NEW SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN BEGINS IN THE WAR ZONE

Germany and Austria Now Will Sink Armed Ships Without Warning.

NO VICTIMS REPORTED YET

London, March 1.—Germany's new submarine decree, sanctioning attacks without warning on belligerent armed merchant ships, went into effect at midnight, but no reports of torpedoings under the new decree are expected before twenty-four or forty-eight hours.

Twelve hours after the decree became effective, word reached London of the sinking of the West Hartlepool steamer Tornaby, all of whose crew was killed or drowned, but there was nothing to indicate that she was a victim of the new campaign.

The Thornaby displaced 1,782 tons and was 258 feet long. She was built in 1882.

The 1,222-ton Swedish steamer Torborg has been sunk in the Mediterranean by an Austrian submarine. The crew took to boats and was landed at Leghorn, Italy.

Offer to Bet Liners Will Be Warned.

Some shipping men regard the new order as a bluff and offer to bet large sums that no passenger liner, armed or not, will be torpedoed without warning. Others, made uneasy by reports that the Germans have turned loose a great fleet of U boats for a spectacular campaign, expressed concern for the safety of merchantmen crews and for passengers aboard liners.

The first great tragedy is expected in the Mediterranean, where the number of Austrian and German submarines has been greatly increased recently. Through this zone are passing armed Italian passenger-carrying liners.

Here Are British Instructions.

To meet the German charge that British merchantmen have been instructed to attack submarines on sight, the British government is contemplating making known the exact contents of admiralty instructions to merchantmen.

Lord Robert Cecil, new minister of blockade, declares that the German statement is false.

British instructions direct that the commander of a merchantman approached by a submarine shall restrain his fire until the submarine is within 800 yards. Germans assert this is proof of merchantmen's aggressive intentions. The British government contends that this passage, when read in connection with another paragraph, shows clearly that armed trading ships are to act only on the defensive. The submarine's approach to within 800 yards, it was held, clearly creates a presumption that it is about to attack.

54 Torpedoed Without Warning.

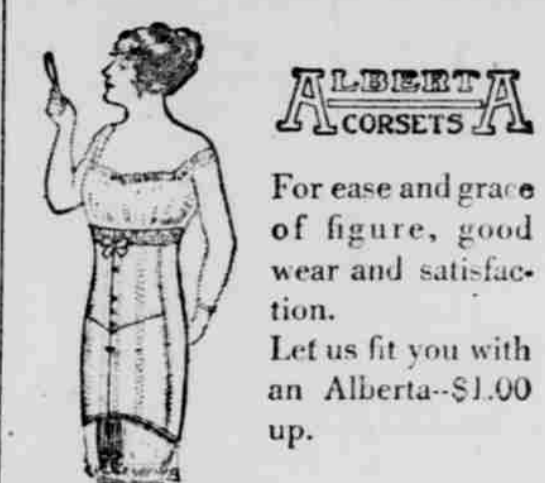

The admiralty has announced that, up to this year, forty British and fourteen neutral ships have been torpedoed without warning, and that several others doubtless were victims of submarines.

K. S. Dance Saturday.

Saturday evening the K. S. society will give a very pleasant social dance at their hall on west Locust street and extend to the public a cordial invitation to be present. The dance will be the last one given before Lent commences and there will be no more until after Easter. Remember the occasion and be present without fail. The Plattsmouth orchestra will furnish the music for the dance and everyone who enjoys a good dance should be present to take part in this the last dance before Lent.

ALLIES ANSWER U. S. IN ITS PROTEST ON SEIZURES OF MAIL

London, March 1.—The Anglo-French answer to the protest of the United States regarding the seizure of mails in transit between America and Europe will be delivered in the immediate future, according to official announcement last night.

Big Wolf Hunt.

Next Monday, March 6th, there will be a big wolf hunt in Eight Mile Grove neighborhood, commencing at the little brick school house west of Mynard, running five miles south and five miles west, taking in twenty-five sections; the west line will be on the road where the German Lutheran church is; the south line will be one mile south of the Murray road. We expect to round up on the Charles Beverage farm. Everybody is urged to take a hand in this hunt and to be at the meeting places at 9:30 sharp so as to get our men lined up and be ready to start with the signal at 10 o'clock. Bring your shotguns, but be sure and leave your rifles at home, as they are strictly forbidden. For further information call James Terryberry, Adam Schafer, Ern Young, Jim Hill, Nick Friedrich, Albert Young, Herman Wohlfarth or Philip Hild.

A Rare Dancing Treat.

On next Saturday night the old-timers will gather at the T. J. Sokol hall for their annual ball, and one of the biggest times of the dancing season is being looked forward to by all the lovers of dancing. The dance, however, will not be confined to the old-timers, as there will be all of the latest dances played and everyone can have the time of their lives. To the older persons the occasion will furnish the opportunity of appearing in the costumes of old Bohemia.

IMPRESSIVE WEDDING SERVICE AT PARSONAGE OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

A very simple and impressive wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the St. Paul's Evangelical church when Rev. J. H. Steger united in the bonds of holy wedlock Mr. William Kehne and Miss Elizabeth True, both of whom resided near this city. The beautiful ceremony of the church was used in the uniting of these the most estimable young people and the wedding was witnessed by Miss Louise Kehne, a sister of the groom, and Mr. Fred Beuchler, as bridesmaid and best man. After the ceremony the young people departed for their home on the farm west of the city where they will reside in the future. Both of the contracting parties are among the best known and most popular young people in this section and their friends all join in wishing them a long and happy married life and one free from care and troubles that might come to them. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John True, residing northwest of this city, and a most charming young lady, while the groom is the son of Fred Kehne, one of the prominent farmers of Plattsmouth precinct, and he is a young man that is held in high regard for his many splendid traits of character. Such an estimable couple certainly deserves all the happiness possible and their friends will rejoice to learn that in the future they will take up life's journey together.
At the Kehne home last evening the bridal couple were serenaded by a large number of their friends and out of the three different delegations visiting there the first one composed of ladies proved to be the most pleasing in their demonstrations.

MISS RUTH MELBURN OF PLATTSMOUTH MARRIED IN OMAHA YESTERDAY

Yesterday in Omaha occurred the marriage of Miss Ruth Melburn and Mr. Daniel Weyenberg, both of this city. The wedding was a very quiet one and attended only by Mrs. W. T. Melburn, mother of the bride, who, following the ceremony, returned home to this city. Mr. and Mrs. Weyenberg enjoyed a short visit in Omaha and will depart tomorrow for Norfolk, where they will visit for a short time before leaving for Chicago where they will make their home in the future. The wedding came as quite a surprise to the friends of the young people in this city, but they will take with them in their new home the hearty best wishes for their future happiness. The groom has been making his home in this city for the past year and during this time has made many warm friends by his splendid traits of character. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Melburn and is a young lady of more than usual charm of personality who will be greatly missed by a large circle of acquaintances in this city.

UNIQUE BULLETIN BOARD IN WINDOW OF PLATTSMOUTH STATE BANK
The Presbyterian Light Bearers' society has a unique bulletin board displayed in the window of the Plattsmouth State bank. This organization of children under 15 years of age is a missionary organization. Their motto is, "For Others." They are studying a book of travel through non-Christian lands, and each meeting is announced as a boat trip leaving the dock at 3 o'clock on the first Saturday of each month. So their bulletin board is a steamship time table. The decorative work represents the countries and people they have seen on the way. Two of their own number are the artists, Miss Alice Pollock and Carl Wurl. The bulletin board is attracting a great deal of attention. It is a very neat little piece of advertising.
It's only the paper line that will be found at the Journal office, but this line will be found complete. Come in and see.
