

DOUBLE CELEBRATION AT C. H. WARNER HOME CHRISTMAS

From Wednesday's Daily.

One of the largest family reunions of the holiday season was that held at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Warner, Maple Leaf farm, west of this city, when all the children and grandchildren gathered to celebrate Christmas, as well as the sixty-second birthday anniversary of Mr. Warner. The company arrived Christmas eve and spent Saturday and Sunday in a joyous reunion, and the event will be long remembered by every member of the family at the opportunity of meeting together and enjoying the pleasures and joy of the happy holiday time. A feast fit for a king was served Christmas day, and everyone did ample justice to the bounteous array of good things provided for them. Those who participated in the reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Warner and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Waga and niece, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Howard and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Terryberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wetenskap and family, F. M. Warner, Grandma Wiles and daughter, Miss Isabel, and Mr. Park Burns of Whiting, Iowa, who is a guest at the Terryberry home near Murray.

MRS. HENRY MAUZY ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF HER DAUGHTER

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Henry Mauzy entertained in a very pleasing manner at her home in honor of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Todd, of Kearney, who, with her family are spending the holidays in this city. The affair was in the nature of a Kensington, and the ladies, some twenty-five in number, spent the time very pleasantly in their sewing and visiting with the guest of honor in renewing their friendship, and the occasion was one filled with the rarest of pleasure to all who were fortunate enough to be present. The Mauzy home was very prettily arranged for the event in the Christmas decorations of red and green, while the holly branches added a pleasing touch to the decorative scheme. During the afternoon the guests were entertained by a most delightful reading by Mrs. William Baird, which was thoroughly enjoyed, as was also the piano selections given by Misses Elizabeth Beeson and Marion Mauzy. At a suitable hour a delectable luncheon was served by Miss Beeson and Miss Mauzy, which was a most enjoyable feature of the afternoon of delight, and late in the afternoon the guests departed homeward, expressing their pleasure at being able to enjoy the pleasant visit with Mrs. Todd and the delightful hospitality afforded them.

THE ELKS HELD SPLENDID MEETING LAST EVENING

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening the members of Platts-mouth lodge No. 739, B. P. O. E., held a splendid meeting at their lodge rooms and a very large attendance was present to enjoy the pleasures of the evening. District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Clyde E. Adams, of Nebraska City, was present to meet with the lodge, it being his first official visit to the lodge here, and he was well pleased with the showing of the order in this city. Charles Tigner of Murray was inducted into the mysteries of the order at this meeting and antlered in the proper manner that will insure him being a full-fledged member of the order. Mr. Adams was accompanied on his visit here by Hon. H. H. Bartling of Nebraska City, and it was a very pleasant occasion for the friends of the ex-senator from this district that they were able to meet him and enjoy a few hours' visit. At the close of the session of the lodge a very much enjoyed luncheon was served, to which all did ample justice.

Enjoys a Delightful Time.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last evening a jolly party assembled at the home of John Richardson, at the ferry, and enjoyed the evening very pleasantly at a big fish dinner in which the choicest of the finny tribe were served in a most appetizing manner that was fully appreciated by the members of the party. The guests who were present were: Robert Andrews of Langdon, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Andrews and Mr. William Ferguson.

Suffering From Infected Finger.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Andrew Dill has for the past few days been nursing a very sore hand as the result of an infected finger on the left hand, and the aged gentleman has been suffering a great deal from the affliction, but is feeling a little better at present.

PLEASANT GATHERING AT THE M'MAKEN HOME ON CHRISTMAS DAY

From Wednesday's Daily.

One of the pleasant Christmas home gatherings which was held in this city was at the hospitable home of J. H. McMaken and family, in the north part of the city, where the entire family were entertained for the day and where a bounteous feast of the many good things was served to add to the pleasures and merriment of the glad Christmas season. It had been some time since the family had been able to meet together and the occasion was one of the rarest enjoyment to everyone. Those who were present to take part in the pleasant event were: Edward McMaken, wife and daughter of Sheridan, Wyoming; Walter Scott and wife and son, Glen, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Baylor and two little sons, Mrs. Eva Reece and son, Guy, and Mr. Fred Arn of Omaha. This gathering will be one of fond remembrance to the members of the family, and the delightful hospitality afforded them by Mr. McMaken and family added very much to the Christmas cheer.

THE TRADE EXHIBIT FAVORABLE TO JOURNAL'S SUGGESTION

From Wednesday's Daily.

The suggestion which was made in the Journal some few days ago as to a retailers' co-operative sales day among the business men of Platts-mouth has been reprinted in the Omaha Trade Exhibit, one of the leading organs of the retailers of Nebraska, and has met with warm approval in a number of different towns of the state where the proposition seems to have interested a number of the leading merchants. There has been several of the business men of this city who have expressed their approval of the idea of holding the sales day or perhaps several of them, and the matter will in all probability be discussed at further length by the business men of the city in order to secure an expression from the leading merchants as to their opinion of the question of the special sales days.

L. W. LORENZ HAS MOVED INTO HIS NEW HOME

From Wednesday's Daily.

L. W. Lorenz, the Sixth street merchant, has moved into his fine new residence on Elm street, which has just been completed, and his family are getting settled in the beautiful new home, which has been erected in a manner that will add to their pleasure and comfort, and there has been nothing omitted to make it complete in every way. The residence property on North Eighth street, just vacated by Mr. Lorenz, has been rented by Fred Hirz and family, who will occupy it in the future.

REUNION OF PLATTSMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL CLASS

From Wednesday's Daily.

The class of the Platts-mouth High school of 1912 held a very pleasant reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald on Monday evening, December 27th, as the guests of Miss Opal Fitzgerald, one of the members of the class. The efforts of Rue Frans of Union was largely responsible for the holding of the reunion, and it was with regret that sickness in his family prevented him from attending and taking part in the meeting. A temporary organization was secured by the selecting of Elmer Frans as temporary chairman, and the following permanent organization was secured:

President—Rue Frans.

Vice President—Miss Opal Fitzgerald.

Treasurer—Elmer Hallstrom.

Secretary—Miss Edna Shopp.

The plans for the meeting next year were discussed and arranged for and the original class prophecy of 1912 was read and a number of the forecasts were found to have come true. There were several letters read from members of the class who were unable to be present, and a great deal of enthusiasm and hope for the success of the organization expressed. During the evening some very pleasing music was given on the Victrola, which had been donated by J. W. Crabb for the occasion. At a suitable hour a most delightful two-course supper was served by Misses Margaret Scotten and Marie Fitzgerald. Those who were in attendance were: Misses Opal Fitzgerald, Golda Noble Dorothy Britz, Barbara Clement, Alna Holly, Florence Rummel, Edna Shopp, Mrs. A. W. Propst, Messrs. Everett Ward, Guy Wiles, Elmer Frans, Lester Dalton and Dean Cummins.

W. P. COOK IS WEARING A VERY PLEASANT SMILE

From Wednesday's Daily.

W. P. Cook is wearing a most pleasing smile the last few days as the result of a message received here announcing the fact that he is again a proud grandfather, as a fine new son and heir was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Gluck at Malmo, Neb., Monday. Mrs. Gluck is a daughter of Mr. Cook and the friends of the family will be pleased to learn that the mother and little one are doing nicely and Grandpa Cook will soon be back in normal condition from the joyful effects of the pleasing news.

Card of Thanks.

As the glorious Christmas time is past, we desire to thank the Social Workers for their generous remembrance. How nice it is to see their kind faces, to hear their tender voices. We also desire to thank Mrs. Asbury Jacks for her kindness and trust they may all have a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker.

Receives a Belated Present.

From Wednesday's Daily.

This morning J. H. McMaken received a rather belated Christmas present, but one that was thoroughly appreciated, in the shape of a barrel of oysters in the shell just as they came from the depths of the waters along the Atlantic coast, and which were sent him by Jesse Scott from Covalt, Virginia, and it is needless to say they will prove a rare treat to the McMaken family.

Principal Business Houses Close.

On Saturday afternoon, New Year's day, the principal business houses of the city will be closed in the afternoon to allow the owners and employees an opportunity to enjoy the day as they may desire. The postoffice, as well as the banks of the city, will also be closed on this occasion.

A. BAXTER SMITH DOING NICELY AT THE HOSPITAL

A. Baxter Smith of this city who is at the Presbyterian hospital in Omaha where he has been for the past few days is reported as doing nicely. Mr. Smith has not been in the best of health for some time and for years has suffered more or less annoyance as the result of an injury received while working and it was thought best to have the operation performed at this time to afford him permanent relief. It is to be hoped that the operation may be found to be helpful to the permanent recovery of Mr. Smith.

MOVEMENT IS MADE FOR A MUCH CLEANER CITY

The new ordinance which is proposed by the city to cover the throwing of waste matter and rubbish in the streets and alleys of the city is a move in the right direction and is a move that should have the hearty cooperation of every citizen. The movement has been started largely through the efforts of Chief of Police Barclay, who has started a movement for a cleaner city, and his efforts have already resulted in a great deal of good in checking the habit of throwing rubbish in the alleys and streets, regardless of the looks of the thoroughfares or the effect that it might have on the health of the community. It is proposed to have the different property owners put out garbage cans in the rear of their buildings, either individually or by having two or three in a block join in the purchasing of these cans, and when full the city will have the contents hauled away to the city dumping grounds. This will have a good effect in keeping the rear of the buildings in better shape and not allow them to become an eyesore to the public and will tend toward a more healthful condition of affairs. The habit that many have of throwing waste paper on the streets is another thing that should be looked after by the citizens and the paper placed in some place where it will not blow around and litter up the streets. It is just as easy for everyone to do their part toward keeping the streets clean if they only will get the habit.

ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Methodist Sunday school of this city last evening held their annual election of officers at the close of the regular mid-week prayer meeting at the church, as well as reviewing the work of the year. This school is placed on the principal of the graded school and each class and department supplied with graded lessons on the study of the bible. It numbers something over 500 in all departments and the officers and teachers in number exceed that of the public schools of the city. The attendance, as shown in the report, was very flattering and the interest taken by the teachers and the members of the different classes proved to be most pleasing.

The officers selected were as follows: General superintendent, C. C. Wescott; adult department, R. D. Dalton; secretary, E. C. Hill; junior, Mrs. R. B. Hayes; primary, Mrs. Ed Roman; beginners, Miss Leona Brady; recording secretary, Maldon Brown; enrolling secretary, Pelen Hadraha; treasurer, H. H. Cotton; librarian, Vernon Vroman; assistant librarian, Charles Carlson; chorister, Mrs. Ed Roman; organist, Mrs. Della Frans; doorkeeper, George Becker; superintendent home department, Mrs. G. A. Kaffenberger; cradle roll, Mrs. F. R. Gobelman; assistants, Mrs. Emma Pease and Miss Rainey; birthdays, Miss Margaret Mape; assistant primary, Miss Della Frans; assistant junior, Miss Ruth Roman.

The following teachers were selected: A. L. Tidd, Mrs. L. L. Porter, Mrs. Will Howland, E. H. Wescott, Mrs. C. C. Wescott, Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, Mrs. E. H. Wescott, E. C. Hill, Mrs. Thomas McCarty, Miss Flossie Bute, Mrs. E. C. Hill, A. O. Eggenberger, Mrs. C. E. Babbitt, Mrs. C. E. Howe, Miss Marie Bookmeyer, Mrs. Nellie Carson, Mrs. Hugh Cecil, Mrs. L. V. Copenhaver, John Nefus, Mrs. G. H. Clossen, Mrs. J. V. Hatt, Miss Herma Windham, Miss Ina Dalton, Miss Ellen Windham, Miss Martha McCrary, Miss Elizabeth Kerr, Miss Alice Tuey and Miss Leona Brady.

FETZER & CO. SELL ALL THEIR OLD STOCK

Will Replace Their Stock With All Up-to-Date and Stylish Footwear for the Spring.

Today J. J. Shapiro, representing the Stevens Mercantile Co., was in the city to close the deal whereby he purchases the entire portion of the stock of shoes of the Fetzer Shoe Co., which have been carried for any length of time, and which includes a large amount of fine footwear. The sale of this portion of their stock to Mr. Shapiro, will permit the Fetzer company to enter in the new spring stock with everything of the newest and most up-to-date styles, and their patrons who have found dealing with this firm a rare pleasure in the past will be pleased to learn that they will be able to offer an even larger and more complete line of fine footwear in the future.

There will not be a pair of out-of-date shoes in the store when the opening of the spring season takes place, and the Chicago company can feel that they are securing a good bargain in the line of goods they have purchased, a greater part of which are of the best and leading lines of goods on the market today. While in the city Mr. Shapiro closed the deal for the purchase of the stocks of several of the other stores of the city, but the largest transaction was that of the Fetzer stock.

A GREAT SHOW COMING TO THE PARMELE FRIDAY, JANUARY 7

At the Parmele theater Friday, January 7, Selwyn & Company will present "Under Cover", an exciting up-to-the-minute melodrama of the smart set, the secret and translated smuggling in four acts, by Roi Cooper Megrue. "Under Cover" comes here direct from a record run of one year at the Cort theater, New York. It also attracted capacity audiences of delighted playgoers in both Boston and Chicago for more than six months. "Under Cover" tells the story of a smuggled necklace, valued at $200,000, and the attempts of the secret service officials to fasten the evasion of the payment of duty upon the smugglers. It is replete with laughter and thrills and the biggest surprise of all comes at the final curtain. It is essential, in the advance detailing of the plot, that this point be withheld, for in the startling denouement it affords is to be found one of the most widely discussed theatrical novelties of recent seasons. Selwyn & Company are sending a characteristically competent company to interpret "Under Cover," and playgoers are assured of a really delightful treat.

B. L. KIRKHAM CALLED HOME ON A SAD MISSION

Barl L. Kirkham of Belle Fourche, S. D., who is here to attend the funeral of his mother, the late Mrs. Henry Kirkham, was a caller for a few minutes yesterday at the Journal office to chat with the editor. Mr. Kirkham is the publisher of the Northwest Post at Belle Fourche, which he has been interested in since leaving this city some twelve years ago, in company with R. O. Fellows, and they have met with much success and have one of the leading papers in their section of South Dakota. Mr. Kirkham, called here by the very sad mission as he was, has not been able to meet his old friends, but in the short time that he has been in the city has noticed the wonderful improvement that has been made in the business section of the city. Mr. Kirkham states that his family, as well as that of Mr. Fellows, are enjoying the best of health and that Rush is busy as postmaster in his home town, and has retired from the publication of the Post.

DAN CUPID "PUTS THE FIXINS" TO UNION PARTIES

Our neighboring town of Union seems to have been swept by an invasion of Dan Cupid, judging from the licenses secured in Omaha this week. Three of the popular and best known young people of that place having linked their destinies in the metropolis. Henry A. Becker was wedded to Miss Merle Mullis of Dunbar, while Mr. Earl Wolf and Miss Hazel Frans, both of Union, were joined in wedlock. Mr. Becker is well known in this city, where he resided for a time, as the manager of the Ford agency here, and is a splendid young man and a son of A. L. Becker, one of the leading residents of Union. He is also a nephew of Mrs. Mary B. Allison of this city. The young people will all make their homes in and near Union, as Mr. Wolf is one of the prosperous farmers of Liberty precinct, and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Frans, residing west of Union.
