K. S. MASK BALL A VERY SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The mask ball given Saturday evening at the K. S. Hall on West Locust street was one of the most successful that has been held in this city and was quite largely attended, both by the jolly maskers as well as the interested spectators, and for several hours the merry dance was carried on, where clowns and Topseys, with the more elaborately dressed mingled in a most delightful social time. The Plattsmouth orchestra, under the direction of Tom Svoboda, furnished the music for the event and added very much to the pleasure of the evening with their delightful selections. The judges who were selected for the occasion were ushered to the stage as the strains of the grand march were struck up, and the maskers marched before the committee to await the award of the prizes. Those who won the prizes were: First gentleman's, Joe Smitana; first ladies, Frank Crejcie; poorest gentleman's, D. Hutson; poorest ladie, Miss Clara Goos; comical, Roy Holly. After the unmasking the floor was jammed to its utmost capacity by the dancers until a late hour and one of the most pleasant events of the season enjoyed and throughout the evening the spirit of jollity and fun were re-eminent and nothing seemed to mar the delights of the occasion and the members of the society giving the ball saw that everyone was treated royally and given the fullest opportunity of enjoying themselves.

GERMANY BEGINNING TO WEAR OUT, SAYS FRENCH COMMANDER

Paris, Jan. 9.—A dispatch to the Matin from Athens says that the Patris prints a statement made by General Joffre to Mr. Fourgeres, director of the French school at Athens, in which General Joffre said: "We have every reason to be sure of final victory. We are beginning to get proofs which show beyond all doubt that German power is waning. The signs and proofs relate more particularly to the morale of the German army. The quality and material condition of the troops permit us to conclude that our enemy is now entering upon a period of exhaustion. Germany is beginning to wear out. That fact is certain, but, of course, it does not mean that it is already worn out and we will have a great effort to make, but with the admirable endurance of our army and the perseverance of the whole French nation and of our allies, we are sure of final triumph."

THE GREATEST STORY THAT WAS EVER TOLD.

But thou, Bethlehem, Ephrath, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me, that is to be ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.—Micah v. 2.

opened their treasurers, they presented unto him gifts; gold and frankincense, and myrrh.—Matthew ii, 1-11.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them: Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you;

more blessed to give than to receive.—Acts xx, 35.

EAGLE Beacon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Price are both confined to the house with a seige of the gripe.

Harry Trunkenbolz of Cadams, Neb. arrived here the first of the week for an extended visit with relatives.

"Shorty" Armstrong, a printer of the old school, landed in town Saturday and assisted a couple of days at the Beacon office.

Miss Abbie Judkins returned to her home at Hastings, Neb., to resume her duties as teacher in the public school at that place.

We are sorry to report at this writing that the condition of T. R. Crabtree, who has been bed-fast for the past few months, is very serious, and that he is growing weaker each day.

Noble Taylor returned to Eagle Thursday after having visited with friends southeast of town for the past three weeks. We are glad to report that he has about recovered from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Wulf returned home Wednesday of last week from Rochester, Minn., at which place Mrs. Wulf has been receiving medical treatment. We are glad to report that her condition is much improved.

Mrs. A. H. Vanlandingham is recovering from a severe attack of the gripe which has been keeping her bed-fast for the past few days. Mrs. J. T. Lyell has also been laid up with the same disease, but is better at this writing.

We hear George Frisbee has sold his farm to a banker in Kansas whose name we have not learned. Although George has not decided yet just what he will do, Mrs. Frisbee has gone to town and will live in her father's house during his absence to California, so as to help the children in school. We are sorry to see this family leave our community but the good will of all goes with them.

Mrs. A. Dove Asch of Murray was in the city today looking after some trading with the merchants for a few hours.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. To the General Public

The Wagner Restaurant and Bakery is starting in on its fourth year of successful business. From an experimental undertaking this business has developed into the largest business of its kind in the city. We take this method of assuring the general public of our high appreciation of their patronage, and it will be our aim in the future, as it has been in the past, to live up to our slogan, which we adopted at the beginning

"Everything Good to Eat!"

We will now be prepared to handle the large volume of business you have honored us with in better shape than before, and our efforts shall be to make this establishment a credit to the city of Plattsmouth—the city we all love and should never tire of boosting to make the best of its class in the state. Again thanking you for your liberal patronage and wishing you only happiness and success for the year, we beg to remain

Very Respectfully Yours,

Fred Wagner

The Dead Sea.

The daily average of 6,500,000 tons of water is received into the Dead sea from the Jordan. There is no outlet, and the level is kept down by evaporation only, which is very rapid because of the intense heat, the dry atmosphere and the dry winds.

No Longer Romantic.

"Where is that romantic old mill that I used to paint?" "So many artists came to paint that mill," explained the owner, "that I got ashamed of its tumbledown appearance and repaired it."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Ropes of Sand.

At the seaside a girl may appear to be making ropes of sand, but they are usually strong enough to hold some fool man as long as she wants to hold him.—Florida Times-Union.

It's a good thing our buried hopes don't need tombstones or the supply would run mighty short.—New York Times.

It's only the paper line that will be found at the Journal office, but this line will be found complete. Come in and see.

the king, behold there came wise men from the East of Jerusalem.

Saying, where is he that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen his start in the East and are come to worship him.

When Herod, the king, heard these things he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

And they said unto him, in Bethlehem of Judea; for thus it is written of the prophet:

And thou Bethlehem in the land of Judah, thou art not the least among the princes of Judah, for out of thee shall come a governor that shall rule my people Israel.

And he sent them to Bethlehem. * * * When they had heard the king they departed; and lo, the star which they saw in the East went before them, till it stood over where the young child was.

When they saw the star they rejoiced with exceeding joy.

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and fell down and worshipped him; and when they had ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.—Luke ii, 8-14.

And they brought young children to him that he should teach them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

And when Jesus saw it he was much displeased, and said unto them: Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God.

And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.—Mark x, 13, 14, 16.

The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and restoring of sight to the blind, to set at iv, 18.

I have showed you all things, how that, so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is
