

SEVENTY SEVENTH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

A Prominent Old Lady Whose Friends Are Proud to Help Her Celebrate Each Year.

Yesterday was the 77th anniversary of Mrs. Kate Oliver of this city, and in keeping with the custom of several years the children gathered with her to celebrate the occasion in a most appropriate manner...

From early morning till the close of the day Mrs. Oliver was the recipient of calls, as well as messages from her many friends, and from all parts of the country messages were received, including a telegram from Tom Body, Sr., of Atlanta, Georgia, manager of the Cudahy interests in that city...

The Oliver home was filled with the most beautiful flowers that could be found anywhere and the roses, both American Beauty and Killarney, added their touch to the general decorative plan, together with the golden jennipars and green roses and lilies.

Mrs. Oliver was born in Tipperary many years ago, and although the greater part of her lifetime has been spent in America, still she feels the warmest feeling for the little green spot over the sea, and each St. Patrick's day brings back fond memories of her youth in that country...

Those present were: Mrs. Anna Miller and son, Harry, and daughter, Miss Katie Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller and son, Glen; Hon. J. M. Gates and wife and Mrs. Delia Trumbull, all of Fort Crook; C. D. Eades and wife, Omaha; Mrs. A. W. Hallam and son, Oliver, Omaha; James Mitchell and wife, Council Bluffs; Miss Carrie Oliver, D. C. Morgan and wife and daughter, Miss Gertrude, and Miss Catherine Schrack, all of this city.

Mrs. H. F. Swanback buried at Greenwood. From Saturday's Daily. The news has been received here of the wedding on March 16th at Council Bluffs, Iowa, of Mr. A. G. Palmer of Lyons, Nebraska, and Miss Emma Kaufmann of this city.

INTERESTING PROGRAM AT CENTRAL SCHOOL BUILDING

From Saturday's Daily. A very interesting program was given at the Central building yesterday morning by the pupils of the room of Mr. Frans, which was enjoyed not only by the young people attending this room, but also by the pupils of the room of Miss Anna Heisel, who were invited to take part in the pleasurable occasion.

PHILIP THIEROLF FOR MEMBER BOARD OF EDUCATION

From Saturday's Daily. John Lutz, who was nominated as the democratic member of the school board at the recent city convention of the party, has withdrawn from the race and the committee has filled the vacancy by the selection of Mr. Philip Thierolf, one of the leading business men of the city, for the position.

TWO NEW DIVORCE SUITS FILED IN DISTRICT COURT

From Saturday's Daily. Two new divorce cases have been filed in the district court in which the parties seek to have the bonds of matrimony dissolved by the court and be restored to the state of single blessedness.

Hettie Cummings has filed a petition for divorce from Isaac N. Cummings, stating that they were married May 26, 1910, at Hiawatha, Kansas, and alleging that they are unable to live in peace and rest and asking that as the defendant is possessed of real estate to the value of $950, that the court direct the sum of $450 in alimony be paid to plaintiff.

Sadie E. Reese has filed a suit against Emmor K. Reese, asking for a divorce and stating that they were married August 20, 1913, at Greenwood and have since made their home there. Financial troubles over their property has caused a great deal of jarring in the family and destroyed the peace of the household.

DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPH NEJEDLEY AT CREIGHTON

From Saturday's Daily. A message was received here this afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock by Frank F. Buttery announcing the death of Mrs. Joseph Nejedley at her home at Creighton, Nebraska, this morning. The message did not state the cause of the death and came as a great shock to the relatives here, who were not aware of the illness of Mrs. Nejedley.

MRS. H. F. SWANBACK BURIED AT GREENWOOD

From Friday's Daily. From the press dispatches it is learned that Mrs. Mary Swanback, the aged wife of H. F. Swanback, the oldest Odd Fellow in the United States, has passed away at the state Odd Fellows' Home at York, Nebraska, where they have been making their home for the past year.

TOM DENNISON OF OMAHA MENTIONED IN SHERCLIFFE CASE

From Friday's Daily. Denver, March 16.—The application of Frank Shercliff for a release from the penitentiary, where he is serving a twenty-five-year term for the murder in 1908 of John W. Walsh, a miner, of Leadville, was to be considered at a meeting today of the Colorado state board of pardons.

Three times in six years the pardon board has passed upon Shercliff's application for freedom, but in each instance, it is said, his release was opposed by the governor.

Counsel for Shercliff has contended that the trial and conviction was the result of a "frame up" and actuated by motives for revenge.

JOHN SATTLER PURCHASES INTERESTS OF M. HILD

From Friday's Daily. Another change in the business establishments of the city was consummated yesterday when John P. Sattler purchased the interest of M. Hild in the undertaking business in which they have been interested for the past few months since the sale of the furniture stock of Mr. Hild.

L. G. TODD FILES FOR FLOAT REPRESENTATIVE FROM OTOE AND CASS COUNTIES

From Saturday's Daily. Another filing was made at the court house yesterday afternoon, which completes the list as far as the democratic ticket is concerned and gives them at least one candidate for every office to be voted for at the coming election.

Good style in clothes

YOU appreciate the importance of correct style in your clothes; but you probably couldn't say just what correct style is.

—Style means so many things that very few men can describe it; two suits, for example, might differ very decidedly in detail, and yet both be correct in style.

—Style isn't any one thing; it's a general "air," but whatever it is, you want it.

—Please take notice of the model we show here. It's graceful form—fitting lines, the peaked lapel, the close-fitting sleeve head and shoulders, and the trim fitting trousers.

—This is only one of many models you have to choose in here and all the newest fabrics.

—It will be good news to you to know that we have not as yet raised the price on a single suit or spring coat. We are offering you the genuine Oswego serge, guaranteed color, at $17 and other styles in proportion.

H. Phelps, who has been very ill with a severe attack of grippe has recovered, and is able to be up and around again, after being bed fast several weeks.

Mrs. J. R. Mayfield returned home from Omaha Saturday where she was called early in the week because of the serious illness of her father, who is suffering from a prolonged attack of the grippe.

Bert Jacobsen, a former Louisville boy, but who has been with the Bell Telephone Company recently, has accepted a position with a large whip manufacturing concern in Illinois, and is well pleased with his prospects.

C. J. Pankonin and Charles Sack went to Omaha Monday to purchase some farm implements to be shipped to Meadow. On account of the auto bridge being out Mr. Sack could not be supplied from Mr. Pankonin's local store.

We learn that M. A. Sams, a former superintendent of the Louisville school, but who has not been in school work for several years, has accepted the position of superintendent of the schools at Valley, at a salary of $150 per month.

C. Sprick, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sprick, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sprick, all of Stanton, Nebraska, arrived last week to attend the funeral of Ernest Sprick, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sprick, whose funeral occurred Sunday.

Judge James W. Brobst went to Omaha the first of the week and entered the Methodist hospital to undergo treatment for heart trouble.

He was taken with an attack of the grippe several weeks ago and it left his heart in a weakened condition, and he found it necessary to go to the hospital and take treatment from a specialist. His many Louisville friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Ben Young came in Saturday afternoon to spend a few hours here looking after some trading with the merchants.
