CONFERENCE IS HELD ON THE LUSITANIA

Secretary Lansing and Count von Bernstorff Discuss Latest Suggestion for Settlement.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Secretary Lansing had an engagement to confer again today with Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, over the controversy growing out of the sinking of the Lusitania. Germany's last proposal in the Lusitania negotiations having failed to satisfy President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, the ambassador, it was said, was to submit another tentative proposal for settlement, embodying the requirements of the United States.

The new proposal, after being considered by President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, is expected to be forwarded immediately to Berlin for approval or disapproval of the German government.

The United States, it was authoritatively stated today, would insist upon holding the German government to a "strict accountability" for the loss of American lives and desires that the Berlin government admit in effect, that it is liable, according to law, for lives of neutrals lost in the commission of an act against a vessel of the enemy.

Teutonic diplomatic circles still were optimistic today regarding the outcome despite the United States refusal to accept the last proposal.

CASS CAMP MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA INSTALL OFFICERS

Last evening the members of Cass camp No. 332, Modern Woodmen of America, held a most interesting session at their lodge rooms in the Woodmen building and to take part there was a very large attendance of the membership present and all had a most enjoyable time. The occasion was made the time for the installation of the newly elected officers and the following were inducted into the offices to which they had been elected:

- V. C.—John E. Schutz.
  - W. A.—A. F. Braun.
  - Banker—William Hassler.
  - Clerk—H. G. Goos.
  - Escort—T. J. Skoda.
  - Watchman—T. C. Kahoutek.
  - Sentry—G. W. Fahison.
  - Manager—George Lushinsky.
- The newly elected officers assuming their stations, the consolidation of the camps at Cedar Creek and Mynard with Cass camp was carried out and the new members received a cordial welcome from their future associates in woodcraft in this city. During the evening refreshments were served and a feeling of genuine good fellowship prevailed among those who had gathered for this happy occasion and a feeling of enthusiasm created for the future of the order here. Cigars were distributed among the boys and a real old-fashioned smoker enjoyed for several hours and despite the disagreeable weather the number in attendance was quite large. The Modern Woodmen have been very successful in this city with their lodge and in the most trying times have forged to the front and are now perhaps the largest single lodge of any order in the entire country. They are showing the proper spirit in boosting the art of woodcraft.

L. M. L. A., Notice!

The L. M. L. A. will meet in regular session tonight at their lodge rooms at 8 o'clock and will hold their installation of officers at this time. All members are requested to be present.

WM. OWENS, LA PLATTE, ARRESTED FOR PETIT-LARCENY

This morning William Owens, a young man, who stated his home was near La Platte, was arraigned in the county court before Judge Beeson, charged with petit larceny by the county attorney, and to this the young man, who seemed truly penitent, entered a plea of guilty, but considering the value of the goods taken and the apparent frankness of the young man, the fine was made as light as possible and placed at $1 and costs, amounting to $6.50, a part of which was paid, while the parents of the young man were notified of his misfortune and requested to come to his aid with the remainder of the fine in the case. The boy seems to be the victim of circumstances rather than being of a vicious nature, as he stated to the court that while 21 years of age he was scarcely able to read and write and that he had had a very poor opportunity of getting the knowledge that goes so much to make life a success.

THE BASKET BALL SPORT MORE INTERESTING THAN EVER

The prospects for one of the liveliest times in the entire basket ball season is in store for the lovers of this sport on Friday evening, when two games will be staged between the Louisville and Plattsmouth girls and the Nebraska City and Plattsmouth boys' teams, and this last contest will be on the best on the schedule of the local team as the Nebraska City team is one of the fastest in southwestern Nebraska and one that certainly should prove a good drawing card with the fast Plattsmouth bunch.

The showing that Plattsmouth made in the game here with the Council Bluffs team has been very encouraging, as the Iowa boys were supposed to be as good as any in the west, and their humiliation here was proof that the local high school team was all to the good in this line of sport, and their game with Nebraska City will show how they will be able to line up with the fast teams that will take part in the state tournament.

The girls' team is constantly improving and showing a spirit of "pep" that has won them their last game and they are desirous of recovering from Louisville for the defeat they sustained in that city several weeks ago.

JOLLY CULLOM CLUB MEETS WITH MR. AND MRS. BLOTZER, JR.

The Jolly Cullom club met this week at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blotzer, jr., two miles south of Cullom, and a most enjoyable time was spent in games, music and dancing. At the usual hour the baskets were turned inside out and the loads of good things to eat spread out in an array that would tempt the appetite of an epicurean while steaming hot coffee added to the pleasantness of the occasion. Those who were present to enjoy the event were: Adam Fornoff and family, W. H. Seybert and family, Henry Keil and family, Charles Keil and family, Harry Meisinger and family, W. J. Hicks and family, Mrs. Philip Tritsch and son, Ernest, and daughter, Miss Lizzie, Mr. and Mrs. Verdon Holden, Omaha; Mr. Holden, George Pick, Carl Sergun, Mrs. Blotzer, Sister, Amelia Rankie of South Bend, Lou Jordan, Gretna; Bals Meisinger, Clarence Busche, Ervin Meisinger, Cedar Creek; Mr. True and sons Chris and John and daughters, Lizzie and Sophia.

LADIES AUXILIARY IS ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. JOHN GORDER

A number of the members of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church wended their way to the pretty home of Mrs. John Gorder yesterday morning about 10 o'clock to participate in an all day session. Mrs. Mary Allison and Mrs. Gorder being the hostesses of the occasion. The ladies had come prepared to make rag rugs and the entire day was devoted to this particular art, and although considerable was accomplished in the making of rugs, the ladies derived much pleasure in their work. At the noon hour a most delicious dinner was served by the hostess, which was most thoroughly appreciated by the guests as they had in some manner acquired some very good appetites. In the afternoon the ladies continued to make rugs and also participated in various amusements which made this occasion most delightful to all. When the hour for departure drew near the ladies expressed their warmest thanks to the hostesses for the good times they had along with their work and went to their various homes hoping Mesdames Gorder and Allison will have another all day session in the very near future.

Smoke the "Exquiseto" 5c cigar. Manufactured by Herman Spies.
