

THE NEBRASKA GUARDS TENDER A FAREWELL

Woodman Circle Are Delightfully Entertained at the Home of Mrs. M. E. Manspeaker.

From Saturday's Daily.
Last evening the members of the Nebraska Guards, the drill team of the Woodman Circle, together with the officers of the lodge, assembled at the home of Mrs. M. E. Manspeaker, captain of the drill team, where they proceeded to tender a most complete surprise to Mrs. V. Zucker, one of the members of the team, who is to leave them in a very few days. The guest of honor was not allowed to secure an intimation of what was planned and it was not until reaching the Manspeaker home that she found the pleasant surprise awaiting her as a farewell from her associates in the Woodman Circle.

The evening was spent very pleasantly in enjoying the pleasant time prepared by the hostess for the members of the order, and while all regretted the fact that they were to lose their co-worker, still they felt that it was a most delightful event. During the evening several pleasing instrumental numbers were given by Mrs. Jesse Brady, while Mesdames Frank Ohm and E. G. Shallenbarger and Misses Teresa Droegge and Essie Buttery added very much to the pleasures of the occasion by several vocal selections. The rooms of the Manspeaker home were very prettily arranged with decorations of ferns and red carnations, which proved a most beautiful setting for the happy event. At a suitable hour a very pleasing three-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Smith, Miss Teresa Droegge and Mrs. R. A. Bates, while Mrs. Manspeaker was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. Joseph Droegge.

During the course of the evening Mrs. J. E. McDaniel, in behalf of the drill team, presented Mrs. Zucker with a beautiful string of pearls as a token of the esteem and affection in which she was held by her fellow members in the order, and the presentation speech was one that made a deep impression upon everyone, as it told of the kindly feeling that prevailed among the different members of the lodge. Mrs. Zucker responded briefly, expressing her appreciation of the feeling that had prompted the gift and the regret at leaving the city and the many kind friends.

It was a late hour when the ladies departed homeward, expressing their pleasure at the delightful hospitality afforded them and wishing the guest of honor success in her new home.

Theodore Stuckland and wife returned this morning from Watson, Missouri, where they were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Joseph Hoy, the mother of Mrs. Stuckland, which was held yesterday afternoon.

A Tip

on the Sweater Coat proposition—If you need a sweater coat now is the time to buy it. Perhaps the one you have will last this winter and you are going to wait until next fall to buy another, but say do you know that some of the best colors are off the market now and the few fast colors that are still with us have advanced considerable in price? Hence the advisability of buying that sweater coat now.

H. C. CREAMER FIRST REPUBLICAN FILE FOR COMMISSIONER

From Saturday's Daily.
This afternoon Henry C. Creamer of Murray entered the political lists as a candidate for county commissioner in the first district, having filed as republican candidate for that position. Mr. Creamer is the first of his political faith to file for this office and will at once start in to get out after the republican voters for the April primary. Mr. Creamer is a prominent farmer residing near Murray and quite well known throughout this section of the county.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' BASKET BALL TEAM DEFEATS PAPILLION

From Saturday's Daily.
The Plattsmouth high school girls' basket ball team last evening gave an exhibition of this pastime which demonstrated very clearly that they are on the job when it comes to the playing of the game and as the result of their work against the Papillion high school girls' they were victorious by a score of 12 to 2. The crowd in attendance was quite large at the roller rink to take in the game and the enthusiasm of the spectators was most intense as the young ladies battled for supremacy on the field and the Plattsmouth girls certainly received loyal support from their schoolmates and friends. The girls' team of the school here has been rather overshadowed by the remarkable showing of the boys' team, but nevertheless the young ladies have kept right on with their work and practices and are now getting into the proper form. It has been a long time since the city schools were represented in the basket ball work by as capable an aggregation as they have this year and it both the boys' and girls' team the school has every reason to be proud of their players. The Papillion girls last evening were clearly outclassed and from the start until the last basket was thrown the local girls held the sign on the visitors' and held them completely at their mercy. This is the third game for the girls' team this year and the first victory and tends to show that they are improving in their form and playing. They were defeated earlier in the season by Louisville and Nebraska City.

The line-up of the two teams was as follows:

Plattsmouth—Bintner center; Chambers, guard; Snyder, guard; Moore, forward; Schulhof, forward; Sutter, sub-center.

Papillion—Harder, center; Garnlich, guard; Lutter, guard; Schmitz, forward; Schoedert, forward; Tschirren-Ramge, sub-center.

Field Goals—Papillion: Schmitz, one; Tschirren, one. Plattsmouth: Bintner, one; Schulhof, three.

The sum of $20 was realized from the game, which is the best record so far this year.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED AT NEHAWKA

Mr. Louie W. Ross and Miss Agnes Mary Anderson Married at Home of the Bride's Parents.

From Saturday's Daily.
A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Anderson, at 8 o'clock last Saturday evening. The contracting parties were Miss Agnes Mary Anderson and Mr. Louis W. Ross. Rev. J. W. Hilsley, A. M., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, was the officiating clergyman who tied the nuptial knot pronouncing the ceremony which united the lives of these estimable young people of our community. The wedding was a quiet one witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends, promptly at 8 o'clock the young people took their places and the minister, with an impressive yet simple and exceedingly pretty ring ceremony, made them man and wife. Mr. Martin Ross acted as best man and Miss Ethel Anderson as bridesmaid, while little Bernice Stander of Louisville held the ring during part of the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in white, while the groom wore the conventional black.

After congratulations nice refreshments were served. After an evening most pleasantly passed in a social manner the groom took his prize to the midnight train and left for Kansas, where they will enjoy their honeymoon and visit with the bride's relatives.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Anderson. She is a young lady with many graces of mind and person, who is capable of filling the home she will adorn with happiness and will prove to be truly a helpmate and companion by the husband she has chosen to honor with her hand.

The groom is from one of our best families, and by those who know him in this community, he is considered one of the substantial and coming young men of the county, who will make his mark as a worthy son of honorable parents. The congratulations on the happy event are numerous and this paper is greatly pleased on this occasion to add its hearty good wishes to those being so freely extended.—Nehawka News.

FRANK LIBERSHAL FILES FOR RE-NOMINATION FOR COUNTY CLERK

From Saturday's Daily.
County Clerk Frank J. Libershal who is just completing his first term in the office has announced his intention of entering the race at the forthcoming primaries as a candidate for the democratic nomination for this office. Mr. Libershal was appointed to the office of clerk by the commissioners on the resignation of D. C. Morgan in 1913, and was elected in the fall of 1914 to the office by a large majority and has given great satisfaction to the citizens all over the county by the manner in which the office has been conducted, and has made a great many friends since assuming office by his clever and business like methods of conducting the affairs of this department of the county. His experience in this office has well fitted him to handle the work and the voters generally feel that the affairs are in charge of a perfectly competent man in Mr. Libershal, and one that would be hard to replace. As this is his first term there is little doubt that the voters will reward his service by a re-election to the clerkship.

The sum of $20 was realized from the game, which is the best record so far this year.

FRED ENGELKEMEIR VERY LOW AND HIS RECOVERY DOUBTFUL

From Saturday's Daily.
The condition of Fred Engelkemeir in this city is quite serious and his family and friends are very apprehensive of the outcome of his illness and those residing at a distance have been summoned to his bedside. His son, August Engelkemeir, jr., is here and his oldest daughter, who resides in Oklahoma, is expected here to visit her father. Mr. Engelkemeir has been in very poor health for the last two years and his condition seems to be growing more serious each day until all hopes of his recovery seem almost out of question.

FORMER RESIDENT, RECENTLY FROM BERLIN, GERMANY, HERE

From Saturday's Daily.
William A. Derrick, for a number of years a resident of this city, but who for the past several years has been living at Berlin, Germany, arrived in this city this morning for a short visit here with his old friends, and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Straight. Mr. Derrick, when a resident here, was the city editor of the Nebraska Herald, and in addition to his newspaper work found time to take a great interest in music and was one of the prominent vocalists of the city. Leaving here something like twenty-eight years ago, he located at Omaha, where he continued his newspaper work for four years and then moved to Chicago, where he started his musical career and studio there, as well as abroad, and later made his permanent home in Berlin, studying music, and later entering into business in that city, but the war made it necessary last March for him to return to America and since then he has been visiting in this country, and for the last few months in Omaha with friends. It is a great pleasure for his friends here to meet Mr. Derrick again and to know that he is getting along so nicely. Tomorrow morning he will give a solo at the First Presbyterian church, "In Heavenly Love Abiding," by Loewe, and his old friends will be very much pleased to have the opportunity of hearing his wonderful voice in this beautiful song.

Petition to Sell Real Estate.

From Saturday's Daily.
A petition has been filed in the district court in the matter of the guardianship estate of Helen Marie Gorder and Dorothy C. Gorder, minor children and heirs of Henrietta Gorder, deceased, in which the guardian, Fred H. Gorder, asks the permission of the court to sell real estate belonging to the heirs in order that the money may be more profitably invested.

MANAGER PETERSEN DECIDES TO REARRANGE PROGRAM

From Saturday's Daily.
Manager Charles Petersen of the Gem theater has decided to rearrange his program of pictures to serve the best interests of his patrons and will accordingly start in on Monday with Mutual programs the first part of the week, and the first shown will be a Gamout comedy, with Alice Dovey in the leading role, and these Mutual masterpieces will be shown on Tuesday and Wednesday, while on Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be given the Universal program which will be of the very best. This arrangement should be found very satisfactory to the general run of the theater-goers and shows that the manager is looking after the interests of his patrons.

P. J. VALLERY DOWN TOWN FOR FIRST TIME IN THREE WEEKS

From Saturday's Daily.
This morning P. J. Vallery was down town visiting with friends and enjoying his first trip out in three weeks, as he has been confined to his home suffering from a very severe attack of grippe, as well as a touch of pneumonia, and the experience has been one that has been decidedly uncomfortable for Mr. Vallery and he states that the next time he gets sick it will be with something else, as he thinks he not only had the grippe, but a whole suitcase of ills and afflictions. His friends were mighty well pleased to see that he had come out of his illness in such fine shape and trust that he may avoid further illness this winter.

A STRANGER GETS IN BAD SATURDAY AFTERNOON

After Visiting Several Stores and Examining Different Articles, Slips a Handbag From Schmidtman's.

Saturday afternoon a couple of strangers arrived in the city, and one of these, a man named Cox, is languishing in the county jail as a guest of Sheriff Quinton, as a result of his not being able to keep his hands off of other people's property.

It would seem that the man Cox visited a number of stores pricing articles of different kinds and visiting the clothing stores, where he tried on several suits of clothes, but did not get away with anything, so far as reported. His visit at the store of William Schmidtman, however, proved his undoing, and it was for swiping a handbag from this establishment that he is now resting in jail.

At the time Cox visited the Schmidtman store, about 5 o'clock, the owner was out in the alley fitting on a harness for one of his customers and his young son, George, was in charge of the store, and as Cox came in he noticed him take a handbag from the rack and place it near the door as George came up to wait on him. The man inquired as to securing some repairs to a bridle, but after a few questions as to what was needed the man left and said he would look up the matter later. As he left the store, however, he was seen to take the handbag, and George at once reported this to his father, who, however, thought perhaps the boy had been mistaken and that the man had his own grip with him, but later, on investigation, it was found that the handbag was missing and a search was started for the slick-fingered gentleman.

Will and Carl Schmidtman then started out to visit the hotels of the city to see if it were possible to locate anything of the missing grip and the search of Will was rewarded by finding the handbag at the Hotel Riley, where it had been left. He at once returned the grip to the store and the boys then set out to nab the man who had stolen the bag. He returned to the hotel shortly after this and inquired for his bag, and Carl Schmidtman told him that he had taken it by mistake and that he could have it by coming with him, and Cox and his friend started out with the two Schmidtman boys and were finally decoyed to the store, where the bag was identified by Cox and he was then placed under arrest by the police and placed in the county jail.

This morning Cox was brought before Justice Archer and a complaint for stealing the grip lodged against him, and to the charge he entered a plea of guilty and a sentence of thirty days in jail was imposed on him by the court, as he was unable to pay a fine, and he was turned over to Sheriff Quinton to be cared for. Cox stated that he came here from Ottumwa, Iowa, where he had been in search of a job as a "bell hop" in a hotel, but being unable to secure it was en route to Omaha when he stopped here to look over the prospects for a job, and could give no reason for his having committed the act that he had and was willing to throw himself on the mercy of the court. He stated that he was only 19 years of age.

The second of the men was not placed under arrest, as there was no evidence that he had done anything out of the way and he was not held. The baggage of Cox revealed a great many different articles of all kinds, including several suits of clothes, a camera and a number of records for a phonograph, but it is not known whether or not these were stolen.

METHODIST REVIVAL AT UNION GOING ON VERY NICELY

From Saturday's Daily.
Rev. F. M. Druliner, who has been conducting the meetings at Union in the interest of the revival in the Methodist church there, came up this morning to look after his charge here over Sunday. The meetings at Union have been a great success in every way, it is reported, and quite a number have been converted to Christianity through the efforts of Rev. Druliner. The gospel teams from this city have been assisting at the meetings at Union on Sundays when the pastor has been compelled to stay here to look after his church work. The result has proven a great encouragement to the church in that place and will be continued for a time. Rev. Druliner is showing the strain of his long work in this line, as he has been on the jump since the first of November, when the meetings were opened in this city.

BUT ONE OR TWO ARE AFFLICTED WITH CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

From Saturday's Daily.
During the past week or ten days there has been a great many reports circulated in the city as to the number of cases of contagious diseases that were prevailing in the city, and it is with pleasure that we can take this opportunity of correcting the wrong impression that so many have gained as to the extent that any contagious disease has made progress in this city. There is on file in the office of the city clerk only six cases, and these in only four families. Two of the cases in one family is diphtheria, while the other four cases are that of scarletina in a very mild form, which is nothing unusual in a town of this size, and with the energetic steps of the physicians and the city authorities to hold the maladies in quarantine, there is little chance of its getting started on spreading. Those who start the reports about the extent of these diseases should have investigated it further before spreading the report around and enlarging on it each time.

SIMILARITY IN THE SIZE OF FAMILIES OF BROTHER AND SISTERS

From Saturday's Daily.
It is not often in one family that there is such a similarity in the size of families as that which has occurred in the families of the children of the late George Sayles and wife, and with all their children there has been a striking and remarkable coincidence in the fact that in each of the families of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Sayles there are two girls and one boy. In the family of George R. Sayles of this city, Mrs. W. H. Seybert of Cullom, Mrs. Andrew Fudge of Covington, Virginia, and Mrs. Andrew Thomsen of Cedar Creek, there is the same ration of children prevailing, two girls and one boy. It is not often that such a remarkable condition exists in one family in this county at least.

The Gist of It.

"Last December I had a very severe cold and was nearly down sick in bed. I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a very few days until I was completely restored to health," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. If you would know the value of the remedy, ask any one who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.
