned that he possessed $1 in real cash, which aggravated them and without delay they took the coin from the gentleman and proceeded to unload him when the train passed through Union. The man was desirous of securing revenge on his companions and reporting the story to the agent at Union had that official call up Falls City and inform the railroad officials of the trespassers on the company's cars, and they were nabbed when they arrived there at 2 a. m. The four men were well supplied with revolvers and ammunition, flash lights, skeleton keys, razors, and strange to relate, several pieces of soap. There was only $2 in the whole crowd. Sheriff Hakekin of Richardson county has the men under arrest.

The Richardson county authorities are very desirous of holding the men there on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, and this would probably insure the men receiving a stiffer sentence than if they were brought back to this county. The man who was robbed on the train has made his getaway and practically makes it impossible to do anything with the three men on that charge, as he would have to identify the men who did the work. The man, after notifying the agent at Union, proceeded to board a passing train and has not been seen since that time.

P. H. MADSEN BUYS RESIDENCE IN MONTANA

That our former fellow townsman, P. H. Madsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Madsen, of this city, is making good in his new home in Montana is shown by the following taken from the Red Lodge, Montana, paper, and in which is given the details of a transaction in which Mr. Madsen is interested. It will be very pleasing for his many friends here to learn of his success in his new home:

P. H. Madsen, proprietor of Hank's cafe, has purchased the Newkirk residence in North Hauser avenue from County Coroner R. B. Mooney and will take possession the first of the month, when the Mooney family expect to quit Red Lodge and go to the Pacific coast. The consideration for the property was $2,200.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express to our many kind friends and neighbors our heartfelt appreciation of their kindness to us in our hour of grief and for their sympathy shown to us in the death of our beloved husband and father. May they be treated as kindly in their hour of sorrow is our wish. Mrs. Viola Long. Harry Long.

"THE WAY OF THE TRANSGRESSOR IS HARD" THEY SAY

This morning the court of Judge Archer was quite busy for a few minutes while the judge gave the revelers of Saturday evening "the once over" and meted out to them justice for their shortcoming in getting tangled up with the rum demon. James Williams was the first to come before the court and plead guilty to having indulged to excess in intoxicating liquor and drew a fine of $2 and costs, for which he deposited the necessary "kale" and was allowed to go on his way. S. F. Andrews also had an encounter with his old opponent, John Barleycorn, and was assessed $2 and costs, amounting to $5, which he paid and was released to go on his journey rejoicing.
