MORE WHEAT ON NEBRASKA FARMS

Twice as Much Held as Last Year. Say the Government Reports.

Washington, D. C., March 15.—Reports to the United States department of agriculture show that the farmers of Minnesota and Nebraska had twice as much wheat left on farms, and the farmers of the Dakotas three times as much, as they had at the same time last year.

Minnesota reports show 20,558,000 bushels of wheat still on the farms this March, about the same amount as two years ago, but twice as much as last spring, when only 10,314,000 bushels were reported.

As Much as Two Years. Nebraska farms this year report 23,811,000 bushels still on farms, almost as much as last year's report, 10,899,000 bushels, and that of the year before, 13,712,900 bushels, added together.

North Dakota reports this year close to 40,000,000 bushels still on the farms, as against 15,000,000 a year ago and less than 15,500,000 two years ago.

South Dakota has on farms this year nearly 18,000,000 bushels, as against less than 7,000,000 a year ago and 9,000,000 two years ago.

Iowa has this year 3,734,000 bushels, as compared with 3,014,000 a year ago, and 4,263,000 two years ago.

Similar Increase in Oats. Similar, but smaller, increases are reported in the oats left on the farms.

Minnesota reports 55,094,000 bushels, as compared with 31,500,000 a year ago and less than 30,000,000 two years ago.

Nebraska reports 31,680,000, as compared with about 29,232,900 a year ago and 22,658,000 two years ago.

North Dakota reports 52,920,000, as compared with about 27,000,000 for each of the last two years, and South Dakota, 34,052,000, as against about 18,000,000 for each of the last two years.

Iowa reports 79,200,000 bushels, as against 61,000,000 in 1915 and 67,000,000 two years ago.

More Barley This Year. Much the same situation is shown as to barley, too.

Minnesota reports 11,529,000 bushels still on farms March 1, as against 8,240,000 bushels a year ago and 10,738,000 two years ago.

Nebraska reports 1,107,000 bushels March 1, as against 797,000 a year ago and only 370,000 two years ago.

North Dakota reports 13,440,000 bushels of barley this March, as against about 7,000,000 each of the last two years, and South Dakota 6,960,000, as compared with 5,083,000 a year ago, and 3,856,000 two years ago.

Iowa reports 2,845,900 bushels this year, as compared with 2,659,000 a year ago and 2,300,000 two years ago.

Nebraska Gains in Corn. In corn, however, Minnesota is a striking exception to the general condition reported. There are 8,694,000 bushels, where a year ago there were 26,390,000 and two years ago 33,600,000 bushels.

In Iowa, too the report of corn held on farms has dropped from 125,171,000 two years ago and 140,193,000 a year ago to only 87,890,000 this March.

On the other hand, Nebraska this year reports on the farms 87,330,000 bushels, practically the same as reported by Iowa, while a year ago Nebraska reported only 71,320,000 bushels, about half of Iowa's figure, and two years ago only 27,896,900, less than a fourth of the Iowa figure.

DEMOCRATS ARE SOLID BEHIND WILSON

Speakers at State Meeting Reiterated Endorsement of the Administration.

OPponents ARE NAMED FOR KINKAID AND SLOAN

Hastings, Neb., March 15.—Judge W. L. Stark of Aurora will be the democratic opponent of Congressman Sloan in the Fourth district and Frank Taylor of St. Paul will oppose Congressman Kinkaid, according to the result of the meeting of the state democratic committee here yesterday afternoon.

For state superintendent the democrats will run W. H. Clemmons, president of the Fremont normal school. W. M. Morning of Lincoln was endorsed for elector from the First district. Otto Baumann of Omaha for the Second district and George Beha of Nerna, Custer county, for the Sixth district.

Backing Morehead. A resolution was passed endorsing the candidacy of Governor Morehead for vice president, introduced by E. B. Gaddis. The resolutions were as follows:

"Whereas, Announcement has been made that the executive of this state, an official whose services in the state and to the democratic party have been commendable to the highest degree, will seek our party's nomination, and,

"Whereas, Democrats of this state recognize the necessity of having as running mate for our worthy president a man of whom interior portions of the country have knowledge and whose qualifications for the office must fit in with and adhere to the splendid democratic principles which President Wilson has so sturdily put into effect, with the aid of a democratic congress; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the democratic state central committee of Nebraska commends to the democrats of the nation the candidacy of Governor John H. Morehead, emphasizing particularly the sound business principles which he has injected into all public affairs, the splendidly efficient administration which he has twice given the state of Nebraska and the fact that he stands pre-eminently as a representative of the agricultural interests of the state and the great west."

Following the banquet in the evening, toasts were made by W. H. Thompson of Grand Island, L. J. Dunn of Omaha, C. W. Bryan of Lincoln, Keith Neville of North Platte, W. F. Stoecker of Omaha, John W. Cutright of Lincoln, Edgar Howard of Columbus, M. L. Corey of Clay Center and W. D. Oldham of Kearney.

The speakers without exception endorsed and praised the administration of Woodrow Wilson. Stoecker announced himself opposed to prohibition and Neville made his position plain.

Neville's Position.

Mr. Neville said in part: "I recognize as two paramount considerations of a candidate for governor, that, first, he is substantially in accord with the policies of President Wilson, and second that he be qualified by education, temperament and business experience to firmly grasp the problems of that office.

"I am Nebraska born and bred, and aside from the time spent in college, while my father was in congress, I have never resided outside of Lincoln county, Nebraska.

"Although I have traveled with my family here and there throughout the country and feel that I am reasonably well acquainted with economic conditions, and although I finished my classical education in Maryland, I have never seen or investigated an institution where I would rather educate my children than at the University of Nebraska.

"All that I possess in the world is invested in Nebraska. Naturally, as a citizen or as the chief executive of the state I would be deeply interested in its welfare and development. If chosen to take up the task of grappling with the problems of the executive office, I may be pardoned for Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. feeling the utmost confidence in my ability by reason of experience, energy and patriotism to succeed.

"I believe in good officials, and I believe in commending good officials for their work. I feel a pride in commending the services of an official like Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, whose independence of thought and action has distinguished him in the national congress, and attracted favorable comment from leaders at the nation's capitol to our great state. I am pleased likewise to praise the commonsense, businesslike administration of Governor Morehead, whose practice of small economies has saved the state nearly half a million dollars, and who has fully demonstrated that a capable business man, rather than a experimental reformer, is the kind of man Nebraska needs in the gubernatorial chair.

Has No Hobbies.

"It cannot be truthfully said that I have any hobbies, but there are three propositions near to my heart. First, the creation and maintenance of a permanent publicity bureau to furnish reliable information as to the varied and wonderful resources of our state. Second, the further development of good roads. Third, the protection of irrigation rights of the farmers of Nebraska from the encroachments of water users in the states of Colorado and Wyoming.

"I believe my position on the mooted question of prohibition is well understood. I shall hope that no one misunderstands me, for I believe that the people have a right to know the position of a candidate for governor with reference to the proposed amendment. I shall vote against it. Although a total abstainer myself, I favor the regulation of the liquor traffic rather than the attempt to prohibit it. I have been frequently advised to straddle this issue, but I am not naturally a straddler, and I see no reason why a candidate should not speak out clearly on this vexed question which has so often been projected into politics by politicians and for politicians only.

"I am emphatically in favor of the renomination and election of President Woodrow Wilson. I applaud his rare judgment in avoiding the pitfalls set by those who sought top lunge us into war. His record is such that the sober-minded patriotism of the nation cannot afford to desert him in this trying hour.

"Embarrassed by the withdrawal of members of his cabinet in times of direct need by men whose obligations to the public, if not of friendship, should have made them his strong right arm, he has measured up to the highest standard of loyal devotion to the American people.

"In this campaign I have no entangling alliances. I have made no promises and expect to make none I cannot conscientiously keep. My career is in its infancy; it may be short. But, whether short or long, it shall never be truthfully said of me that I deceived a friend or betrayed a trust to further my political aims."
