FIRST PASSENGER SHIP SENT DOWN

Italian Steamer Giava Lost—No Americans Were Reported to Be Aboard.

London, March 5.—The Italian steamer Giava, torpedoed and sunk in the Mediterranean, is believed to have been the first passenger-carrying victim of the new Austro-German submarine campaign against armed merchantmen.

The Giava, an old steamer displacing 2,631 tons, was owned by a Naples ship company and sailed from Leghorn, Italy, only a few hours before the new submarine decree went into effect, carrying several passengers. It is no secret that practically all Italian steamers, under orders from the naval authorities, carry armament to resist attacks by submarines. Athens dispatches tonight said the passengers and crew were rescued by British ships after spending twenty-four hours in open boats. Athens reported no Americans were aboard.

The Primrose is Built for Service

BOTH the reasons why you buy a cream separator are met fully by the Primrose. The first is to get all the cream with the least work; the second, to buy a machine that you or your wife can easily keep in operating condition, and that will skim closely for years.

You know that there is nothing about a Primrose to get out of order. You know, too, that it has a splash oiling system that takes care of every bearing, and that it is a clean machine—no oil in the milk, and no milk in the oil.

But the Primrose has some other exclusive features you ought to know before you buy any separator. For instance, at any position, the handle takes hold the instant pressure is applied, and lets go the instant the pressure is taken off. The spindle stays in the separator, where it belongs. When you place the bowl on the spindle, it centers itself automatically without any pounding and without trying more than once—that saves the lower spindle bearing and prevents dangerous springing of the spindle itself.

No matter what separator question you bring up, you will find it fully answered by the Primrose. Come in and take a good look at it before you buy.

GEORGE L. FARLEY FILES

FOR COUNTY ASSESSOR

George L. Farley, former county superintendent, and for a number of years editor of the Evening News in this city, today filed his name as a candidate for the republican nomination to the office of county assessor at the primaries on April 18th. Mr. Farley is engaged in the real estate and insurance business at present and is in a position to give the office the proper attention, and with his knowledge of real estate values should, if elected, prove well qualified for the position. This is the third filing for this office, as Homer McKay of this city is a candidate for the republican nomination, while A. D. Despaigne is seeking the nomination at the hands of the democratic party.

Mrs. George Brinklow and son, George, arrived yesterday from their home at San Antonio, Texas, to attend the wedding of Miss Ruth Godwin and Mr. Harry Buffington which will be held Wednesday evening.

County Commissioner Henry Snoko came in this morning from his home at Eagle and will attend a meeting of the county commissioners tomorrow, as well as look after a few matters in the county court.

William J. O'Brien, superintendent of the state fisheries at Gretna, came in this afternoon on No. 24 to spend a short time looking after the repair of his car at the local Burlington shops.

Henry Horn and wife, from near Cedar Creek, were in the city Saturday for a few hours doing the week-end shopping, and report their son, Harry, who is at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, as doing nicely and well on the way to recovery.

George P. Heil of near Cedar Creek was among the visitors in the city Saturday for a few hours looking after the week-end shopping with the merchants.

NEBRASKA THIRD IN FARM PRODUCTS

Per Capita Value on Crops, Swine and Cattle Surpassed Only by Dakotas.

SWINE VALUE IS FOURTH

The Nebraska state board of agriculture has prepared a statement showing the rank of twenty states having more than $100,000,000 value in four leading agricultural crops. The statement also includes the value of the cattle, horses and swine in these states.

The total of the four principal crops and the value of the live stock is used as a basis of arriving at the per capita value of these agricultural products, considering only the rural population.

North Dakota First.

Nebraska with a per capita of $573 ranks third in the list of twenty states. North Dakota comes first with $633, and South Dakota second with $612. Next below Nebraska comes Iowa with $472 and Kansas with $423.

The other states in the list and their order follows: Minnesota, Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Georgia, Pennsylvania, Mississippi, North Carolina and Alabama.

Sixth in Horses.

Nebraska ranks sixth in the value of horses, having $96,632,000, and twelfth in the value of milch cows with $39,000,000.

The state is third in the value of cattle other than milch cows, having $90,598,000. Only Iowa with $104,827,000, and Texas with $179,667,000, have more.

Nebraska is fourth in the value of swine with $40,100,000, being excelled only by Iowa and Illinois.

But four states in the twenty comprising the list have a greater total value of all products, Texas, Illinois, Iowa and Kansas. The total value for Nebraska is $505,655,000. Kansas has a value of $506,370,000.

The same four states are slightly ahead of Nebraska in the total value of the four leading agricultural crops. They are the Nebraska crops is $239,325,000.

The Total Value.

The value of the different Nebraska crops are: Corn, $100,110,000; wheat, $60,609,000; oats, $21,824,000; hay, $56,782,000.

Only Pennsylvania and Iowa of those states in the list produce more hay than Nebraska; only Kansas and North Dakota more wheat.

THE LIGHT BEARERS HOLD A DELIGHTFUL MEETING AT THE SHOPP HOME

The Light Bearers of the Presbyterian church held a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. F. B. Shopp Saturday afternoon. There was quite a number of the children in attendance and a very pleasant afternoon was spent in their studying of their book of travels through non-Christian lands, and at this meeting visited Calcutta and the mission fields in that vicinity and learning of some of the work being done by the missionaries located there, which proved very interesting and was very much enjoyed by the children. After their study the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to various games and amusements, which brought to a close another very pleasant meeting of the Light Bearers.

Secures Four Wolves.

The wolf hunt which was held in the vicinity of Mynard today was successful in securing four wolves as a result of their efforts in the country surrounding that place. This morning when the hunters began pouring into Mynard for the hunt it was at first feared that war had been declared but it was soon learned that the pesky wolves were the only foes to be attacked.

MRS. J. B. HIGLEY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Saturday was the fifty-fourth birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. B. Higley, and in honor of the event she was made the happy recipient of a very pleasant surprise in the evening by a number of her friends and children. When the jolly company of surprisers entered her home and announced that they had come to assist her in celebrating her birthday, she was sure some surprised, but was soon herself again and proceeded to make her guests feel at home after she had discovered who they were. This occasion was in the nature of a masquerade, which made it very hard for Mrs. Higley to tell just who her guests were. Various games and amusements were introduced and entered into with much interest and enthusiasm by the guests, and which afforded them much pleasure and made the evening pass all too quickly. At the proper time the merry company was invited to partake of a delicious birthday luncheon, which was most thoroughly enjoyed and to which all did ample justice. One of the features of this luncheon was a birthday cake, with the candle decorations, which had been made by Mrs. Higley's oldest granddaughter, Miss Mable Cotner, of Omaha, and which was highly prized by Mrs. Higley. It was a most delightful surprise to Mrs. Higley and this happy event will not soon be forgotten by her. At a late hour the guests, after wishing Mrs. Higley many happy returns of the day, departed for their homes, declaring this birthday surprise to be a success and that they had had a fine time. The out-of-town guests were her son, Jack Elledge and family, of Council Bluffs, and her daughter, Mrs. Rhoda Homan and three daughters, Mabel, Hazel and Nellie Cotner, of Omaha. Her youngest grandchild, Baby Ell-edge, was also present.
