

New Styles!

The following is an extract from one of the leading style journals:

"Fashions for Spring, while not indicative of any radical change, are extraordinarily interesting. The prevailing style features of the winter modes have been developed and improved rather than any attempt having been made to introduce changes of an unusual character. Taffeta, in both plain and fancy effects, is the most popular material for Spring. It is shown in stripes, plaids and in pompadour effects. The combining of silks with sheer materials is an important factor in dress fashions for immediate and future wear."

For Spring Dresses and Costumes, our showing of Taffetas in plaids, stripes and plain colors, is all you could wish for in making a selection. These are all yard wide and are of the soft Chiffon finish. Chiffons and Georgette Crepes to match Taffetas and Silk Poplins, for the making of sleeves, vest effects and over-drapes.

The McCALL FASHIONS are the last word in good styles. The new Spring Quarterly, (just out) is simply filled from cover to cover with chic styles for every one.

DEATH OF JUDGE J. P. ENGLISH FROM EFFECTS OF GRIPPE

One of the Best Known and Ablest Attorneys in the Metropolis— Judge of District Court.

Omaha, Feb. 21.—James P. English, judge of the district court, died of grippe and its resultant complications at the family home, 585 South Twenty-first street, at 11:30 Sunday night, after an illness covering a period of about six weeks.

Judge English presided at the Hauser trial recently and suffered with an attack of the grippe during the hearing. Following the hearing he became worse, complications resulting and he was confined to his bed. He was unable to leave his home since.

His condition became suddenly worse Saturday, but yesterday physicians thought him improved. A relapse last night resulted in a hasty call for Dr. H. A. Waggner, who declared that death was near. He expired shortly afterward.

Judge English was born in Kenosha, Wis., and after finishing his common school education read law in a law office at Racine, Wis. From there he came to Omaha. That was in 1880. For several years he was in the office of James M. Woolworth, one of Omaha's pioneer lawyers and citizens, and later became a member in the firm of Hall, McCulloch & English.

He was county attorney of Douglas county for eight years and made an enviable record. He was first elected county attorney in 1903, and served two years, when he was succeeded by Judge Slabaugh. In 1907 he was again elected to the office and served continuously for six years, retiring to private practice upon the election of George A. Magney, for several years his chief deputy.

When Judge Howard Kennedy resigned his seat on the district court bench to become a member of the state board of control, Governor Morehead appointed Mr. English his successor, serving out the term and being re-elected to the office by the people.

Judge English is survived by a widow and eleven children. The children are Margaret, Mary, Catherine, Anna, Ruth, Florence, Frank, Robert and James living at home; John English of Kansas City, and Mrs. Leo Wickham of Council Bluffs. No arrangements have been made for the funeral as yet.

Sunday Services Well Attended.

The Sunday services at the Christian church yesterday were all largely attended and, a most interesting and impressive series of sermons given by the pastor, Rev. C. E. PerLee, who at the morning sermon preached from the subject of the "Lord's Prayer," and in the evening on "Opening of the Seven Seals." There was on baptism into the church during the day.

Postoffice Closed Tomorrow.

Tomorrow being Washington's birthday, the postoffice will be closed all day, with the exception of the general delivery window, which will be open from 11 to 12 o'clock. The day is a legal holiday in this state and the banks, as well as the offices in the court house, will observe the day. The Burlington shops, in most of the departments, will also be closed, but the freight car repair department will be run as usual, owing to the large number of heavy orders in that department.

TRY Plattsmouth First!

We are making a special effort for the 1916 Spring Season, just opening, and will greatly appreciate your visit to our sales room, whether you buy or not.

I—We are very fortunate in securing the services of Miss Murphy, of Chicago, for our Designer. Miss Murphy comes to us very highly recommended from the Gage Brothers Co. of Chicago, makers of the famous Gage Hat. We will show a complete line of Gage Hats.

II—We have been very fortunate in our buying for the new season. In the past few weeks there has been a marked advance in the price of Hat Frames, Silks, Ribbons, Trimmings, etc., as much as 33 1-3 per cent. Our orders were placed before this advance in price, and our goods will be sold at our customary low prices.

III—We have bought a much larger stock this year than usual, and will show, in addition to the Gage Hat, others equally good, such as the Knox Hat, the Edco Hat and the Edson Kieth Hat. We consider these lines the best money can buy, regardless of price.

G. W. BERGE CALLS MAYOR C. W. BRYAN

Also Offers to Withdraw from the Democratic Race to Draft Another Man.

Willing to Retire in Favor of Either J. S. Canady or Judge J. J. Thomas.

George W. Berge, of Lincoln, democratic candidate for governor, sent the following letter to Mayor C. W. Bryan Saturday in reply to Mr. Bryan's statement:

"Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 19, 1916.—Mayor C. W. Bryan, City. Dear Mr. Bryan: In last evening's papers you say that before you announced your candidacy for governor you urged various prominent democrats in the state to become candidates for governor, among them such well known democrats as Judge Edgar Howard, Hon. W. H. Thompson, Judge J. J. Thomas and Hon. I. J. Dunn. You also say: 'I also wrote to Hon. J. S. Canady and endeavored to interest him in the state contest.' You do not say you urged Mr. Canady to become a candidate for governor. Maybe you urged him to take another place on the ticket.

"Except Mr. Canady none of the democrats named by you have been recognized by the people as dry men. You say, however, that you would still like to see one of those named by you file for governor, and you say: 'If one of the above named democrats will volunteer his services as candidate for governor I will gladly withdraw from the race in his favor.'

"I will assume, of course, that you make this statement to the public in good faith, and I will now say to you and to the democrats of the state that if you will agree to withdraw from the race I will do likewise and we can then both be united with the democrats of Nebraska in drafting either Hon. J. S. Canady of Minden or Judge J. J. Thomas of Seward into this race, and present a united front in the campaigned to win a great democratic victory.

"I have known both Mr. Canady and Mr. Thomas for about twenty years and no better men live in the state than these two worthy democrats. Neither one of them can refuse a draft to public service under conditions as they now exist, and I hope you will join me in bringing about this much desired result. Neither one of these men might volunteer to enter the race under the circumstances, but I am sure either one will respond to a call.

"Will you agree to the proposition? Yours truly, "George W. Berge."

LeRoy Cline of Murray was a Sunday visitor in this city.

W. B. Rishel was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha, where he was called to spend a few hours at the Woodman of the World headquarters in the interest of the local camp of that order.

MISS MINNIE KLINGER CELEBRATES HER 13TH BIRTHDAY SATURDAY

Saturday was the thirteenth birthday anniversary of Miss Minnie Klinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Klinger, and in the afternoon she was tendered a very pleasant surprise when the members of her Sunday school class at St. Paul's church came to her home in the south part of the city and informed her they had come to assist her in celebrating the happy event. The jolly company was accompanied by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Steger, and his wife. Various amusements and games were indulged in, which afforded this jolly company much pleasure and provoked much merriment and frolic. At a suitable hour Mrs. Klinger, assisted by Miss Mary Hobscheid and Miss Helen Lutz, served a most tempting birthday luncheon, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. At the close of the

DUTCH PREDICTS A DRAW IN THE EUROPEAN WAR

Germany Can Neither Win Nor Be Crushed, the Hollanders Believe.

London, Feb. 20.—Most Hollanders now believe the war will end in a draw. This information is gleaned following recent conversations with Dutch leaders at The Hague and in Rotterdam and from well informed Hollanders here.

The Dutch believe Germany has accomplished about all she is going to accomplish in the war. Being in close touch with Germany, they realize the Germans are suffering severely. Nevertheless, the Dutch do not believe that Germany can be crushed. They think she can hold out indefinitely, no matter how terribly she may suffer, or how great a permanent damage may be wrought to her people by continuing the war.

The Hollanders believe both sides will find a deadlock has been reached and will be ready for peace about the end of the present year.

Dutch leaders will be satisfied with this solution. They believe a decided victory for one side or the other would be detrimental to Holland's interests. They believe the victor would insist on complete control of the River Scheldt, paring off a slice of Dutch territory.

LADIES' MASQUERADE VERY MUCH A GRAND SUCCESS

The masquerade given Saturday evening at the T. J. Sokol hall by the young ladies turning class was a most successful affair in every way, and a very large crowd was present to take part in the pleasures of the evening. The evening was one of the rarest pleasure, without anything to mar the enjoyment of the dancers as they moved to and fro to the music furnished by the Holly orchestra. The dance, which was conducted by the young ladies, was throughout very pleasing, as the attendance shows, and it was with regret that the strains of the home waltz was heard by the members of the party as the signal for the home-going hour. It was one of the most largely attended dances that has been given for some time at this hall.

GREAT BRITAIN IS TO BE SPURRED UP

Time for an Answer to Protest on Mail Seizure Appears to Be at Hand.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Unless Great Britain replies to the American protest against interference with mails Lansing will address to the foreign office a supplementary note reminding England that an answer seems due.

It was announced yesterday the state department feels there has been ample time for London to frame a reply, despite the admitted necessity for a conference between England and her allies.

It has been reported at various times that England has been having some difficulty in obtaining wholehearted approval of her action by France and Russia because it is believed at Petrograd and Paris that to express such approval would set a precedent that might bind those countries in the event they are in the future enemies of Great Britain.

The American protest was presented more than a month ago. Councillor Barclay of the British embassy yesterday afternoon laid before Councillor Polk of the department a number of complaints contained in British consular reports regarding the seizures of British property in Mexico.

Birth of a Fine Daughter.

This morning Frank Kalasek was just about the happiest man in the community as the result of a visit of the stork at his home, when a fine little daughter was left to brighten the Kalasek home. The mother and little daughter are doing nicely and the proud father will be restored to normal condition in a few days. As Frank says he now has three daughters and two sons and three queens and a pair of jacks are mighty hard to beat, and the little daughter is the object of a great deal of admiration from the brothers and sisters.

Called on Sad Mission.

At an early hour this morning a long distance telephone call was received by R. L. Ponsler, of the Nebraska Lighting company, conveying the sad news of the death in Kansas City last night of Mrs. A. E. Geyer, mother of Mrs. Ponsler. Mr. and Mrs. Ponsler departed this morning for Kansas City to be present at the funeral.

For a Bilious Attack.

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, clashing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.
