"WATCH PARTY" AT THE JACOB MEISINGER HOME

Friday evening there was held a very jolly old-time "watch party" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mei-Mr. Meisinger gathered to help observe the event in a fitting manner, and it is needless to say that the evening was spent in the greatest of enjoyment with pinochle as the chief amusement of the evening. Those taking part in the battle were: Messrs. John McNurlin, A F. Seybert and Mr. Meisinger, and they played a great many games of pincohle, but the names of the winners have not been made public. At the midnight hour the party were served with a splendid lunch by Mrs says it was sure some "feed."
