Thanksgiving Dinner at Lewiston.

The Thanksgiving dinner at Lewiston was in every way a grand success. While the day was disagreeable without, many drove from near-by towns to partake of one of the most delicious and as nicely served dinners that has ever been given by the ladies of the K. N. K. The church was handsomely decorated in red and white; each table held a beautiful bouquet of red carnations, and the altar was covered with yellow "baby chrysanthemums," which were sent by Mr. Ed Hesser and wife of Los Angeles, Cal. The dining room was very conveniently arranged and seated some fifty people during the splendid sermon delivered by the Rev. W. A. Taylor. Mrs. E. R. Queen favored the audience with a solo, "He Walks With Me." The bazaar given in connection with the dinner was the best and largest that has been given so far, many beautiful pieces of needlework and quilts were exhibited, and merchants from Murray, Nebraska City and Plattsmouth were very generously represented at the bazaar. The ladies are very grateful for their kindness. A fine oyster supper, with all the good things left from dinner, was served at 6:30, when a large crowd was present. Charles Lange sang a solo in the evening that was much appreciated by those present. The proceeds for the day and evening were $116, a very neat sum for the ladies, who deserve much credit.

Thanks for the Thanksgiving Dinner.

The ladies of the K. N. K. take this method of extending thanks to the public in general for their kindness in attending, for their assistance and the liberal donation; to the Lewiston Glee club; to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hesser for the beautiful gift of flowers sent for the occasion. K. N. K.

Box Social a Success.
