Farm Implements and Wagons and Harness!

With a large crop of corn to market many farmers are in need of a new wagon, extra box or harness, which we have in stock and invite your inspection before you buy. We pride ourselves in handling the "Birdsell" wagons and "Birdsell" extra boxes, built from genuine yellow poplar and hand painted with lead and oil, which insures your wagon against cracking and peeling when exposed to the elements. The "Birdsell" has many distinctive features not found in any other wagon and the boxes are the only "yellow poplar" sold in this territory. We carry a full line of Farm Machinery in our new 24x66 building and are prepared to fill your requirements for the Spring work. Call and give us a chance to demonstrate this fact to you. We'll appreciate the favor. Our Harness, Collars, Pads and Extra Parts to put your old harness in shape. "Eureka" Harness Oils, Curry Combs and Brushes are all ready for your inspection.

VALENTINE PARTY AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. CHAS. MEHERING

From Tuesday's Daily.

A most delightful time was enjoyed last evening at the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mehering on Vine street, when their daughter, Miss Dorothy, entertained a number of her young friends at a Valentine party which was most delightful to all those who were present. The late afternoon and evening was passed in games and music, which served to pass the time very pleasantly, and among the games enjoyed was that of making valentines and some very artistic effects were secured by the young ladies in the making of these handsome love tokens and a great deal of amusement was derived in the making of them. At a suitable hour the young folks were invited to take part in the dainty valentine luncheon prepared for their treat, and this was enjoyed to the utmost by the young people. The table was very handsomely arranged in the valentine decorations of red hearts, which were used in profusion on the table, while at each place a dainty Cupid place card added to the decorative scheme of red and white. The centerpiece of the table was a large and handsome bouquet of white carnations, and from the large, handsome lighting dome streamers of red ribbon were draped to the corners of the table, making a very pretty setting for the happy occasion. Mrs. Mehering was assisted in entertaining and serving by Mrs. Earl R. Travis and Miss Marie Donnelly. Those who were present to enjoy the occasion were: Misses Grace Beeson, Fay Cobb, Genevieve Whelan, Isabel Rainey, Janet Bajek, Clara Mae Morgan, Virginia Beeson, Dorothy Mehering.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Last evening the performance at the Parmele theater of the Irving Theater, New York, company, of "Unkle Besig," drew quite a number of the residents of the city out to witness the offering and the audience were well pleased with the manner in which this clever German farce comedy was presented and the audience was kept in a continual laugh by the clever work of the company, which was headed by Gustave Olmar, as the chief fun-producer. The members of the company were all well adapted to the different roles in which they appeared and pleased almost everyone by the manner in which they carried out the laughable farce comedy. FINE ENTERTAINMENT AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. C. E. WHITTAKER

From Tuesday's Daily.

Last evening the officers and teachers of the Christian church Sunday school met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Whittaker, where they were entertained for the evening in a very pleasant manner, which was greatly enjoyed. A feature of the evening was the bible drill, in which fifteen verses from the bible were given out, each of which described some figure in biblical time, and the teachers present were asked to write out the names of those whom they thought described by the verses. Philip Rhin was decided on as the prize winner and received as his reward a secret message which he is to deliver later to the Sunday school. Mrs. C. E. Whittaker gave a most delightful vocal solo during the evening, which was greatly enjoyed, while Philip Rhin gave a number appropriate to the occasion, the first inaugural address of Abraham Lincoln, and Mrs. C. E. PerLee a short talk on "Prayer in the Sunday School," both of which were very much enjoyed. During the evening Rev. PerLee favored the gathering with a pleasing violin solo and was followed by M. S. Briggs with the story of the battle of Gettysburg and the historical speech delivered there by Abraham Lincoln. The reports from the different officers and teachers showed a pleasing gain in all the departments of the Sunday school and an increasing interest in the church work.

SHERIFF QUINTON AND WIFE POSSESSORS OF A TWELVE POUND BOY

From Tuesday's Daily.

One of the happiest places in the city today is the home of Sheriff Carroll Quinton and wife, and the occasion is that there arrived last evening shortly after 6 o'clock at their home a fine new son and heir, and the youngster is some boy, too, as he tipped the scales at twelve pounds. Both the mother and little son are doing nicely, and the sheriff has been wearing one of those happy smiles such as befits a happy father. It is certainly an event that is well worth feeling proud over, and the friends of the family throughout the county will extend to the parents their best wishes for the future welfare of the young Mr. Quinton.

THE HIGH SCHOOL TEAM TO START ON AN INVADING TOUR

From Tuesday's Daily.

The Plattsmouth High school basketball team this week will start on an invading tour of this part of the state to play return games with the teams which have appeared here during the season, and will open up the campaign at Nebraska City on Friday evening, where they will tangle with the High school team of that place. The boys have made a good showing here and should be able to reproduce their successes in the enemy's country if they play the same fast class of basket ball which they have shown in their games in this city. There will probably be quite a number from this city attend the game at Nebraska City. Next week it is expected to play both South Omaha and Auburn, both of whom have strong teams, and this will give the locals a good working out.

Stiff muscles and joints should be rubbed with Triner's Liniment. It also gives quick relief in rheumatism and neuralgia. Prices 25c and 50c, postpaid 35c and 60c.
