Fred Lutz has been suffering with an infected hand for the past few days, the result of piercing his finger with a hedge thorn a few weeks ago, the effects of which he thought had worn away at the time the blood poisoning set in. He has experienced quite a serious time, but is now improving.

Our good friend "Scotty," proprietor of the Gayety Cafe, in Murray, says that everyone is entitled to their own opinion in regard to the great European war, but he well knows that he suffered more the past week with an ulcerated tooth, that Dr. Gilmore "yanked" out, than he has over the entire war. We believe he did, too.

Fred Kaffenberger of Eight Mile Grove, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, suffering from an abscess of the throat, is getting along nicely at this time, and improving slowly. Dr. Gilmore was called out to see him, and after opening the abscess, the patient began to show signs of improvement, even though he was in a very serious condition.

For Sale.

An extra good team of registered Percheron mares, both with foal. Also a stallion, 3 years old. Call or address, Chas. Countryman, Murray, Neb.

Some Old-Time Smokes.

The citizens of Murray have sure been enjoying an old-time smoker the past few days, owing to the discovery of some old-time cigars in the store of B. A. Root. The cigars were over eighteen years old, having been purchased by Mr. Root during the Spanish-American war, and the brand was named after navy officers, Dewey, Schley and Sampson, the pictures of all three gentlemen appearing on the box, and the stamp showed that they were eighteen years old.

A Miscellaneous Shower.

Mrs. T. W. Vallery and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Tilson, assisted by Mrs. Calton Snavely, gave a miscellaneous show in honor of Miss Maude Rusterholtz, at the beautiful farm home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Vallery last Saturday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and white and bells. Some excellent music was rendered by Miss Vera Vhoman and Miss Marjorie Vallery, which was appreciated by all present. Each guest was provided with paper and pencil and they were requested to draw a picture of the bride-to-be's future home, and the various artistic illustrations afforded a great deal of pleasure. The mock wedding was one of the main features on the afternoon's program, Majorie Vallery taking the part of the bridegroom, with the bride-to-be, and Mrs. Bertie Beckner taking the part of the pastor.

Many very beautiful and useful presents were left with the soon-coming bride. At the usual hour a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Grace Porter and Vera Vhoman and Majorie Vallery.

Among those to enjoy this happy occasion were: Misses Vivian and Adell Fitzpatrick, Vera Vhoman, Grace Porter, Thelma Rhoden, Majorie Vallery, Maude Rusterholtz, Helen and Marie Vallery, Mesdames Fritz Lutz, G. W. Rhoden, Nell Patterson, Alf. Gansmeyer, D. C. Rhoden, Blair Porter, Charles Tilson, Calton Snavely, Ray Davis, Louie Puls, John Durman, Glen Vallery, Allen Leonard, Thomas Tilson, Philip Hild, T. W. Vallery, Otto Puls, Steve Beckner, Glen Rhoden.

Settlement Made.

Joe Hathaway held an accident insurance policy in the American Accident company, and this week the adjuster arrived in Murray to complete a settlement with Mr. Hathaway for the injuries he received by one of his horses about three months ago. We have been informed that the matter was settled for the sum of $250. This seems like a very small amount for the payment of the expense and suffering caused by Mr. Hathaway's injuries, but owing to the conditions of the policy it was all that he could collect.

Library Notes.

The coffee served last Thursday was quite well attended, despite the cold day. There were seventeen present, seven of whom were men. The men folks did not bring their sewing, but they were there for the cats. The next one will be given by Mrs. Minford and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker, on Saturday afternoon. Saturday has been set aside for the library and will be called "Library Day." On this day there will always be "something doing" at the library.

A number of new books have been added to the association, and it is to be hoped that everyone will be a library member soon.

You can find books for all ages, both fiction and non-fiction, and to read them in a very profitable way to spend an afternoon and evening. Read aloud to the children. It will mean a great deal to them in their future. They will be more able to comprehend when they start to school.

Entertains in Honor of Daughter.

Mrs. William Brown, sr., entertained a number of friends at her home in honor of her daughter, Mrs. William Brown, jr., who has been visiting here from Canada. The social affair was in the nature of a Kensington, and those fortunate enough to be present were given a royal good time. The ladies present were: Mesdames W. G. Boedeker, T. J. Brendel, O. A. Davis, Vance Pitman, W. S. Smith, George Gilmore, Misses Pauline and Fay Oldham, Margie Walker and Mae Loughridge, and the guest of honor, Mrs. Will Brown.

LADIES OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH ENTERTAINED AT EGENBERGER HOME

The ladies of the St. John's Catholic church yesterday afternoon were entertained most charmingly at the beautiful L. B. Egenberger home by Mrs. Egenberger and Mrs. William Weber at an afternoon coffee and the occasion was one of great pleasure to all the ladies fortunate enough to be present. The meeting was most successful in every way and the attendance numbered some eighty-five ladies, who enjoyed to the utmost the delightful hospitality afforded them. The afternoon was spent in sewing, as almost all of the ladies had come prepared with their fancy work, and the plying of the busy needle served to pass the time very pleasantly and the delightful musical numbers contributed by Mrs. Eugene Setz, both vocal and instrumental, served to further heighten the pleasures of the occasion. At a suitable hour dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. L. B. Egenberger, jr., and Miss Helen Egenberger, which came as the climax of a most thoroughly enjoyable afternoon. It was late in the afternoon when the members of the party wended their way homeward, feeling that the occasion had been one of the greatest of pleasure.
