Robert Kirkpatrick, who was taken to Omaha about two weeks ago and operated on for stomach trouble, is still in a very low condition. One report is favorable while the next is the opposite and we cannot inform our readers in just what condition he is. The News, with his relatives and friends, hope for a complete recovery.

LOUISVILLE

Walter Stohlman is visiting the family of August Brunkow, at Ipswich, S. D.

William Diers of Gresham, Neb., is here assisting his uncle, W. F. Diers, during his big sale.

C. W. Spence came down Tuesday and spent the day visiting in the country with his mother.

Mrs. Ben Shelhorn of Denver, who has been making an extended visit with relatives in this vicinity, is in town this week, visiting her niece, Mrs. M. L. Williams and family.

Miss Clara Kuehn of Malcom, Neb., is here visiting Miss Katherine Gakenier and other friends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Kuehn, who formerly lived on Miss Gakenier's farm.

Mrs. Ellen Rathbun and son, Frank, have moved to a farm near Alvo, Neb., where Mrs. Rathbun will keep house for the owner of the farm, W. W. Bird, and Frank will work on the farm.

Earl Hoover was here from Big Springs, Neb., this week visiting his father, B. G. Hoover. He brought a car of hogs to the Omaha market of his own raising and reports everything flourishing in that part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pribble returned last week from Jamaica, Iowa, where they spent the winter with relatives. Mrs. Pribble is just recovering from a severe attack of the grippe and is not able to get about very well yet, but her friends hope she will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kitrell arrived Monday from Guernsey, Wyoming, for a ten days' visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thiele. Mr. Kitrell formerly lived in South Bend, but now holds a good position in Wyoming with the C. B. & Q. railroad.

WEEPING WATER

Mrs. Margaret Giberson came over from Plattsmouth Saturday for a short visit with home folks.

Mrs. Helen Wallick was down from Seward for a Saturday and Sunday visit at home.

Mrs. L. L. Caygill of Wabash and her sister, Mrs. Lyon Barrett, of Canada, were visiting in town Saturday with Mrs. John Wade and Mrs. Chas. Philpot.

Frank McNurlin of Cedar Laven farm, northeast of town, was here Saturday to meet Mrs. McNurlin, who was returning from Havelock, where she had spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. Barrett.

James Schwab was on the South Omaha market Thursday with a car of sheep. John Colbert was on the market the same day with a car of cattle, and John Rubga was on the market Wednesday with a car of cattle.

Cecil Amick went to Tekamah Tuesday to spend a few days with his uncle, Thomas Amick, who is suffering with cancer. Mr. Thomas Amick will be remembered as having lived west of town a number of years ago.

D. M. Johnson is again in business on Main street, having purchased the feed and hay business of Hans Johnson. He took possession March 1st and is continuing the business at Mr. Johnson's old stand on east Main street.

Riley Rector returned Friday night from Denver, Colorado, where he had spent six weeks with his son, Frank and family. He stopped off at Holdrege on his return trip for a couple of days with his sister, Mrs. George Lathrop and husband.

Jim Pucket, one of the old citizens of this community, is visiting since Wednesday at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Josiah Timblin. Jim is living on a homestead in Montana now and has a little town on his land which they call Dora, where Jim runs a store.

CANNOT PRAISE THEM ENOUGH.

Many sick and tired women, with aches and pains, sore muscles and stiff joints, do not know that their kidneys are out of order. Mrs. A. G. Wells, Box 90, Route 5, Rocky Mount, N. C., writes: "I am taking Foley Kidney Pills, and cannot praise them enough for the wonderful benefit I derived in such a short while." Sold everywhere.

ELMWOOD

Charles Berkwith is some hog raiser. He has some that are not 6 months old that weigh a strong 200 apiece.

Mrs. D. C. West, wife of D. C. West, cashier of the Nehawka bank, was a visitor in Elmwood Tuesday. J. F. Hoover shipped a car of cattle to the Omaha market Monday, and a car of hogs to the Nebraska City market.

Mrs. Ada Patton of Trux, Saskatchewan, Canada, arrived Wednesday evening to be at the bedside of her father, Samuel Bogenrief, who has been critically ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kunn, of near Avoca, came up Monday evening for a few days' visit with the former's uncle, John Weber, who has been quite feeble for some time.

The latter part of last week the Byron Gaylord property in the south part of town was bought by Mrs. Morford. The Morford family will occupy this place and we are informed that Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord are thinking of locating in California.

Ray Lorenz moved to the Hettrick farm from Logan, Iowa, unloading his goods from this point on Tuesday. This is the farm which his father purchased a short time ago. The elder Lorenz also intends moving to this county in the near future.

Jas. M. Stone, president of the Nehawka bank, Nehawka, Neb., was visiting at the Elmwood State bank Tuesday. Mr. Stone is very favorably impressed with Elmwood and vicinity. He says that he is planning to go to Colorado this week to look after his banking interests there for a few weeks and also to visit a son who has charge of the bank at Del Norte, Colorado.

Ed Gustin disposed of his residence in the west part of town this week to A. L. Gash, the latter trading in a quarter section of land near Yuma, Colo. This is one of the finest homes in Elmwood, being situated on the top of a hill in a very desirable location. The property was recently purchased by Mr. Gustin from M. H. Tyson. Mr. Gustin, it is understood, has rented the Berger property, and will move therein just as soon as Orville Robertson moves to the farm which he rented near Alvo.

Mrs. P. Rehkamp, 2404 Herman St., Covington, Ky., writes: "I have been using Foley's Honey and Tar for nearly two years and can find no better cough syrup. I have eight children and give it to all of them. They were subject to croup from babies on." It is a safe and reliable medicine. Sold everywhere.

Given a Pleasant Surprise. From Wednesday's Ditty.

A very pleasant time was enjoyed last Saturday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Kaffenberger on the occasion of their second wedding anniversary, and the many friends and neighbors gave them one of the surprises of their lives. The guests came with well laden baskets of good things to eat, which proved one of the most delightful features of the evening. Those who were present at this time were: Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, Philip Schaefer and wife, Albert Shafer and wife, Philip Tritsch and wife, Jacob Tritsch and wife, Philip Horn and wife and Miss Jennie Batten.

Visiting Here for the Day.

S. C. Patterson came up yesterday from Murray, where he is visiting his old friends, J. A. Walker and family, and is calling on and visiting with his many old friends in this city. Mr. Patterson is enjoying a visit in old Cans for some time, having come up from his home in Texas several weeks ago. Mr. Patterson while here today was a caller at the Journal office and spent a short time in visiting with the editor, which was very much enjoyed. Mr. Patterson departed this afternoon for South Bend to visit at his old home there, and in two weeks expects to leave for Pennsylvania to spend a short time at the old Patterson home before returning to Texas.

Sales bills come quickly at the Journal.
