ARMY MEASURES COME OUT SOON

House Committee Reviewing Bill to Be Presented During Next Week.

Washington, March 1.—National defense legislation has made such rapid progress in committee that it was predicted today the army part of the preparedness program would be before the house and senate next week.

The house military committee began today its full review of the measure tentatively agreed upon. The final committee will be taken tomorrow, but it will require several days for Chairman Hay to prepare a report to accompany the bill.

By agreeing to insert only a general provision for federalizing the national guard in its regular army reorganization bill, leaving the task of putting this legislation in final shape to a joint conference committee, the senate military committee has made it possible to bring the measure out next week.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., March 2.—Another good run of cattle arrived yesterday, about 6,500 head, making around 20,500 head for the three days. There was another advance of pretty close to a dime on an average yesterday and fat cattle are selling about 15¢ to 20¢ higher than they were the latter part of last week. Strictly good to choice 1,250 to 1,450 pound steers sold at $8.40 to $8.90. Cows and heifers of practically all grades were in vigorous demand and found a ready sale at prices that were strong to a dime higher than Tuesday. Veal calves were steady to stronger at $8.00 to $10.00. There was apparently no let up in the demand from the country for stock cattle and feeding steers and both buyers and orders were very much in evidence.

Hog receipts totaled 16,500 head yesterday. The market was fully 5¢ to 10¢ and in some cases a flat 10¢ higher than Tuesday. Bulk of the sales was made at $8.20 to $8.60, with tops at $8.65. Current prices on hogs are the highest for the opening of March since 1910, and with that one exception the highest for this time of year in the history of the yards.

Sheep and lamb receipts amounted to 4,500 head. The market opened in good shape yesterday, and prices were fully steady with Tuesday's high time and in spots as much as 10¢ higher than Tuesday's low time. Several bunches of Mexican lambs sold up to $11.00, which price was also paid for some westerns. Ewes were in moderate supply and fully steady. ## FIRST VICTIM OF TEUTONIC ORDER

Steamer Thornaby Is Sunk—All Members of the Crew Reported to Be Lost.

LINERS APPROACHING WAR ZONE

London, March 1.—The British steamship Thornaby is reported to have been sunk, all the members of the crew having been killed or drowned.

The Thornaby was owned in West Liverpool, England. Her gross tonnage was 1,782. She was 253 feet long.

Although the British censorship prevents transmission of details concerning the reported sinking of the Thornaby, the reference to the members of the crewing having probably been killed or drowned indicates she was sunk by a mine or a torpedo.

The German and Austrian decrees regarding the sinking of armed merchantmen without warning went into effect at midnight. The Thornaby is the first vessel whose sinking has been reported since the orders became operative, but the London dispatch does not indicate whether she was armed or whether she was sunk before or after the opening of the month.

Twelve Liners Near Zone.

New York, March 1.—The scheduled opening of the new submarine campaign of the Teutonic powers, which was set for today, finds twelve big liners in or near the war zone, in which the Austrian and German undersea boats are operating.

The liners are: Celtic, of the White Star line; Itaba, Italian line; Taormina, Italian line; LaFayette, French line; Philadelphia, American line; Finland, in American line service; Bergensfjord, Norwegian-American line; American, Italian line; Patria, Fabre line; Pannonia, Cunard line, and the Ioannina and Vasilef Constantinof, of the Greek line.

None of these steamers is believed to be armed unless they have mounted guns at sea.

Although there have been sailings of White Star steamers on an average of once a week since the war began, officials of the company here today said no more of the company's liners would sail with passengers to any English ports until April 12, when the Lapland is scheduled to leave here. It is asserted that the decision has no bearing on the new German submarine campaign, but was due to the fact that the British government has taken over many vessels of the line for the transportation of munitions.

A statement was confirmed that the steamer Baltic would not sail from Liverpool for New York tomorrow, as scheduled, owing to "dock congestion in the Mersey."

Forty Ships Not Warned.

London, March 1.—The admiralty has made public a list of "unarmed" British vessels torpedoed and sunk by enemy submarines without warning up to the end of 1915. It comprises thirty-nine steamers and one trawler.

A list also was given of neutral vessels said to have been torpedoed in the same period without warning, consisting of thirteen steamers and one sailing vessel, of which two, the Gulf-light and Nebraska, were American, four Norwegian, four Swedish, one Dutch, one Danish, one Greek and one Portuguese.

"In addition to the above," says the admiralty statement, "there are several cases in which there is no reasonable doubt that the vessel was sunk by a torpedo fired without warning from a submarine, but in the absence of actual proof, due to a lack of survivors or from other causes, these cases are omitted from the lists."

How Two Men Cured LaGrippe

"Last winter I suffered with a terrible cold and a case of La Grippe," writes E. C. Rhodes of Middiston, Ga. "When getting well of La Grippe I still had a hacking cough and for several months could get no relief. Finally I began taking Foley's Honey and Tar and soon I was well of both cough and cold and it never returned."

E. C. Prevco, Bedford, Ind., writes: "After having an attack of La Grippe it left me with a severe cough and I tried everything. I lost in weight and got so thin it looked as though I would never get well. I tried Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and two bottles cured me. I am now well and back to normal weight."

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a healing family remedy and seldom fails to relieve coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, raw and inflamed throat, tight and sore chest, irritated tickling throat and bronchial coughs.

LULL IN THE VERDON BATTLE IS REPORTED

Paris Does Not Expect Immediate Abandonment of German Offensive, However.

Berlin, March 1.—The war office this afternoon reported artillery active all along the western front, but mentioned no infantry engagements of great importance. An English biplane was shot down near Henin and two French biplanes near Soissons.

London, March 1.—A lull in the Verdun fighting throughout last night was reported by Paris this afternoon. However, it was not believed that the German offensive movement had been abandoned.

The Germans, the dispatch said, are preparing for a heavy assault against Pepper heights, north of Verdun.

Six miles east and northeast of Verdun, the German attack was directed with greatest violence against Forts de Vaux and de Tavannes.

The Teutons battered French positions on the Metz-Verdun railway with heavy artillery brought up from Etain.

The French are making their stand at the railway station of Elix. Fort de Tavannes has beaten back charge after charge by whole German brigades.

North and south of the railway, the crown prince smashed heavily at the French front, aiming to draw the German net still closer around the fortress.

Railway Center Almost Surrounded.

Thirteen miles southeast of Verdun, Fresnes, an important highway center, is two-thirds surrounded by Germans. Vicious fighting is occurring around Manheulles. Two miles northwest the French are attempting to recapture the position.

Artillery duels are breaking out along the whole western front, from the Belgian coast to the Vosges.

Paris reported that Brandenburg regiments inside Douaumont fort's ruins have been surrounded and that other German troops are trying to cut their way through to their relief. Berlin declared that Douaumont and the immediate neighborhood are firmly held by Teuton forces.
