Cheapest in the Long Run

The cheapest priced wagon is the one which will save you the most money—and there is far more than the first cost to be taken into consideration with most wagons. But with "The Old Reliable Peter Schuttler" it's different. With it, the first cost is practically the only cost. It's built right and stays right. It saves repair bills; it avoids break-downs; it reduces the after purchase expense—and it wears longer than any other wagon built. And with all its cost-reducing, time and trouble-saving features, the first cost of the "Peter Schuttler Wagon" is only slightly more than the first cost of the inferior makes. And every cent of the extra cost goes into extra quality. There's no more profit on a "Peter Schuttler Wagon" than on the so-called other standard makes. The difference in price is due entirely to the difference in material and the difference in the way this material is put together. It is this difference which makes the "Peter Schuttler" by far the cheapest priced of all wagons in the long run.

AMERICAN PRESS ASKED TO SAVE FORD EXPEDITION

Rev. Charles F. Aked, Leader of the Standpatters in Row, Makes an Appel to the Newspapers.

DECLARES HOPE REMAINS

Stockholm, Dec. 25.—A new leader is at the helm of the Ford peace enterprise. Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago was announced as chairman of a new managing committee, with Frederick Holt as vice chairman, and Louis P. Lochner as secretary.

With the appointment of a new leader came a new rumpus. A number of delegates, headed by Mrs. Inez Milholland Boissevain, New York suffragist, scoffed at the appointment of the Chicago pastor. Mrs. Boissevain demanded to know when democratic control had been abandoned and autocratic leadership under Dr. Charles F. Aked of San Francisco and Rev. Jones substituted. It was this sort of thing, she said that had caused the trouble since the peace pilgrims left New York.

"I knew nothing of the appointment," replied Rev. Jones. "It was as much a surprise to me as to anyone else here."

The meeting ended in disorder with some of the delegates declaring that the Chicago minister had "grabbed" the leadership. Mrs. Boissevain refused to confirm or deny reports that she intends to abandon the expedition, but it is believed that she, with S. S. McClure and other influential delegates, are planning to quit in a body.

It was announced that the peace party will start for Copenhagen on Wednesday.

Appeals to Press.

Rev. Charles F. Aked of San Francisco, leader of the Ford "regulars" in the row that broke out aboard the peace ship, has called upon the press of America and other neutral countries to save the peace enterprise from disaster.

The former Rockefeller pastor made his plea to the correspondents after it was learned that Governor Hanna of North Dakota had quit the party in anger and that the new management was antagonizing Judge Ben E. Lindsey of Denver, one of the principal figures.

Aked admitted that quarreling among the delegates and mismanagement have nearly brought the peace voyage to the rocks. It was necessary, he said, to carry out the Ford program, despite the fact that Ford himself is returning to America. He said that by giving undivided support to the peace mission, the newspapers of neutral countries would win for it the respect of the belligerent countries and thereby assure the success of the peace program.

Swedes Adverse.

The Swedish newspapers, however, joined with the press of Norway in declaring the situation irreparable.

Meetings are being arranged here and a Swedish peace delegation will be obtained. But it is the consensus of opinion that the peace pilgrims will return to America after spending a few days at Copenhagen, without touching at The Hague.

Permanent Peace Committee.

The permanent peace committee, it seems certain, will be composed of William J. Bryan, Henry Ford, Miss Jane Addams, Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago, and Frederick Holt, provided they accept. It is believed this committee will be announced shortly after the party reaches Copenhagen and that the expedition will then turn toward America.

Gaston Plantiff, Ford's New York manager, who became director-in-chief after Ford sailed for home, admitted that he knows more about automobiles than about bringing the boys out of the trenches. But there has been a marked tightening up on delegates' expense accounts since the New York automobile man took charge.

Plantiff's first announcement that he would be compelled to repudiate all meetings not specifically authorized by the executive committee, set him at odds with Judge Lindsey. The judge had obtained Ford's approval for meetings in the interest of war orphans. He said today that he would proceed with the meetings despite the announcement from the new management.

Why Hanna Quit.

Governor Hanna quit the party, alleging that the Ford lieutenants were placing him in an embarrassing position by misrepresenting the purpose of interviews he had with Norwegian officials. He obtained these interviews because of his position as executive of an American state and objected when Ford leaders told Norwegian newspapermen he was interesting the officials in peace propaganda.

The Swedish newspapers are full of articles lauding Ford, but denouncing correspondents attached to the party, alleging they are responsible for the dissensions. The Dagbladet seriously informed its readers that a reporter pushed his way into Ford's room at Christiania Thursday with a pistol. This, the Dagbladet added, probably frightened Ford so badly that he decided to return to America.
