Why you should see

"The Birth of a Nation"

- B "It is a brilliant, vivid, stirring masterpiece." Rupert Hughes.
- E "It takes the whole country by storm." Booth Tarkington.
- C "In the short space of three hours the audience sees, hears and feels a period fifteen years."—Rev. Father John Talbot Smith.
- A "I know it is true, because I have lived through the actual realities."—Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Gregory.
- U "Never before has such a whirl wind combination of story, spectacle and tense drama been unrolled."—New York Evening Sun.
- S "It is worth $5.00 a seat."—C. F. Zittel, N. Y. Evening Journal.
- E "It is history vitalized—History by lightning flash. Go to see it because of the wonder of the pictures themselves, and finally, go to see it because it will make a better American of you for out of the baptism of blood of the Civil War was born the new nation, one and indivisible."—Dorothy Dix.

A Grand Symphony Orchestra
OF TWENTY-FIVE PIECES!

NEVER before, even in Grand Opera, has matter in glowing and highly colored action been so masterfully, effectively brought out by means of musical accompaniment as in "The Birth of a Nation." Every single passage, whether it be a terrific battle scene, a cunning bit of statecraft or maneuver, a snatch of tender pathos, a homely folk of character sketch or a ripping humorous view, is musically explained to the amazed spectator and listener. It's bewildering sound and light and color effects are simply wonderful.

This Grand Symphony Orchestra is carried by the company and every member of the organization is a capable soloist.

Presented by ELLIOTT & SHERMAN

Not one in this section can afford to miss this. It has been endorsed by the greatest ministers of the world. It shows what war costs mothers, sisters and wives. It shows the coming of the Prince of Peace. It will make better Americans of you.
