

M. Fanger's Department Store of Platts- mouth is Positively Going Out of Business!

Such are the conditions of this Department Store in Plattsmouth. This was decided, to quit business and sell out the entire stock and fixtures as part of fixtures have been sold already, so we are going to put a finish to it with in the near future, thereby cutting prices deeper. Sell at any cost no matter what the goods bring—SELL, SELL, SELL, not a dollars worth of merchandise must be left on hand when the doors close forever in Fangers Department Store. Not one garment must be left. It is your last chance to get dependable merchandise in wearing apparel at low grade prices, the yellow and black signs tell the story.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats!

| | | | |
|---|---------|---|--------|
| Ladies Plush Coats, sell all over $32.50, last chance | $14.75 | Gingham's, at going out of business price, per yard | 8 1/2c |
| Persian Coats, with fur trimming on collar and cuffs | 14.73 | Last chance for Muslins at per yard | 5c |
| Persian Lamb Coat, plush collar and cuffs, $22.50 | 8.73 | Last chance for bleached and unbleached Sheeting | 23c |
| Misses Corduroy Coats, Green and Blue, latest styles, $16.50 | 8.48 | Blankets, Comforters and Cotton Bats at closing out prices | |
| Misses and Children's Coats, in latest styles and materials, $7.75 | 3.73 | Men's Hosiery in various colors, per pair | 7c |
| Children's Coats, in plain White, Brown and Blue brocaded, $8.98 | 2.58 | Men's Wool Hose, at closing out prices | 23c |
| One rack of coats in Wooltex, Stylecraft, and some dresses, $15.00 | 4.48 | Men's Sweaters, grey with roll collars, worth 90c | 48c |
| Another rack of Ladies' Coats and Skirts, last year styles | 1.48 | Men's Red, Grey and Brown, All Wool Sweaters, worth $6.25 | $3.48 |
| Millinery, a good assortment yet, at | 1.98 | Women's House Dresses, in light and dark collars, all sizes, $1.50 | 93c |
| Your last chance of Men's and Boy's Suits, Pants, Duck coats, Sheep lined coats, knee pants, at a sacrifice, from | 39c up | Women's Waists and Sweaters at closing out prices | |
| Calico's, at going out of business price, per yard | 4 3/4c | Men's Women, Boy's and Children's Shoes and Over-shoes, all marked with yellow tags sell at closing out prices. | |

Now is Your Chance for Xmas Shopping!

| | | | |
|---|-----|--|-----|
| Ladies Fancy Embroidered Handkerchiefs, 35c | 23c | Ladies Collar and Cuff Sets | 24c |
| Ladies Flowered Handkerchiefs, 20c | 10c | Leather Hand Bags at closing out prices. | |
| Embroidered Corner Handkerchiefs, 20c | 10c | Ladies Head Scarfs in various colors | 48c |

Only the Prices are Effected the Quality Remains A 1

Don't Overlook Your Last Opportunities!

—FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE—

Thoroughbred Rhode Island Red Cockerels for sale. Price $1.00 to $2.50 each. Troy E. Wiles, Cedar Creek, Neb. Weeping Water Phone No. 2825.

Finest line of decorated Crepe Paper at the Journal office.

George A. Kaffenberger was a visitor yesterday in Omaha with his little daughter. Gladys, at the Immanuel hospital in that city, where she is recovering from an operation for appendicitis and is doing nicely.

Read the want ads in the Journal.

Mrs. W. C. Tipples departed this afternoon for Lincoln to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, the late A. J. Tipples, which will be held tomorrow afternoon.

A want ad in the Journal will bring results.

T. J. Sokol Dance Saturday.

The T. J. Sokol society will give a dance at their hall on West Pearl street on Saturday evening, December 18th, to which the public is invited. Music by the Holly orchestra. Everyone reads the want ads.

NEHAWKA. News.

Mrs. Charles Stone came down from Plattsmouth Sunday morning to spend a few days at the home of D. C. West. Mrs. Clayton Rosencrans came from Plattsmouth Sunday to visit a few days with parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wunderlich.

Jno. Whiteman who has been working in Weeping Water for the past week left that place Thursday for Oskaloosa, Iowa.

Samuel Humphrey and wife returned home Monday after a few days visit with Otto Carroll and family at Garden City, Kas.

Malcolm Pollard who has been in Rochester, Minn., taking cancer treatment, returned home Friday. We understand he is completely cured.

Mrs. Carl Larson and children came down from Louisville Saturday to visit a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. N. Beck.

Mrs. Tom Mason was a passenger to Kansas City Thursday where she went to meet her husband who is returning from the exposition.

Last Monday being Mrs. H. L. Thomas' birthday about fifteen of her lady friends gathered together and with well filled baskets gave her a very pleasant surprise in the afternoon. The time was very pleasantly spent in crocheting and at the usual hour dainty refreshments were served and after some time all departed for their various homes wishing Mrs. Thomas many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Sheldon and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Pollard returned Wednesday from their western trip. They spent several days at the San Francisco and San Diego fairs and visited along the Pacific coast. While away they visited Mrs. Lottie Shotwell of Seattle, the Hall family of Duvalle, Washington and several other former Nehawka people living throughout Washington and California. Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon who accompanied them will remain in California until the first of the year.

EAGLE. Beacon.

W. H. Morrow of Hendley, Neb., arrived here Saturday afternoon for a visit with friends.

Dave Stall arrived here from Cherry county, Neb., Thursday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Pearson who has been visiting at the Winings' home left Thursday for her home at Henrietta, Minn.

Ed. Myers, wife and son left Wednesday morning for a visit with relatives at Kansas City, Mo., and Denison, Kas.

Wm. Christopherson left Tuesday evening for Liberty, Neb., to attend to some business matters returning home Thursday.

A. H. Vanlandingham shipped a carload of hogs to the Nebraska City market the latter part of last week. He accompanied the car.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Balderson returned to their home at Pickrell, Neb., Tuesday evening after having visited a week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Blomenkamp and family.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gerhard, who reside north of Eagle, on Monday, December 6th, an 8 1/2-pound girl. The mother and little one are reported to be getting along nicely.

The writer had the occasion just recently to pass by Tom Hawkins' new bungalow south of town, and it appealed to him as being one of the most up-to-date farm houses in this part of the country, and one that Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins have every reason to feel proud of.

ELMWOOD. Leader-Echo.

Mrs. James Williams of Winnebago, Neb., accompanied by two of her children, arrived Wednesday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Bailey.

Mrs. Roy Warnick of La Crosse, Kas., arrived on Thursday of last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. A. L. Gash. She expects to visit here until after Christmas.

Mrs. Percy Tyson, nee Mabel Rivett, and little daughter of Springfield, Ore., are visiting the old friends of Mrs. Tyson here. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rivett, now of Bethany, Neb.

Last week a deal was closed whereby Frank Buell disposed of an eighty acres of land to John Guston of Murock. This farm is located three miles north of Elmwood. The consideration price was $90 per acre.

On Tuesday Mrs. Wm. Schlanker was very seriously sick and two physicians were in attendance. For a while it seemed doubtful whether she would recover but a change was made for the better and at the present time she seems to be improving.

A fine little daughter was born last Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bogenrief. The proud parents have the congratulations of many friends. Both mother and baby are doing nicely, but "dad" is so proud that we expect to see him take wings and fly.

John Stark has been adding many fine improvements to his farm property. A fine colomade has been added to the country home. He is building a large hog shed 22x36, which will be sided and shiplapped, and a large cattle shed 18x48. J. F. Ross is doing the work.

Joe Capwell, graduate of the University of Nebraska school of law, has decided to establish a law practice here. Mr. Capwell is an old Elmwood boy, his mother has her home here, and we are glad to know that he has made up his mind to locate here permanently. He has been practicing law since receiving his diploma over a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Clapp returned Wednesday evening from a few days visit with the latter's brother, S. E. Greenslate and wife in Omaha. Mr. Greenslate is suffering from injuries sustained a few days ago while riding on a street car. He arose from his seat to speak to the conductor, when the car gave a sudden lurch and he was thrown violently to the floor. The many Elmwood friends of "Uncle Sile" hope that his recovery will be rapid and complete.

WEeping Water. Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis left Tuesday morning for Genoa for a two weeks visit with their son, Greg and family.

Mrs. Lena Kennedy and little son came in Monday evening from Cozard to care for her mother, Mrs. Geo. was very sick.

L. A. Hay returned Monday from Lincoln where he had spent a couple of days with his brother, P. E. Hay who was very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Davis autoed to Lincoln Saturday to see Mr. Davis' uncle, Frank A. Davis at the hospital who is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colbert and son who have been in the community for sometime left this week for Lincoln where they will make their home.

John Linton of Kirwin, Kas., was visiting old time acquaintances in town since last Friday night. Mr. Linton was an early day settler at Wabash and a carpenter by trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiles, Nellie and Harley autoed from their home near Plattsmouth Friday to visit his brother, Mr. T. L. Wiles and wife. Miss Nellie remained over Sunday for a longer visit.

Mrs. Fred Wolf of Omaha and her sister, Mrs. Henry Olive of Jesup, Ia., are visiting at the home of their niece, Mrs. F. H. Gorder since last Thursday and in company with Mrs. Gorder spent the day Tuesday at Marley.

In a deal concluded the first of the week, J. W. Dorsey has disposed of his tailoring and cleaning establishment selling to a Mr. William Meier. Mr. Dorsey has built up and maintained a splendid business and we regret to see him leave the circle of business men on the street if such is to be the result of his selling out. For the time being, however, he and his family are to continue as residents here we have been informed.

LOUISVILLE. Courier.

Mrs. John McNurlin, of Plattsmouth came up Friday to visit over night with Grandma Reichart.

Mrs. A. F. Becker came down from Lincoln Friday to visit with her husband, Prof. Becker and visit the school for the day.

Mrs. B. G. Hoover returned home Saturday where she has been making an extended visit with her daughter in Topeka, Kas.

Godfrey Reichart of Ulysses, Neb., has made two trips to Louisville recently, having been called here by the protracted illness of his mother, who is reported a little better.

Harry Thompson was home from Omaha over Sunday visiting his mother. Harry has a good position with the Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods company and has recently been promoted. C. A. Richey, of the Richey Sand company, has bought of G. A. Joslyn the VanCourt Stone company quarries, machinery, tracks and property at Nehawka. He will continue to operate it as the VanCourt Stone Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blake and daughter, Vivian, Mrs. Robert McCarty and Miss Mabel Ossenkop drove to Marley Sunday to visit Mr. Blake's mother, Mrs. M. Shipman, who is not enjoying good health at present.

William Anderson received word on November 27th of the death of his niece, Mrs. Lily Nordwall-Davis at her home at Gordon, Neb., from tuberculosis, aged 25 years. She leaves a husband and a little son. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Nordwall and was born in Louisville.

Friends in Louisville have received the wedding announcement of Miss Annie M. Holtz, formerly of Louisville and Carson E. Smith, which took place Wednesday, December 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holtz of Springfield. The many friends of the bride in Louisville extend congratulations. They will reside in Fremont.

Daily News Subscribers.

Send your subscriptions and renewals for the Omaha Daily News to Bernese Ault, Cedar Creek, Neb., and help a Cass county girl win the Hudson auto. $2.50 for the Daily, $3.00 with Sunday. You get the premiums just the same and help a friend as well. Personal checks accepted.

11-18-3wks-w

STRAYED—A red bull calf, 6 months old. Anyone knowing anything as to the whereabouts please notify Joe Wagner, Mynard Route.

12-13-2twkly

The finest line of Christmas Cards ever brought to Plattsmouth will be found at the Journal office.

ParmeLe Theatre ONE NIGHT ONLY FRIDAY, Dec. 17

Gaskell and MacVitty (Inc.) by Arrangement with Klaw and Erlanger offer

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine

By EUGENE WALTER

From the Celebrated Novel by John Fox, Jr.

AS PRODUCED AT THE NEW AMSTERDAM THEATRE, NEW YORK CITY

Prices 25, 50c, 75c and $1.00 Address all Mail Orders to Weyrich & Hadraba

