INTEREST CON- TINUES AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

With a house crowded, and interest at enthusiasm point, last evening Mr. PerLee pastor of the Christian church who is conducting the evangelistic campaign addressed his hearers on the theme of "Seeking Liberty." Saying it was for this that the forces of the Union strove twice with England, and with the use of force succeeded but partially, for said he, "force cannot attain entire liberty, as there will be something which force cannot bring about, and then the force will place one under bondage itself."

His text being "You Shall Know the Truth and the Truth Shall Make You Free." Know the truth, defined by the speaker as "Freedom in Harmony With Right Law." Or the Master has said, "I am the Truth the Light and the Way." When the truth shall make you free you will be free indeed. Work in harmony with God's law and you will be free from harm of all kinds you will receive no hurt. But resist God's laws, or nature's laws and you will have to suffer. There can be no transgression of the law without the payment of the penalty. Neither when the penalty has been paid will you be entirely free from the effects when the matter is paid to nature and to the laws of man, but you will be free indeed, when the truth as it is administered by the Father and the Son, through their gospel to the world when God made man, he saw it was not well for him to be alone and he made him a helpmate, this was because man was entitled to the best company. Now the speaker said that a man can get away from his wife some times and go down town, but he cannot get away from himself, and that he may always have a good company he must make himself the best. If he does not wish to walk down the street with a drunkard, or a cigarette fiend, or a liar, a dishonest man, then do not be one yourself, for there is no way getting away from yourself. Be just that kind of a man which you wish to associate with for you will have to have yourself for a companion all your life. You cannot shake yourself, you will have to be a companion to yourself all the time, then, be your best, you owe it to yourself, to the world, to God.

Two pleasing features of the evening was a duet by Herman Hough and Bert Knorr who rendered, "I Am Praying for You." While Rev. McCluskey presided at the piano. The other feature which elicited the pleasure of the audience was a number by the quartette, "My Anchor Holds."

There will be no services this evening but tomorrow, Tuesday evening at 7:30, they will be taken up again, at which time Mr. PerLee will preach of "A Universal disease and a Universal Remedy."

At the Masonic Home.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. PerLee preached at the Masonic Home on the subject, "Peter Goes Fishing," and took for the lesson that narrative by John, where he tells of the disciples returning to their former occupation, which was fishing, and when they had fished all night long and had taken nothing the Lord himself appeared on the shore of the sea of Galilee and told the fishers to cast their net on the right side of the ship, when they were rewarded by an exceedingly heavy draught of fish, 153. It was then that the Master instructed Peter in the work which he was to do after he himself had ascended to his Father. Three times he asked Peter if he loved the Lord, to receive an affirmative answer each time, and to be told to "feed my sheep." The sermon was well received by the people who make their home at this institution. A number went along to furnish the singing, which was one of the pleasing feature of the afternoon. Phillip Rhin sang a special number, while Mr. PerLee presided at the piano.

Center Shots at Sin.

You must recognize the single standard of morals, one that apply to the man as well as the woman.

You must be honest with yourself; when you are you will be with others.

The question comes to us, "What shall we do with Jesus?" will be answered in the future with "What will Jesus do with us?"

Why do we wait for the Master to knock at our door, and why do we wait so long before we answer?

My son, give me thy heart, which includes thy services, thy talents and what you can for my cause.

Some of you say "After a while I am going to be a Christian," which means never; that you will put it off until it is too late. Now is the accepted time, and you have no promise of another.

There is but one question, but it has two sides, "You must overcome the world or the world will overcome you." Which?

Line up for Christ, it is due you, due your friends and due Him.

ANDREW J. TIPPENS, BROTH- ER OF W. C. TIPPENS IS DEAD

Andrew J. Tippens, one of the best known engineers on the Burlington line west of the Mississippi river, and a brother of W. C. Tippens of this city, died Saturday evening at Lincoln, where he had made his home for a number of years. Mr. Tippens has been in active work up until a few months ago, when it was discovered that he was suffering from a tumor of a malignant nature, and in October he visited the Mayo Brothers' hospital at Rochester, Minnesota, but it was found that there was nothing that could aid him and he returned to his home and later took treatment at the sanitarium of Dr. Bailey there, where he passed away. He leaves a wife, his aged mother, two brothers, W. C. Tippens of Plattsmouth and Eugene Tippens of Los Angeles, California; two sisters, Mrs. Jane Cooper of Glenwood, Iowa, and Mrs. Barney Brannings of Proctor, Montana, to mourn his death. Mr. W. C. Tippens departed yesterday for Lincoln to assist in the arrangements for the funeral, which will be held tomorrow afternoon from the family residence at 2 o'clock.

Files Petition in Bankruptcy.

In the federal court in Omaha a petition in bankruptcy has been filed by Sinclair Stevens of this city, who is having the court settle his affairs. Mr. Stevens has been farming on the place of T. H. Pollock, just east of the pumping station of the water company, and has had several poor seasons in his farm work. His liabilities will greatly exceed his assets. J. A. C. Kennedy, referee in bankruptcy, has charge of the case.

If you are making calendars for Christmas you will find the mounting paper and pads at the Journal office.
