A GERMAN MAN-OF-WAR IS SUNK

Reported That the Vessel Struck a Mine in the Cattagat and Founder.

Copenhagen, Feb. 7.—(Via London, 2:56 a. m.)—A large German man-of-war has been sunk in the Cattagat between the island of Anhelt and the Swedish coast.

It is supposed the vessel struck a mine. Wireless calls for help were heard, but these after a time ceased. The Cattagat is a body of water lying between Denmark and Sweden through which vessels from the Baltic must pass to reach the Atlantic ocean. The island of Anhelt lies in the center of the Cattagat.

London, Feb. 7.—The British steamship Balgownie, 1,061 tons gross, has been sunk. The crew, with the exception of the second officer, was saved.

The Balgownie was 235 feet long, thirty feet beam and seventeen feet deep. The vessel was built in Aberdeen in 1880 and was owned by the General Steam Navigation company, Ltd., of London.

DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINED AT BRIDGE AT C. C. PARMELE HOME

A most charming bridge luncheon was given Saturday afternoon at the beautiful Parmele home on North Sixth street, when Mrs. George O. Dovey entertained some fifty of her friends in a most delightful manner in the fascinating of this game. The rooms of the home were decorated in a most attractive manner in a color scheme of pink and white, pink roses being used in the general decorative scheme, while the eight tables at which the members of the party were seated were arranged very artistically with pink and white sweet peas, making a scene of beauty and charm. The four-course luncheon served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Elizabeth Beeson, Mildred Schlater, Marion Maury and Eleanor Burrie, was one that was dainty and tempting and added very much to the pleasures of the afternoon and the charming hospitality of the occasion. The out-of-town guests present were: Miss Majorie Agnew of Lincoln, Mrs. Jack Patterson of Union, and Mrs. Wayne Dickson of Omaha.

THE WRESTLING MATCH AT LOUISVILLE SATURDAY NIGHT

Saturday evening quite a lively sporting event occurred in our neighboring city of Louisville, when an exceedingly interesting wrestling match was staged there between Cal Woods, the fast young wrestler whom Albert Fickler of Stanton is managing, and Frank Schmarder, the Louisville expert in this fine art of the mat, and for fourteen minutes the two men held the interest of the fans with some fast work, and it was ended only when Schmarder received a dislocated ankle in being thrown by the Stanton man, being in such a position as to make it impossible to get out of the grip of Woods, and Schmarder continued to struggle until he suffered his injury and was compelled to retire to his home. The match was awarded to Woods as a result of the fall.

SEES BRIGHT SIDE TO LUSITANIA CASE

Believed That Early Settlement Will Be Reached—Berlin Foreign Office Has Made Every Possible Concession.

Washington, Feb. 6.—President Wilson and Secretary Lansing are expected to confer tomorrow on the latest tentative duty of the communication the German government hopes to bring the negotiations over the Lusitania disaster to a satisfactory termination. Information that the outlook for an early settlement of the case again was promising, was received tonight from various diplomats and official quarters.

The president has had the tentative draft before him since Friday night. Int it German officials say, the Berlin foreign office has gone as far as it possibly can to meet the position of the United States. From high diplomatic quarters tonight came the statement that Germany believes that she has, with the exception of making an out-and-out disavowal of the Lusitania sinking, which she considers impossible, conceded every desire of the United States, and that the tentative proposal materially strengthens the assurance already given in the negotiations over the sinking of the steamship Arabic. It is also claimed that the tentative proposal covers all the fundamental issues involved in the conduct of submarine warfare in the North sea.

Commander Obeyed Orders. It is explained that a direct disavowal was given for the sinking of the Arabic because that act was in violation of the instructions given the commanders of submarines. In the case of the Lusitania, however, the commander acted in accordance with orders. The general instructions not to sink liners without warning was given, it was disclosed tonight by high authority, on the day after the Lusitania went down. It was said that Germany withheld announcement of the fact for strategical naval purposes.

The position of Berlin officials is said to be that the act of commander of a submarine can be disavowed, should he violate, disregard or have failed to receive instructions, but that a government cannot disavow an act which was committed in accordance with its instructions and for which it is responsible.

In the latest proposal there is no attempt to deny responsibility for the sinking of the Lusitania. But Germany assumes liability for the American lives, offers reparation by the payment of indemnity and assures the United States that the killing of Americans was without intent. The destruction of the liner was an act of reprisal for the British blockade, under the orders in council, according to the German view, and reprisals should not be applied to neutrals. The tentative communication also states that the method of conducting submarine warfare in the North sea has been modified because of friendship for the United States and because of the fact that American lives had been lost.

Recalls Arabic Case.

In this last contention, it was said tonight that it was within the range of possibility that some reference might be made in the preface of the communication, should it be transmitted formally to the United States to the correspondence in the Arabic case. In a note to Secretary Lansing on September 26, Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, wrote that his "instructions concerning our answer to your last Lusitania note contain the following passage: 'Liners will not be sunk by our submarines without warning and without regarding the safety of the lives of non-combatants, provided that the lines do not try to escape or offer resistance.'

There instructions have not yet been made formal in connection with the Lusitania case directly. At the time of the receipt of the communication Secretary Lansing declared that it appeared to be "a recognition of the fundamental principles for which we have contended."

Official and diplomatic circles are anxiously awaiting the publication of a statement concerning the Lusitania negotiations which Secretary Lansing said yesterday might be made within the next few days. The statement, it was considered, might be forthcoming at any time after President Wilson and Secretary Lansing discuss the proposal.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, expects to be called to the state department after the conference between the president and the secretary. That the ambassador believes he may be summoned in the near future was indicated when it became known that he had cancelled for the present engagements out of town.

ANOTHER INNOVATION.

Weyrich & Hadra, who are always on the alert for any change which is for the betterment of the service which they give their customers, have again come to the front with an innovation which is commendable. For years this firm has enjoyed the distinction of handling the finest and freshest line of candies, both in bulk and package goods.

The only way to handle bulk goods has been to display in trays, but that method always had the drawback of necessitating the handling of the bulk candies with the bare hands, which of course was not very attractive to anyone.

The new equipment does away with the necessity of touching the candies, and the edict has now gone forth from the proprietors that from the time the candy leaves the factory until it reaches the consumer, it SHALL NOT BE TOUCHED BY HUMAN HANDS. It will be worth your time to inspect the method, and you are invited to do so by Weyrich & Hadra.

Something Good.

Those who have nasty medicine should try Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. They are pleasant to take and their effect is so agreeable and so natural that you will not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Obtainable everywhere.
