S. S. CLUB ASSIST IN CELEBRATING BIRTH-DAY OF MISS FIGHT

Yesterday morning the members of the S. S. club assembled at the M. P. station and on the early train proceeded to Mynard where they gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fight for the purpose of assisting their daughter, Miss Esther, in celebrating her 15th birthday. Games had been provided which afforded the happy crowd several very enjoyable moments. Piano and vocal solos were rendered by various members of the club, which were very much appreciated by the jolly company. The remainder of the morning was spent roaming about the farm and taking pictures was a delightful feature. About 1 o'clock the jolly crowd got together again and were invited to the dining room where a delightful three course dinner was served. Miss Grayce Fight assisted Mrs. Fight in serving. After the keen appetites of the young people had been fully satisfied they proceeded to make merry outdoors again, playing many different games and amusements. Later they once more adjourned to the house where they enjoyed more music and late in the afternoon drove home and in spite of the cold, made the air lively with their yells and songs. Miss Esther received many beautiful gifts which will assist her in remembering this happy event.

IN PLATTSMOUTH FORTY YEARS AGO.

A few cases of scarlet fever in town, in a mild form, so far.

Four prairie schooners passed up Main street Wednesday morning.

Henry Boeck is emphatically an honest man. He gave us back a dollar we overpaid him.

We are sorry to learn that several of Mr. McDonagh's children have been ill with scarlet fever.

Our friend J. P. Young went up to Lincoln Tuesday, but he was not after an "office," so he said.

John Duke has been quite sick with quinsy, but is recovering; we hear of one or two other cases of the same disease.

Murphy and Wells arrested two parties supposed to have had a hand in stealing the overcoats from C. G. Herold last week.

Two new coaches passed through Plattsmouth on Thursday last for the Republican Valley R. R., which were built at Dayton, Ohio. They were very handsome and complete.

The marshal arrested one of a pair of thieves who robbed a safe in Red Oak on Saturday last. The other, known as "Tex," was caught in Mills county, and they will both meet their just deserts.

Last week the sleighing was sliding out, and now it's sliding in again.

John Edmunds of Three Groves subscribes and pays for the Herald for a year.

J. Bridenstine left a "V" on subscription last Friday, which was very acceptable.

Sheriff Myers was feeling quite badly from the effect of his wounds and bruises yesterday.

By our South Bend items we learn that Mr. Coffee of that place is coming to Plattsmouth to build several tenement houses, and that he will move here in the spring. A commendable business enterprise to which we heartily wish him success.

Our court sets on the 30th of September, the list of grand and petit jurors are as follows: Grand Jurors—J. C. Cummins, J. P. Young, Henry Stoll, Andrew Taylor, C. B. Bush, J. Vallery, Sr., G. W. Shrader, Frank Stander, D. M. Ramsey, J. D. Bailey, A. W. White, R. A. Ashmun, James Root, H. H. Timm, Samuel Smith, J. W. Van Baskirk. Petit jurors—W. H. Carroll, Conrad Meisinger, S. H. Draper, C. A. Bouton, Lewis Holtz, W. T. Cannon, J. W. Shannon, A. B. Cox, James Pettee, W. L. Atherton, W. H. Newell, Benjamin Albin, Asa Core, Sanford Idle, W. J. Morrow, H. L. Clapp, J. H. Buttery, J. A. Mac-Murphy, Nelson Jeans, Jos. A. Conner, Geo. H. Thomas, Sylvester Johnson, Wm. H. Hobson, H. W. Gilbert.

Our Louisville Letter. Dear Herald:—After the lapse of some few weeks,

Just What She Has Been Asking For!

So Make It a Xmas Present. There is nothing better than a good cup of coffee for breakfast, and a good Percolator will do this. We have two grades, aluminum and nickle, some new styles. Also we have a very tasty line of Casseroles and Serving Sets, all of which make the best of presents for Christmas. We have them on display all the time. Come in and see them.
